SOPHOMORES WIN INTERCLASS CAGE TITLE ON TUESDAY

Defeat Highly Rated Junior Quint in Final Game of Tournament

The Sophomores, coached by Bob Powell and Gus Paulson, and paced by the fine play of their captain, Billy McKechnie, upset the highly-rated Juniors Tuesday night, 21 to 13, to win the inter-class basketball championship. In the semi-final games Monday night the Sophs had taken the measure of the nifty Freshmen aggregation, winning by an 18 to 14; while the powderhouse Juniors were rolling through the Seniors for a 39 to 15 triumph.

In Tuesday night's tilt the Sophomores jumped into an early lead, getting a 7 to 2 advantage over a team of Junior reserves; and then continued to outplay the Juniors when coaches Milt Reierson and Jack Melby rushed the regulars into the game. The Sophomores played smartly throughout the final period, out-passing and outmaneuvering their taller and bulkier opponents, and retaining possession of the ball during most of the period.

In the consolation game the Seniors outscored the luckless Freshmen, winning a 28 to 24 decision.

Local Boys, Coached by Roy Oen, Win Sportsmanship Trophy

55 ATTEND 40 & 8 AFFAIR HONORING HOCKEY PLAYERS

Initiation Also Conducted by Local Voiture Last Saturday Night

In spite of unfavorable weather, 55 persons assembled at the Palm Garden Cafe Saturday evening at a banquet honoring the junior hockey team, state champions, sponsored by the local voiture of the 40 & 8, following which four candidates were initiated into the voiture, bringing the membership to more than forty.

Dr. A. R. Hulbert, correspondent, officiated as toastmaster at the banquet, and introduced W. E. Dahlquist, the principal speaker, as well as Alex Cloutier, chef de gare, and Walter DePaul, hockey coach. Bill LaFave presented each of the players with a picture of the team. Greetings also were read from state officers of the 40 & 8 organization.

Tentative arrangements were made to conduct another initiation Saturday evening, April 18, when it is hoped to have present the delegation from the Grand Forks voiture which was unable to be present at the affair Saturday. It was also decided to send a group from the local unit to Grand Forks April 24 for a 40 & 8 affair honoring Lynn U. Stambaugh, national commander of the American Legion.

Pressure Bowlers

A fine example of "money" bowling was the performance of the Bratrud Clinic team in rolling through to the city bowling team championship. Bowling against the Elks Club in the semi-finals, the Clinics rolled games of 903 and 886, and that's the actual pins count. And in the championship finals against the Creamery the Docs piled up scores of 836 and 929, and again that's the actual pins total. The Clinics pin average for the season was 791, so you see that they were applying the pressure against the Elks and the Creamery.

Lanky John Kroll, bowling in the fourth slot, proved to be the team's "clutch" bowler, for in the series with the Elks he racked up scores of 227 and 170, and in the finals he scrambled the pins for games of 199 and 203, to mark up a 799 four-game total.

A Big Chew-ful

It is reported that George Lee's Eveleth high school football team has been scheduled for a game next fall. Eveleth may not be such great shakes in basketball, but in football and hockey they are one of the Range powers, and the Prowlers have taken on quite a big mouthful in scheduling the Rangers.

Sophomores, Inter-class Champs

That noise you heard Tuesday night was the collapse of the Junior's interclass basketball championship hopes. The Juniors, after swamping the Seniors by a 39 to 15 score on Monday, imagined that all they had to do against the Sophomores on Tuesday night, in the finals, was to go through the motions. Bob Abbott was going around town saying that the Juniors would mark up a 20-point win, and coaches Milt Reierson and Jack Melby were saying that the only way they could keep the score down to a respectable figure would be to use the Juniors' third team players. They're walking around with such wry faces since Tuesday night that you'd think they were sucking on lemons.

In fairness to the Juniors, though, it must be said that they were "cold" in their play, and that the scrappy Sophomores were "on". Coach Jack Melby wouldn't give me any quote after the game, but Milt Reierson said, "Did you see Bob Abbott? Jack and I told the boys to play a man-to-man defense in the second half, and Abbott played a one-man zone!"

And speaking of "cold" teams, the Freshmen team could have taken the championship if they had been making a fair proportion of their shots. Against the Sophs the Frosh had numerous shots from the free throw circle, but they couldn't hit the counting ring; and against the Seniors the Freshmen broke in for set-up shots and then bobbled the play or overshot the hoop.

Varsity coach Harry Newby was very interested in the play of the inter-class boys, for he will have to dip into that reservoir for replacements to fill the vacancies caused by the graduation of Campbell, Lorentson, Pederson and Gjernes.

All-interclass Team

Here are the boys that I'd pick as the outstanding players in the interclass tournament: forwards—Billy McKechnie, soph; Bob Wright, junior; Virg Evenstad, frosh; Owen Borchert, senior; centers—Bob Abbott, junior; Steve Alnes, soph; guards—Pete Michalsky, junior; Norm Furuseth, soph; Billy Bye, frosh; Bud Eide, junior.

Billy McKechnie and Billy Bye were the tourney's high scorers, each with 15 points; while Bob Wright, Owen Borchert, and Virg Evenstad, were runners-up with 12 points each.

Some Finger!

Al Weber, pilot of the Thief River Creamery bowling team, rolled a very sorry second game in the Creamery's match with the Thief River Pharmacy, getting an anemic 114 score. Kidded about the score Al held up a badly bruised middle finger and asked how anyone could bowl a high score with a finger like that. And here's what Al did in the third game, and it beat the Pharmacy; two spares, six strikes, a spare and a strike, for a 246 total! Some finger!

ASKS FARMERS TO RESTRICT WHEAT ACREAGE IN 1942

State AAA Chairman Cites Acute Grain Storage Problem

Northwest farmers may face one of the most serious storage problems in history in 1942 as a result of record-breaking production of flax, soybeans and small grains, Charles W. Stickney, Minnesota AAA chairman, warned today in requesting farmers to plant within their spring wheat acreage allotments.

"One way in which we can alleviate the grain storage situation is to not produce excessive amounts of crops that are not seriously needed in the all-out food production campaign," Mr. Stickney said. "Wheat is a crop that we are not asking for expanded production. We have wheat enough on hand to last a year if not a bushel were produced this year."

Mr. Stickney based his statements as to the seriousness of the grain storage on information received during a farm-to-farm contact made within the past three weeks by the AAA community committeemen obtaining information for the Minnesota USDA War Board.

"The information we received from these contacts indicate that hundreds of thousands of bushels of grain must be moved from the area where produced unless farmers can provide storage on the farm," he said.

"Local elevator and terminal storage facilities are already near the capacity point and some counties reported grain stored from previous years in local elevators and on the farm equalled production during a normal year.

"The situation may be further aggravated by a possible shortage of cars for transportation at harvest time. The great number of railroad rolling stock needed to move military equipment and food supplies to our armed forces will undoubtedly reflect itself in a shortage of rolling stock to move grain crops."

Rationing Board Given Prices for Used Tires Set by Leon Henderson

Persons wishing to ascertain the maximum prices that have been established for used tires and tubes may do so by calling at the offices of their local rationing boards, T. G. Driscoll, state rationing director, pointed out this week.

The local boards have been furnished with a full copy of the regulations, Driscoll said, and owners of cars and trucks may learn the price for tires and tubes for any particular vehicle by consulting this list. The prices vary, not only with size but in accordance with the depth of the tread remaining.

The maximum prices on used tires and tubes were established by Leon Henderson, federal price administrator, following complaint that excessive prices were being charged for the tires and tubes in many localities. Heavy penalties are imposed under the federal regulations on dealers who charge more than the specified prices. The dealers also are required as a further protection to keep the maximum prices posted in their places of business.

Sportsmen's Show Opens Saturday, April 4, in Minneapolis Auditorium

All the fun of the outdoors will be crammed into the Northwest Sportsmen's show for nine big days April 4-12 at the Minneapolis auditorium. To provide lessons in the leading outdoor sports, experts of the nation will be on hand to teach all visitors. Tony Accetta will instruct in bait and fly casting. Orin Benson, one of the nation's ablest dog-trainers, will show how he gets results with his retrievers. Fred Bear will show how he has won numerous championships with the bow and arrow. The topnotch trap and skeet experts of the Northwest will instruct in shooting.

In the live game and fish exhibits, new features include crosses between pheasants and chickens, crosses between standard strains of hunting dogs, foxes and coyotes. There will be all varieties of game fish in the huge indoor aquarium.

3,750 Minnesota WPA Workers to be Dropped from Jobs This Month

Minnesota WPA, with nearly 3,000 on its waiting list for jobs, must drop 3,750 persons from its present payrolls to bring them within the April quota of 23,300 set by Washington, S. L. Stolte, state administrator, announced Monday.

March quota was 27,050.

The reduction will require closing many projects and some entire country programs, Stolte said, but efforts will be made to limit closings to localities where workers will have a chance to get farm or defense work.

District headquarters in various Minnesota cities will divide the April quota as follows: Duluth, 4,497; Detroit Lakes, 3,900; Twin Cities, 9,380; New Ulm, 4,196.

Dear friends:

We want to mention today a problem which occasionally confronts us.

There are certain circumstances under which morbid curiosity prompts funeral attendance. Obviously this cannot be prevented. But we earnestly request everyone to consider this matter carefully. Funeral attendance should be for no other purpose than to pay respectful tribute to the deceased.

We know you will fully agree with us in this statement.

Respectfully,

FARMERS EXCEED QUOTAS OF FOOD SOUGHT BY U. S.

R. A. Trovatten Reports on Progress of Defense Food Drive

Responding promptly and in generous measure to the United States government's request for increased food supplies for war purposes, Minnesota's farmers have in most cases more than doubled the quotas set for them, R. A. Trovatten, state commissioner of agriculture, reported this week in an address.

Though it was necessary in many cases to install new equipment, production of needed supplies was so increased that totals for 1941 ran far ahead of 1940, he said.

"Minnesota was asked to increase its quota of cheese 5,720,000 pounds for 1941," Commissioner Trovatten said. "The increased production was 10,000,000 pounds. We were asked to increase our production of dry milk powder by 13,250,000 pounds in 1941; we increased our production 22,000,000 pounds. On evaporated milk, our quota for 1941 was 2,750,000 pounds; our increase was 5,255,000 pounds."

Trovatten said that butter production in Minnesota for 1941 increased 18,000,000 pounds over 1940. "That is why the farmers have asked the government to buy butter," he said, "as they cannot produce dry milk powder without first producing butter."

Trovatten said that many farmers are objecting to the government selling its surplus holdings of grain at low prices at this time to be fed to livestock. "The farmers," he said, "think this can only mean an increased production of perishable foods of which there are already large holdings in the warehouses, that it will demoralize the price of both grain and perishable products. The grains, they argue, can and should be stored and converted into perishable products later as needed."

National Hardware Week Set for April 16 to 25

More than 1,400 members of the Minnesota Retail Hardware Association will join with those through the entire country in observing National Hardware Week April 16 to 25th, it was announced Saturday by C. J. Christopher, Minneapolis, manager of the association.

Hardware dealers will display items available for war-time use by patrons, with emphasis being placed on tools, equipment and materials available for the farmer and dairyman in Minnesota.

"Despite lack of materials due to various war needs, there are plenty of goods in hardware stores for farm and town use," Mr. Christopher pointed out.

Rescue at Sea After Drifting for 11 Days

GARDEN and TABLE

By ERNEST A. PALMER
County Agricultural Agent

Early spring is strawberry planting time in Minnesota. Take a tip from Extension Bulletin 72, "Growing Strawberries in Minnesota," and stick to those varieties which are already being grown successfully in your locality. Don't set the plants too close to oak and other shade groves. The worst enemy the strawberry plant has, the white grub, is more likely to be found near a grove of trees.

A bee in your garden or orchard is worth ten in your bonnet, but the honey bee has an important wartime job in addition to pollinating fruit trees and garden plants. The industry that produces beeswax for lubricating war weapons and honey for the homemaker's table has been given a priority rating. Homemakers will recognize honey as more than a substitute for sugar. Honey contains small amounts of many minerals, especially copper and iron, which help to build up the red blood cells in the body.

Don't spare the water at transplanting time. Water the plants before removing them and if possible keep a ball of dirt about the roots or dip them in muddy water. Wet the soil before and after setting the plant, and if the soil is very dry partially fill the hole with water. And then, just to make sure that the direct rays of the sun don't rob the plant of its moisture, shade them for a few days after transplanting and if the weather is hot and dry remove a part of the foliage to cut down the moisture loss.

Get them while they're young. Stirring the soil surface of the seedbed thoroughly with the garden rake before planting discourages the weedsters. After the garden is in, frequent, shallow cultivation kills the young weeds and lessens the danger of injuring the tender root systems of the vegetables.

New enrollments in the 4-H Victory garden project for 1942 will be encouraged during National 4-H Mobilization Week beginning April 5. Every 4-H family in Minnesota is expected to plant a Victory garden this spring and every 4-H member will produce something for family living in his project work this year.

A farewell party was given last Tuesday evening at the Dan Payne home by about 60 neighbors and friends. The evening was spent socially and a set of dishes was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Payne who are moving soon to Goodridge. The farm has been rented out for the coming year and we all hope the Payne family will decide to again make their home in our midst. Mr. Payne will be employed by the oil company and Mrs. Payne will be employed at the store run by Mr. Payne's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chapman came last week from International Falls and spent a few days visiting at the W. E. Chapman and W. Reese homes before leaving for their home in North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Chapman and children who have spent some time at the W. E. Chapman home moved back on the farm near Mavie Friday of last week.

Owing to the bad weather and roads the attendance at the shower given Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berggren was not as well attended as it should have been but many nice gifts were received and our best wishes for the happiness and prosperity of the newlyweds is hereby extended by the community.

From where I sit...
by Joe Marsh

Best storekeeper I ever knew was a fellow named Sam Abernethy. Sam's specialty was to take over some run-down store that somebody else had given up as a failure. Then Sam would turn it into a gold mine.

"But the most important thing of all," he used to say, "is to remember who's Boss!"

"You may think you are Boss of your business . . . but you're not. The Public, your customers, are the real bosses . . . and you've got to run your business the way they want it."

That little statement of Sam's made a big impression on me . . . particularly since it certainly seemed to work so well in Sam's case.

And Sam isn't the only one. I see the beer industry feels the same way . . . certainly, the brewers believe in running their business the way you and I would like to see it run.

Well . . . the brewers feel the same way about it. They don't want their beer sold in wrong surroundings. They know it doesn't pay. And they know it hurts the good name of beer.

I was reading the other day how the brewers and the beer distributors work together and cooperate with law enforcement authorities. The idea is to make careless beer retailers clean up their places and practices . . . or close up.

It's a good plan . . . and it seems to me it ought to work. I understand it is already in operation in a number of states and is being extended.

It's a mighty fine thing when a great industry has the gumption to do a job like that on its own initiative. And if Sam Abernethy was right, the brewers should be mighty successful . . . because they're running their business the way the public wants to see it run.

Co-Op Store Has Successful Year

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Grygla Co-operative Store was held last Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was opened by the President, Peter Bakken. The financial report for 1941 was read and explained by the secretary, Irwin Anderson. The store had its largest business in 1941 for any year since the organization in 1910. The total sales were $88,309, an increase of $16,950.31 over 1940. In comparison to the average of 108 other Cooperative societies in the state this organization compared very favorably. In a report on additional activities of the board during the past year, the secretary stated that since the organization of this company in 1910 each $100 share has earned $300.00 in stock dividends and a total of $126,000.00 has been paid out in stock and purchase dividends by the company.

The president called for a discussion of the credit policy of the company and many opinions were voiced. It was decided that the credit system should be tightened through the present national emergency and that collections on accounts more than six months old should be made.

Carl Holbrook, manager, then gave a report on the annual meeting of the C. C. W. held at Duluth last year. Those attending were Sofus Hjertness, the delegate, and Carl Holbrook, L. O. Larson, and Erwin Nelson, visitors. It was decided to send two delegates to the annual meeting this year, which will be held on April 14-16 and will commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of C. C. W.

A motion was passed allowing the board of directors to engage a legal advisor for the entire year. All farmers bringing eggs to the store were asked to carry their egg cases directly to the basement where the candling is done.

There was much discussion on the advisability of deferring payment of patronage dividends until later in the year but it was decided to pay this dividend at this time. One third of this dividend is being held to create an equity reserve.

There was a vote by ballot to elect four directors; forty-four votes were cast. Sofus Hjertness was re-elected with 37 votes; Peter Bakken was reelected with 34 votes; and Olaf Olstad received 18 votes. Peter Bakken declined to accept so Hans E. Hanson, having 16 votes, was chosen. The board which organized after the meeting is made up of Sofus Hjertness, president; L. O. Larson, vice president, Irvin Anderson, secretary; and Olaf Olstad and Hans E. Hanson, directors.

Speakers at the meeting were Abner Jonas of Mendota who is a field man for C. C. W. and Cecil Kruse of Superior, Wisc., affiliated with the Educational Department of C. C. W. Miss Kip Sink, organizer of Junior Leaders of Co-op. Leagues, was also present.

Due to the bad roads and inclement weather the crowd in town was not as large as in other years. However, complimentary tickets for treats were given out amounting to $74.25.

A song, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again", was then sung by a ladies trio, Mrs. John T. Johnson, Mrs. Myra Monroe and Mrs. G. O. Sandland; Anne Viken played the organ accompaniment.

At the close of the afternoon a bounteous lunch, which had been brought by the guests, was served. KEEPING FIT
Harder work, more responsibility than ever falls today on the men left to do the job on the "home front". Important tasks must be carried out under greater tension during this critical period.

For physical fitness the wise man sticks to beer. Why? Because beer contains the healthful vitamins and nutritional value of barley, hops and yeast. Many physicians regard beer as a food, its pre-digested malt being an important source of energy to overcome physical fatigue.

For mental fitness, too, beer is today's ideal beverage. Being mildly stimulating and refreshing, it promotes the complete relaxation needed so much after the speed-up tempo of the day's work.

Yes, for keeping fit, stick to beer . . . the Beverage of Moderation.

DRAF[illegible]ARDS SET TO EN[illegible] MEN AGES 45-64

Registration Will be Held April 25 to 27, Says State Chief

MEN NOT SUBJECT TO MILITARY SERVICE

No Lottery to be Held, and No Order Numbers to be Assigned

Distribution of instructions to all local boards concerning the forthcoming registration on April 25, 26, and 27 was announced today by Colonel J. E. Nelson, state director for selective service. The registration will be held for men, who reached their 45th birthday on or before February 16, 1942, and have not attained their 65th birthday on April 27, 1942.

Although the men to be registered are not liable for military service, they will be registered in much the same manner as men who enrolled in previous registrations, state headquarters said.

Local boards, aided by volunteer registrars, will conduct the registration and will record the same information on registration cards as was recorded for men of the first three registrations.

Hours for the registration will be: Saturday, April 25th, 1:00 P. M. to 6:00 P. M. Sunday, April 26th, 1:00 P. M. to 6:00 P. M. Monday, April 27th, 7:00 A. M. to 9:00 P. M. Registration cards will be buff in color and there will be no substantial change in form.

It was pointed out that as the men of the fourth registration are not liable for military service there will be no national lottery for them and no order numbers issued, although serial numbers will be placed on registration cards by local boards.

It was announced that the chairman of each local board will be charged with providing registration places and securing volunteer registrars, without expense to the government, in such numbers as are necessary to complete the registration in the local board area. The experience gained in the third registration will be used as a guide in fixing the numbers of registration places and registrars. Registration places will be carefully located throughout the area, and sufficient registrars provided so that registrants will not face transportation difficulties or long delays at the registration places.

As in previous registrations it is estimated that only a few minutes will be required to register each man. However, registrars will use the utmost caution so as to insure listing of correct answers to the questions on the registration card.

The questions asked will be: the registrant's name, place of residence, mailing address (if other than place of residence), telephone, age in years and date of birth, place of birth, name and address of a person who will always know the registrant's whereabouts, his employer's name and address, and the place of his employment or business.

No Road Construction in County During 1942

Taking action similar to that of a majority of other counties in Minnesota during the war emergency, the Pennington county board, at its April session opening Tuesday, indicated that it would undertake no road construction projects in the county during the current year. A modest graveling program is contemplated, details of which will be worked out at a later meeting of the board.

As is the case every spring, numerous large delegations of residents of rural localities were present Tuesday to request various road improvement projects. Townships represented by the delegation included Bray, North, Silverton, Wyandotte, Deer Park, Reiner and Goodridge. A group also was present to urge cleaning of ditches to relieve flood conditions in Sanders, Norden and Highlanding townships.

Another large delegation asked the board to create the position of county nurse, whose functions in the rural areas would be similar to basis last fall by an itinerant nurse under the sponsorship of the county Red Cross chapter. The board deferred action on the request until its May session.

The board voted its usual appropriation of $750 toward the support of the county library system, and also voted $500 to the Pennington County Agricultural society, sponsor of the county fair, with the understanding that $100 of the total be utilized exclusively for the payment of premiums to 4-H exhibitors.

COUNTY 4-H CLUBS IN CAMPAIGN FOR NEW '42 MEMBERS

Pennington Co. Clubs to Date Have 100 More Members Than Year Ago

New enrollment in Pennington County 4-H clubs will be invited during National 4-H Mobilization Week, April 5 to 11, according to Ernest A. Palmer, county agent. Most of the county's 4-H boys and girls already have their livestock and homemaking projects well underway, but there is still opportunity to enroll for spring and summer projects.

During national mobilization week, farm boys and girls not already enrolled in 4-H club projects will be encouraged to enter garden and canning projects for family food production, and market litter and 10-ewe projects in livestock production.

Considerable increase in 4-H membership is expected in Pennington county as four new clubs have already been organized in the eastern part of the county. These new clubs are in Reiner, Deer Park, Mayfield and Kratka. The county membership is now 380 which is over 100 members more than a year ago at this time.

In a letter addressed to the 4-H club members of the United States, President Roosevelt expressed the hope that the National 4-H Mobilization week will bring more rural young people into 4-H work. The president wrote:

"Your activity in producing, preserving, and preparing food; and your other practical experiences in farming and homemaking have prepared you for many tasks important in peacetime and indispensable in wartime. COUNTY'S ROAD ALLOTMENT IS CUT THIS YEAR

Pennington Co. to Receive $42,600, Well Under Total for 1941

MARSHALL COUNTY IS ALLOTTED $72,600

Pennington Gets $12,600 for State Aid Roads, $30,000 for County Aid

Minnesota's 87 counties felt the sting of anticipated war-time restrictions upon highway revenues this week, as the state board of allotment announced its 1942 allocations of state aid highway funds.

At the same time, action of the board brought to more than $10,350,000 the amount of this year's state-collected road-user taxes which already have been allocated to purposes other than current improvement or maintenance of the state trunk highway system.

Regular and special state aid highway allotments to the various counties of the state this year total $5,234,885, as compared to a record breaking total of $7,200,000 in 1941. Of this money, $1,260,000 is for state aid roads and $3,974,885 for county aid, or so-called gas tax roads. Out of these sums, Pennington county will receive a total of $42,600, which is made up of $12,600 for state aid roads and $30,000 for county aid roads. Marshall county receive a total of $72,600, while Red Lake county gets $42,600.

The Pennington county allotments compare with a total of $60,000 received in 1941; $56,500 in 1940; $62,000 in 1939; and $57,051 in 1938.

In addition to apportioning among the counties their one-third share of anticipated state gasoline tax receipts, the board of allotment also set aside from expected 1942 state highway revenues the sum of $4,670,739.32 to meet principal and interest payments coming due this year on state trunk highway and state-assumed county reimbursement bonds. This sum, added to $448,000 previously earmarked for the Secretary of State's office to pay for administering the motor vehicle registration law and purchasing and issuing license plates, brought to $10,358,624.82 the total demands upon 1942 state-collected road-user tax revenue which must be met before any of these anticipated collections are available to the highway department for new work on state trunk highways.

Several factors other than the inevitable emergency reduction in motor vehicle and gas tax receipts affected the total monies available or anticipated for allocation to counties this year by the allotment board, which consists of State Treasurer Julius Schmahl, State Auditor Stafford King, and Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann. Repeal by the 1941 legislature of the one-mill road and bridge fund levy on general property left a balance of only $60,000 of this type of revenue to be distributed this year. However, restoration of the state gasoline tax to 4-cents by the same legislature, with the proviso that $1,200,000 of the increased gas tax proceeds be used to replace 1-mill revenues for state aid roads, served to recompense for the loss of one-mill tax revenues.

Members of the board also pointed out that the record breaking sum of state highway funds apportioned among the counties for state-aid and county-aid highways in 1941 was due to the fact that the state collected gas taxes at the 4-cent rate for eight months of the year, and also had available for distribution the proceeds from the 1-mill property tax levied for 1940, the year before its repeal.

Bring your brows to the Infants' Section of OEN'S and browse around among the darling dainties that they have for babies. Sagacious salespeople will suggest simply scores of seductive selections to satisfy. IN FOOD, quality is especially important, and in no food is quality so important as in Bakery goods. The taste tells. And that is why the DeLuxe products of Hartz Bakery are so popular. Only the best ingredients are used in the Hartz Bakery, and Hartz bakers "know how". Here in Thief River Falls, of course, fresh Hartz Bakery products are always available. But for those special parties, when you probably will want special foods, try the Hartz Bakery special service. Phone your order early enough so the bakery can handle it properly, and we are quite sure that from then on you will be phoning in special bakery orders quite regularly.

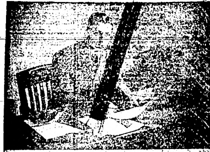
PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIOS — A perfect portrait of Mother and Dad, or a group photograph of the whole family, by the Salveson STUDIO, will do much to lessen the loneliness of the young men leaving for training or service. Salveson's portraits are so natural as to seem like the real presence of the persons portrayed and the boys will be mighty proud of the pictures. Give them this excellent morale medicine by telephoning the SALVESON STUDIO, number 204-M, any time before the boys go.

FURNITURE STORES: The appearance of home interiors is sometimes marred by shabby, outmoded floor coverings. You can avoid that discordant note by replacing with Wool Face Axminster Broadloom Rugs, from the TOPPLER PIANO & FURNITURE STORE. In fixed rug sizes for thrifty, economical service, these are precut from borderless, tone-on-tone broadloom carpet. The sturdy, tight wool pile is woven from all-wool yarns and the processed backs give additional weight for longer wear and help rugs lie flat. The TOPPLER PIANO & FURNITURE STORE is headquarters for all types of Floor Coverings—



OUR ARMY AND NAVY
Yours, by Right, is the Highest Priority Rating of Them All!
As Uncle Sam's MOST ACTIVE PARTNER, you logically receive a Priority Rating second to none. Yours is first choice of all the vast stock of merchandise Wards sells.

Mr. FARMER . . .

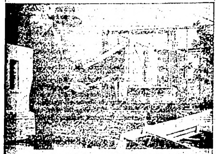
You are Uncle Sam's partner . . . in supplying our nation (and our Allies) with food! That's why he's given you an "upkeep" Priority for your farm. "Vittles for Victory!"

Mr. DEFENSE WORKER
Uncle Sam Has Given You the Priority to Buy the "Tools of Your Trade."
You're the partner of the man behind the gun! That's why you can buy the tools you use so well to turn the wheels that soon will turn the tide! (Keep 'em turning!)

Mr. FACTORY OWNER
You Have the Priority to Purchase Tools, and Maintenance Equipment
You are Uncle Sam's leader of "the men behind the men behind the guns." That's why he has given you Priority to buy the equipment you need, to keep your factory humming.



Mr. CONTRACTOR . . .

In This Great "Priorities" System
YOU are Uncle Sam's Partner!

"What are Priorities?" "Why do we have them?" "What do they mean to me?" We hear these questions asked, today, everywhere. And the answers are really simple. On many important products and materials, today, the demand exceeds the supply. That's because Uncle Sam is providing the necessities for America's armed forces, as well as for our Allies. PRIORITIES are Uncle Sam's system for seeing that these vital products and materials are employed WHERE THEY'LL DO THE MOST GOOD FOR AMERICA! In making this system work, each and every one of us is a partner. In varying ways. If your job is vital to our nation, you're entitled to buy, on Priorities, the "tools" you require. If your need for these scarcities is not so vital, you still play your part . . . in temporary sacrifice . . . helping make sure these necessities go WHERE THEY DO UNCLE SAM THE MOST GOOD!

MAKE WARDS YOUR HEADQUARTERS FOR PRIORITIES INFORMATION . . . WE'LL BE HAPPY TO HELP YOU!

The latest Priorities rulings, and the correct interpretations of them, are sent to us here every day. A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM THE FOUNDER OF THE J. C. PENNEY COMPANY:

A TREMENDOUS TASK LIES AHEAD OF US!

Today America is at war. Now, in wartime, because of the tremendous job ahead of us, we must learn again to work hard and to live simply—to put into the preserving of America what we once put into the building of it—to return to the old ways of Thrift and Savings that were the general rule at the beginning of this century.

We feel that the Penney Company is peculiarly well equipped to make a substantial contribution toward the Thrift and Savings of the nation—because the Penney Co. knows from long experience what thrift is all about.

Thrift is nothing new to the Penney Company—it is our stock in trade. When the Penney business was founded, in 1902, hard work, and spartan living were the general rule. Our first little store in Kemmerer, Wyoming was dedicated to Thrift, and all through the years, as our business has grown, Thrift has continued to be our guiding principle.

THRIFT AND SAVINGS ARE A BIG PART OF THE JOB

The Penney Co.'s practice of Thrift and Savings is evidenced in everything we do: We buy for cash and sell for cash; we make no deliveries; we eliminate all costly frills and extravagances; we operate on an extremely small margin of profit per transaction; we buy at the source in the most economical quantities; we save at every turn! All this means that now when Thrift and Savings mean more than ever, it will pay you, it will save precious dollars for you, always to shop first at Penney's.

WE REDEDICATE OURSELVES, TODAY, ON OUR 40th ANNIVERSARY, TO THE SERVICE OF AMERICA

We rededicate ourselves to Thrift and Savings. We rededicate our 1600 stores, which now stretch from coast to coast, to the great job of helping American families to continue to live well for less.

THE PENNEY WAY IS THE THRIFTY WAY—THE THRIFTY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

WHEAT FARMERS IN STATE TO VOTE ON MARKET QUOTA

Only Those Affected Will be Allowed to Vote on May 2

Only farmers that will be affected by a wheat marketing quota will be allowed to vote in the referendum to be held May 2, Charles W. Stickney, Minnesota AAA chairman, said today.

"By restricting voting on wheat marketing quotas to the farmers who will be affected, we are keeping the spirit and the letter of the law of democracy, "Mr. Stickney said in pointing out that some critics of the quota plan often point out that because all farmers, or all wheat growers are not allowed to vote, that the plan is not democratic.

"If a farmer is not affected by quotas there is no reason in the world why he should decide a question for a farmer that will be affected," Mr. Stickey said.

Only wheat farmers that plant more than 15 acres of wheat in 1942, and whose normal production on the planted acreage exceeds 200 bushels are eligible to vote.

"This referendum is very important. Wheat is a crop of which we have sufficient supplies to last us a year if we had a total failure in 1942. In order for farmers to protect the price of wheat it is essential that they vote for the quota and maintain orderly marketing in the price protecting loan program. If marketing quotas are voted down there will be no loan program for wheat," according to Mr. Stickney.

Junior Chamber Group Tells of Salvage Plans

Appointed Flying Cadet

GAY STRONG

Formerly of Thief River Falls and a sergeant in the U. S. Army medical corps, stationed recently at Camp Bowie, Texas, who was recently appointed a flying cadet at Randolph Field, Texas. Mr. Strong, who enlisted in the army March 15, 1941, had previously been employed at Plough's barber shop in this city. Mr. Strong has been visiting his wife and friends here the past several days.—Photo supplied by Park Region Echo, Alexandria.

Harvey Helle, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce salvage committee, today issued the following appeal for cooperation on the part of local citizens.

The past period of casual effort in regard to our war program is over. As a general rule our population has regarded individual effort as of little significance, not realizing that the combined effort of each individual is what it takes to make an all-out offensive against the aggressor who is determined to break down our national security, our individual freedom, our institutions and all that we have.

Everyone is asked to contribute his or her share to lessen the future suffering that this war is heaping upon us. We really should not have to be asked to do these very important good deeds such as parting with unusable or worn out items about the house and farm. There are literally thousands of items that you can part with without any hardship on your part that will add up to make the vital necessities to shorten and win the war. You will not only be aiding in saving lives, you will also clean up the unsightly scraps littered about.

With the cooperation of our 130,000,000 men, women and children in the United States we can gather untold amounts of scrap metals, rags, paper, tinfoil, and other items to help our war effort to help our future security. Begin today and keep on gathering anything and everything about your home and farm and shop that you do not need, pile it up and take it to your nearest scrap dealer from where it will be segregated and sent to the proper industrial plants throughout the country. Within a short while there will be trucks calling at all homes in the city to gather scraps. Information will be published how to prepare some items in readiness for pickup. Do not burn your old rubbers or overshoes this spring, save them for Victory.

The Thief River Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce is cooperating with the county salvage board in scrap salvage work in this community. The junior group has appointed Harvey R. Helle, as chairman; Wallace Carlson, Johnny Johnson, Maynard Tvedt, Don Collins and Norman Johnson to work out details in collecting scraps of all kinds. A later date will be announced as to when the trucks will call at homes in the city. The national salvage council is expecting full cooperation from every man, woman and child. Therefore we can all do our part and make our efforts easier by acting today, tomorrow and every day until we have accomplished our objective, which is to win the war with the least possible loss of life in as short a time as possible. The extent of cooperation from our citizens will largely determine the outcome of this conflict, the number of lives lost and the time required to win victory. We must get out of the attitude at once that "my neighbor can do it instead of me".

BRING IT INTO THE OPEN

Leaders of representative farm organizations in the Northwest have issued a joint statement setting forth their views on the attempt of the Mine Workers Union to organize dairy farmers of the country. The idea of dairymen being organized by Mine Workers is so ridiculous that even to discuss the possibility seems absurd, but in spite of its absurdity it probably is well to bring the movement into the open so that the possibilities can be considered.

We can see only one possible object in this new activity of the CIO organizers and that is political. It is inevitable that the activities of labor organizers will become an important political issue and sooner or later we will take steps to curb the vicious practices of labor racketeers. By extending their influence into the ranks of agriculture, labor leaders of this type will be able to postpone the day of reckoning and prolong their harvest, but the lion and the lamb will not lie down together as permanent bedfellows.

It may be well that this question be made an issue as soon as possible. It isn't a question now of whether or not labor is going to be organized. The question now is, how will it be organized.

And the problem may well be decided by labor itself. There are two forms of labor organization. One is controlled by the organizers. The other is controlled by the members. We have good labor organizations in this country that have made progress over a period of many years. Typical of these are the railroad brotherhoods which are democratic in their principles and in their practices. Their methods are as different, fundamentally, from the labor organizations that have been created in recent years, as the form of government of the United States is different from the government of the dictators.

No government deserves to be called a government that recognizes the right of any individual to do violence to the person or to the property of any other individual. We have established courts of justice before which individuals settle their differences. We must also establish courts of justice before which the problems of groups of individuals may be settled. We cannot consider ourselves self governing as long as we yield to the power of pressure groups when that power is maintained by the threat of violence.

These are questions that should not be laid aside merely because they are difficult. We are not going to return, when this war is over, to any previous condition. We will face an entirely new set of facts, that will call for new solutions. To solve those new problems in the right way will require a lot of straight thinking by our people. The proper solutions will not be presented by the extremists on either side of the question.

Reports from Bataan indicate that the Japs are putting on more pressure and that our men are falling back. It is not to be expected that our positions can be maintained indefinitely without reinforcements. It may even become necessary to surrender the fortified islands that guard the entrance to Manila Bay. We're hoping it won't but we are not going to scold if it does because we think the fellows who have to make those decisions, including a guy they call MacArthur, will figure the thing out about right.

Street officials are asking residents please will they leave their cars off the streets during the next few weeks so that maintenance crews can get gutters cleaned up. Your neighbor will appreciate your cooperation.

Tomorrow is the day the ice is supposed to go out of the river in town, but it won't be tomorrow this year because it already went out a week ago tomorrow. That may be a sign of an early Spring. Then again the Indians might interpret it as an indication we had a mild winter.

Just a reminder, folks—Defense bonds and stamps are still on sale.

Tire-conscious motorists won't object to that forty-mile-an-hour speed limit Governor Stassen will put into effect shortly.

Mail from the soldier boys ought to pick up now that they are to get free postal service.

With the tremendous demand for their product, it looks as tho the sun will shine on local wool growers this year.

Random thought— Wonder if Italy still has a king.

Street-corner inspectors will get a break if Washington goes thru with a rumored plan to ask the ladies to cut a few more inches off the bottom of their skirts.

Speaking of belatedly realistic attitudes, consider this pronouncement from Hjalmar Petersen last week. "We cannot afford to lose this war."

When it comes to candidates for lieutenant governor, we hear that Fisher's Ole Flaat is pretty sharp.

It has properly been suggested that the study of geography be deferred for the duration of the war.

With county farmers straining at the bit, the time for starting work in the fields can't come a bit too soon.

Suggested by a West Coast paper as a motto for American citizens in wartime is this, "So live that you can look MacArthur in the eye".

If we should ever want to study a madhouse at first hand, we'd head for Washington, D. C.

The men folks will have a new alibi when they appear with stubble on their chins, now that they can blame it on to razor blade rationing.

It remains to be seen if Governor Stassen enhanced his availability for higher office by joining the Navy as of April, 1943.

U. S. War Board Will Ration Adult Bicycles

A public stampede to buy bicycles against the day when auto tires wear out prompted the war production board Thursday night to ban the sale, shipment, delivery or transfer of new adult bikes pending the establishment of a rationing system. The "freezing" order was made effective at 11:59 p. m. Eastern Wartime, Thursday, and the rationing system will be designed to put bicycles in the possession of defense workers first of all.

Lincoln Seniors Overcome 4-Point Deficit at End of Fourth Period

The traditional game between the Seniors and the high school faculty, played last Wednesday night, put the night-cap on the basketball season; and the Seniors, after over-coming a 6-point deficit in the fourth period, scored a hard-fought 40 to 37 win. Johnny Campbell's two field goals in the overtime period gave the Seniors the victory. The contests high-point honors went to the Faculty's blond Jimmy Nordine, who marked up 11 field goals and a free throw, for 23 points. Campbell and Lorentson paced the Senior point-getters.

State Beer and Liquor Stamp Sales Increase

Revenue from beer and liquor stamp sales continued in March to show gains over last year, State Treasurer Julius A. Schmahl reported Thursday, but whether this was due to increased consumption or buying to beat expected higher prices he was unable to say. He estimated, on the basis of stamp sales thus far, that the year's total would run to seven or eight million dollars, compared with less than six million in 1941.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

The recreation program is sponsored by the city council in cooperation with the Works Projects Administration.

O. F. 2 Club

The O. F. 2 Club, local recreation club for girls under the direction of Camille Dostal, held a Post-Easter dance in the upstairs of the sports arena last Monday night. Lunch was served at 10:30. Club members include Wanda Reiersgaard, Shirley Simonson, Eileen Froseth, Grace Forsberg, Irene Forsberg, Arlene Eide, Grace Michalsky, Helen Amundson, LaVonne Prugh, Katherine Sagmoen, Carol Southard, Delores Anderson and Joyce From. Guests invited included Lloyd Johnson, Billy Nelson, Bobby Nelson, Walter Kavanaugh, Robert Olson, Edward Hulbert, Stanley Gibson, Sonny Matson, Norman Furuseth, Arthur Storhaug, Manny Forsberg, Ralph Long, Sniffy Olson, Larry Jeffries, Ray Bowers, Clayton Tripp, Herbie Claffy, Sam Plough and Bob Noel.

Puppetry

"Peter Rabbit Changes His Name" will be presented this afternoon in the arena puppet theatre at 4:20. Other shorts will accompany the main attraction. Everyone is welcome to attend. No admission is charged. Camille Dostal, puppetry leader, has started work on children's crafts along with the puppet work. Weaving purses has been started now, with other articles coming later.

Nature Hike

Weather permitting, Camille Dostal will take a group of children on a nature hike at 2:00 o'clock Friday afternoon. All children interested in this hike are asked to report at the arena at that time. Plans are being made to hold at least one nature hike a week during the spring and summer months. On these hikes the children will learn to identify popular trees, leaves and birds. Sample collections will be made and mounted eventually. "Know your natural surroundings" is the slogan of the hikers.

Arena Craft Shop

Many children and some adults are working on bows and arrows. Anyone wanting to make a bow is asked to buy a piece of hickory or purchase a better-grade bow stave at the shop. Arrows and all other equipment can be purchased at the shop also. Archery is going to be a bigger and better activity this year, so why not join the parade and get hold of a bow and arrow? Several participants have been repairing bicycles in the shop. With the ban on the sale of bikes, there will be more and more need for repair. The arena shop provides an excellent place for this work. All are invited to make free use of the tools, paint brushes, etc. The shop is also the place to make your kite. Different models are available as patterns. If you have old furniture that needs repair, bring it down to the shop and do your own work. Many pieces of furniture have been restored in the shop.

Photography

Equipment for developing and finishing photographs has been bought and installed in the arena basement. A dark room has been set up for this work. After a camera club is organized actual developing of pictures will be started. Anyone interested in this activity is asked to get in touch with Andy Gausen at the arena. Mr. Gausen will handle the activity. In the near future miniature pictures made up into a folder will be made available for soldiers in the service. Plans call for a folder to include about twenty pictures. The folder will be about the size of a match cover box, which would easily fit in the watch pocket. This particular activity should be of special interest to persons whose sons, husbands or boy friends are in the service of their country.

Nearly 100 Sportsmen Hear William Munch at April Session Tuesday

Nearly 100 members turned out Tuesday evening for the April meeting of the Pennington County Sportsmen's club in the Civic and Commerce rooms. The speaker of the evening was William Munch of Crookston, veteran game warden and lecturer with the state department of conservation, who discussed various phases of conservation. An appetizing lunch was served at the close of the evening by a committee headed by Julien Prevencher.

BOB HANSON, T. R. F. GETS GABRIELSON POST AT GUSTAVUS

Appointed to Position as Director of Physical Education

In a telegram last week to the athletic board, former Gustavus Adolphus coach B. W. Gabrielson resigned his position at the college after a year's leave of absence to accept his new position as "area supervisor of program for USO in New England States."

A special committee of the Gustavus athletic board met at once and named senior Bob Hanson, of Thief River Falls, to fill the vacancy created by the foreseen induction into the army of Louie Benson, who had assumed Gabrielson's duties for the past year.

Stepping up from a position as physical education assistant, Bob may be truly heralded as one of the Gustie immortals.

As an athlete at Thief River Falls, Bob captained the 1937 Prowlers to their second straight grid title with an unblemished record. Playing the unglorious position of center, Bob garnered three letters. Filling the shoes of a three sport man, he captained the 1937 gym team and earned two letters in that sport. With numerous medals on the cinderpath, Bob competed in the prep league pole vault, half mile, discus, and shot put with two "T's" for his effort. He was named to the National Athletic Honorship Society, merited by athletic and scholastic proficiency.

Earning ten letters in four sports at Gustavus carries with it more of a job than is evident on the surface. Three of these were received on the gridiron with his co-captaincy this last season, and a center position on the sports writers' all state in his junior year. Three more letters came via activity as a G-matman, with the seventh earned at left wing on the Gustie ice sextet.

As a swimmer Bob carved his name deeper in the annals of Gustie greats by setting three state records and being instrumental in the establishment of the fourth. The 220 and 100 yard free styles were his achievements as a sophomore, topping his assistance in setting the 160-yard free style relay as a frosh. When the 440 yard free came into vogue in 1940 Bob clipped off the state mark in that event also. He paced the 1940 Gustie tankers to the conference title in 1940 and captained the '41 team.

During the past season Coach Roming has utilized the cooperative services of Bob in various duties ranging from swimming coach to gym class direction. In each capacity Bob produced efficiently, so it is with his splendid record behind him that he steps into the shoes of resigning Bump Gabrielson and army-bound Lone Benson.

Ice Goes out of River Pool Late Last Week

A week earlier than the average date, the ice started going out of the river pool in the city last Friday, April 3, and by Sunday the channel was virtually clear. Easter Sunday and the first few days of this week were chilly, but the mercury Wednesday afternoon mounted to near the 60 degree mark, giving promise of warmer weather. There was no precipitation of consequence during the past week.

WILD LIFE WEEK TO BE OBSERVED STARTING SUNDAY

C. B. Vogen of Mud Lake Refuge Calls Attention to Observance

America's fish and wildlife resources are perishable and can not be neglected even in war time without sacrificing an important element in the American way of living. So declared Carl B. Vogen, refuge manager, stationed at the Mud Lake national wildlife refuge, in calling attention to the fifth annual National Wildlife Week which begins on April 12.

Sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation, the annual observance of this week was inaugurated by a proclamation of President Roosevelt in 1938.

Vogen pointed out that the fish and wildlife service of the United States department of the Interior, with which he is employed, is participating in the week's observance this year because wildlife is a resource that the nation must take care of at all times— just as individuals have to guard their own resources while doing their utmost to win the war.

Conservation, profitable at all times, is particularly so during war time, the service employee emphasized. Effective use of natural resources is possible today because conservation policies have been pursued in the past.

Among the contributions that the fish and wildlife service is making to the war, Vogen mentioned: Providing for food supplies from the fisheries, protecting livestock, crops, food-stores, and vital stocks of merchandise from predators and rodents; encouraging a good national morale through outdoor recreation; and correcting water pollution.

Our annual harvest of fishery products amounts to about 4½ billion pounds, he said, most of which is being used for Lend-Lease requirements. Through service control campaigns last year, 122,000 predatory animals were taken, resulting in savings of wool and meat supplies.

Fish and Wildlife Service operations have been reduced to a wartime minimum, Vogen said. Employees are entering the services and war agencies. Materials formerly used for refuge development are going now into war construction.

Keeping Score

.... With HUCK OLSON

Soft Money

There will be several clusters of "soft money" ripe for picking at the handicap singles bowling tournament, which gets under way tomorrow night and continues over the week-end. The tourney is sponsored by the city bowling association, and it will be a handicap affair. That should be an invitation for the low-average bowlers to pay their $1.75 entry fee and get "on the board". 190 has been set up as the scratch mark, and the bowlers will be given a two-thirds handicap. That means that a 120-average bowler will carry 46 pins handicap per game, or a total of 186 pins for the four-game series. And a 170-average bowler will drag a 53-pin four game handicap. A handicap tournament is a great equalizer, and perhaps it does shade the odds in favor of the low-average bowlers; but they are the fellows that deserve a "break" or two.

Don't like to put the jinx on anyone, but I have an idea that Bill Thompson, of Peterson-Biddick, whose average is in the low 120's, will be right up in the money when the final scores are marked up Sunday evening.

For the past week Al Weber has been soaking that 246 finger of his in pickle brine, hoping to keep it in condition to knock off some of that "easy" money. I'm afraid that, finger or no finger, Al will be quite a way down on the prize list.

It's a Problem

Coach Harry Newby is in a quandary as to where to place the emphasis on this spring's Prowler athletic program. Comes a mellow and sunshiny day (and they've been few) and Newby decides to concentrate on track; but then we have a heavy fall of snow and near-zero weather, and the Coach veers toward a spring basketball program; and on the days when we have in-between-weather, informal spring football practice appears to be the logical endeavor. And with the results of long-range weather forecasts a military secret, it appears that the Prowler athletic program will have to operate on a day-to-day schedule.

It perhaps would be advantageous to have several weeks of spring basketball practice, to get a slant at the material that will be available for next season's varsity. Johnny Campbell, Lenny Lorentson, Orrin Pederson, Orlin Gjernes, and Bob Paulson, will be the lettermen that will be missing when next season's schedule rolls around. The first four will graduate this spring, they hope, and Bus will be moving out of town. That leaves Jack Melby, Milt Reiertson, Bob Powell, Don Berg, and Homer Matheson, as a nucleus for next year's Prowler basketball team. And that's about the way the rest of the schools in the district will fare, too.

East Grand will lose Bennett Larson, Ray Martin, Lorry Worden and Harold Harney; but they'll have Pete Hunt and Clyde Babcock, regulars, and Laverne Nustad, Al Moen, and Dwayne Raymond, reserves, as hold-overs. Hersh Lyaker at Warren will lose Henry Hanson, Dana Allen, Jack Gilbertson, and Bill Rogers; but he'll have Glen Lindberg, Clyde Culver, John-as Zneraid, Maynard Rahstrom, and Jimmy Nichols, as varsity material. The Pirates lose Bill Ericson, Cal Morken, Glenn Simpson, Bill Reynolds, and Keith Thorson. That will leave Toddie Johnson, Omer Larson, Howie Casmey, Roy Winchester, and Bill Swanson, as the returning squad men.

By the way, I better not omit that St. Hilaire club. They only lost Enos Nohre and Grover Stevens from their first five, and that means that such hot-shots as Harlan Olson, Bob Janda, Earl Bothman, and Roy Kratz, will be available. Next year may be the year when one of the district's smaller schools will take over the championship.

Spring, Officially

It's a surer sign of spring than the date on the calendar when Land O'Lakes Walt Larson and Klewel's Ole Helmer Ness begin signing up diamondball players. And that's what happened this week. Of course, Walt claims that he won't be connected with the game this year, but such talk is only camouflage to befuddle the other team managers.

Prospects for diamondball are only fair, and it's going to be a problem to secure high grade pitching. Ham Myhrer, of the Land O'Lakes, Gordy and Eli Kaushagen, of the Klewels, are in the army; and the Hartz' Al Ness is attending school in Chicago. They were the league's top-flight hurlers last season. Ole claims to have signed a fire-ball pitcher for his team; and he says that he has signed this hurler to an iron-clad contract, so Walt needn't look for a contract loop-hole so that he can get the thrower into a green shirt.

Good Luck, Pal

Jess DuChamp, my duck hunting pal, joined the army yesterday. He and Shorty Tripp went to Bemidji and there enlisted in the Coast Artillery. Jess is the fellow who, when we went out hunting last fall and picked up a couple of ducks, always gave me credit for shooting at least half of our bag. Whenever I missed a shot at a duck on the sit, and I missed plenty, Jess would make me feel good by telling me how hard those "sit" shots are. You don't find many fellows like that, and I hope when the boys get world's "mess" straightened out, and they will, that Jess and I will be able to have some duck dinners, with Jess bringing the ducks.

GOV. STASSEN STARTS NAVAL TRAINING COURSE

TRF Bowling Association Plans Handicap Singles Tourney Friday-Sunday

Harry Wisdom, secretary of the City Bowling Association, announced today that the association will sponsor a handicap singles bowling tournament on the Mint alleys Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The tournament, which is open to all the members of the Association, will have a 190-pin scratch, and with the bowlers receiving a hadicap of two-thirds of the actual pins difference between their league average and the 190-pin scratch. Entry fee is set at $1.75, and that includes the four games of bowling. The prize list is dependent upon the number of entries, but it is expected that bowlers finishing in the first twenty-five will be in the money.

Tractor & Farm Machinery Training School For Girls and Women

The first meeting will be Wednesday evening, April 15th, starting at 8 P. M. At this first meeting we shall be glad to make arrangements as to hour and days of meeting which will be most convenient to those attending.

The course will include eight meetings and it is our present plan to hold two or three meetings each week.

The course can also be extended to sixteen meetings which will include instructions for handling, adjusting and operating other farm machinery such as setting of plows, binders, etc.

The course is primarily intended for girls and women on farms but we shall gladly include girls and women from town who are conscientiously interested in preparing themselves to know how to operate farm tractors and other farm machinery.

If sufficient interest is shown and our enrollment gets too large we shall conduct a second course.

We do want everyone interested in taking the course to register in advance of the first meeting April 15th.

The meetings will be conducted at our place of business and later actual field demonstrations and training will be included.

SENATE DECIDES TO ALLOW LANGER TO RETAIN SEAT

Lengthy Controversy Decided by Upper House Last Friday

Senator William Langer of North Dakota held a clear title Mar. 27 to his seat in the U. S. senate serving 15 months under the cloud of an investigation, but his case brought demands for a fixed procedure in any such future disputes.

The senate, after more than two weeks of debate, decided that the moral turpitude charges against Langer had not been sustained and voted 52-30 that the former North Dakota governor was entitled to his seat.

Several senators, however, served notice almost at once that they intended to move against procedure which permitted a questioned senator to "rub shoulders" with them while he was "on trial".

Before the final ballot, the senate decided in a preliminary vote that Langer, who was seated "without prejudice" Jan. 3, 1941, could be removed only by a two-thirds vote although the senate elections committee had recommended his exclusion by a simple majority vote. The vote on that question was 45 at 37.

The committee by a 13 to 3 vote had declared he was guilty of misconduct during a long career as a public official prior to his election.

WHAT NOT TO GARGLE WITH

Two Harbors—Thomas Crotty of Biwabik is finding the cure worse than the ailment. To remedy a sore throat he gargled with kerosene with no intention of swallowing the stuff but nevertheless some of it found its way down with the result that he was a pretty sick man and is spending some days in the hospital.

TO BED ON TOP; AWAKEN BELOW

Tracy— The Martin Forsman family tucked themselves into bed one night recently as usual with their home atop of the ground. At 3:30 in the morning they awoke in a pile in their brand new basement. The Forsmans had been remodeling their home and just completed excavating the basement. Rain softened the ground and the temporary supports holding the house gave away allowing one end to drop completely to the bottom. The partitions were smashed and the house badly twisted. Much of the furnishings were damaged and practically all of the dishes broken.

State Traffic Deaths Show First Decline in March Since War Began

March was a red letter month on Minnesota's traffic safety calendar! For the first time since America entered the war—and the President and the governor appealed for fewer accidents to save lives and manpower vital to the Nation's defense—Minnesota showed a reduction in its traffic death toll as compared to the corresponding month of the previous year.

Twenty-eight persons were killed on Minnesota streets and highways during the March just past, as compared to 38 in March of 1941, according to an unofficial report today by the state highway department. The margin of reduction was still slender, however, as several other March traffic victims lay in hospitals, as the month closed, fighting for life.

Last month's reported fatalities included 24 motorists and 4 pedestrian victims. The 24 motorists were killed in 21 accidents. Eleven died in 8 motor vehicle—motor vehicle collisions, and 12 were killed in as many non-collision accidents such as running off the road or into fixed objects. As an indication of what caused their deaths, the highway department cited the following factors:

Excessive speed was involved in 9 fatal accidents. Drinking drivers were involved in 6 of them. In 7 death crashes, one or both drivers were on the wrong side of the road or over the center line. Three drivers fell asleep at the wheel.

There's a great lesson in the fact that fabled gold and silver take a back seat to lowly iron and copper in the priorities scale for production equipment.

Conference on the Conduct of the War

This photograph was transmitted by radio from Melbourne to London, and from there via radio to New York.

MANY TRUCK TIRES ARE OVERLOADED, SURVEY INDICATES

More Than Half of Units Have Loads Exceeding Rated Tire Capacity

A large percentage of the trucks on Minnesota highways are carrying loads greatly exceeding the rated capacity of their tires, according to figures released today by the highway planning survey, joint project of the department of highways and the federal public roads administration.

While new tires will carry heavier loads than their rated capacity, over-loading greatly shortens their life and overloading old tires creates a serious blowout hazard, both pertinent factors in view of wartime restrictions and universal need for tire economy.

Pit-scale stations were operated by the planning survey over a 12-months period and 11,541 loaded trucks and truck-trailer outfits were weighed and tire sizes and other data noted. More than one-third, or 4,016 units, used 32x6 high pressure tires with a rated capacity of 2,200 pounds. Of these 904 had loads on one or more axles averaging from 2,500 to 3,000 pounds per tire, 1,131 had loads from 3,000 to 4,000 pounds, 43 had loads from 4,000 to 5,000 pounds and one had an axle load exceeding 6,000 pounds per tire. In other words, more than half the units using the 32x6 tires had loads from 15 to 130 per cent greater than the rated capacity of the tires.

Second most common size was the 8.25-20 balloon tire with a rated capacity of 2,650 pounds. Out of 2,1?? trucks and truck-trailer outfits using that size, 982 had one or more axles with loads averaging 3,000 to 4,000 pounds per tire, 323 had loads of 4,000 to 5,000 pounds, 13 had loads of 5,000 to 6,000 pounds and one had a load exceeding 6,000 pounds per tire. Nearly two-thirds of the units using that size tire had loads exceeding the rated tire capacity from 13 to 125 per cent. Similar evidences of overloading were found with nearly all other tire sizes.

Overloading tires may result from too large loads or from poor distribution. That poor load distribution is common was indicated by the fact that 55 per cent of the two-axle trucks had from 72 to 88 per cent of the total weight on one axel.

According to data compiled by tire manufacturers, 50 per cent overloading will reduce tire mileage by 60 per cent. This means that tires which would travel 30,000 miles with normal loading would go only 12,000 miles if the gross weights carried were one and one-half times the rated tire capacity.

State to Surface T. H. 11 in Kittson County

Bids are to be opened on April 17 for protective surfacing of approximately 75 miles of Minnesota's trunk highways, according to M. J. Hoffmann, commissioner of highways. Mr. Hoffmann stated that the surfacing of these roads is in keeping with the policies of the highway department to protect the state's investment in roads that were constructed during the past year. No vital war material will be used for these operations. Eight counties are included in this surfacing work which is to include 25 miles of bituminous surface treatment, 8.6 miles of bituminous wearing surface, 8.2 miles of gravel base and bituminous surface treatment, 6.2 miles of stabilized gravel base and bituminous surface treatment and 27 miles of stabilized gravel wearing course at an estimated cost of $291,009. The projects include Kittson county: T. H. 11, Bituminous wearing surface for 6.6 miles between nine miles east of Donaldson and Karlstad, comprising 256,900 gallons of bituminous material and 9,265 tons of mineral aggregate.

High School Students Aided in Getting Jobs by Employment Service

Expansion of plants to assist Minnesota high school students in finding their first jobs, was announced in St. Paul this week by Leonard B. Ryan, director of the United States Employment Service in Minnesota.

A constantly increasing number of the state's 661 high schools is co-operating in the co-ordinated school program, now available to all. The procedure, originally planned for students of graduating classes, has also been extended to under-graduates.

Mr. Ryan explained that the co-ordinated school registration was developed as a means to tap the current supply of young workers for agriculture and industry during the war emergency.

The director said the 87 local offices of the United States employment service in Minnesota are ready to co-operate with any school desiring to take advantage of this registration program. He emphasized that, with the increased production demands of the national war economy, all available manpower should be fully and efficiently utilized.

"High production goals challenge best efforts of the Nation's farmers," says a Washington news dispatch. Watch Minnesota rise to the challenge!

WET SNOW CAUSES FALSE ALARM

Granite Falls.—Following the heavy wet snow recently the fire siren started its shrill crescendo. Up and down the scale it wailed as half the people asked the other half where the fire was. The telephone office was swamped with calls as to the location but no one seemed to have any information at all. Then the siren reached its past peak tone and the noise diminished as the lower notes of the scale were reached to finally die out entirely. Not until then did folks realize wet snow falling on the wires to the temporarily exposed siren had caused the machine to short and this had set off the alarm.

Beware of War-Time Rackets for Fleecing Public, Says Bulletin

When the peddler at the door wants to sell you a supply of air-raid sand, specially tested for its effectiveness in extinguishing incendiary bombs—or an impressive stranger offers to let you invest in a new scheme for solving the rubber shortage—get fishy-eyed and skeptical, because the crop of wartime rackets is just beginning to flower. Many brand new schemes, and a lot of old ones dressed up in war clothes, are out to take your money away from sounder and more necessary uses, warns a report by Northwestern National Life Insurance company.

Among the major schemes now swinging into activity are phony war charities and refugee benefits, which solicit funds, or sell tickets and advertising space, on a basis which yields from zero to 10 per cent of the proceeds to actual charity and delivers the remainder to the promoters.

Bootleggers offer retreaded tires which may be old, defective, and absolutely worthless. Fakers "inspect" and refill fire extinguishers with colored water for a modest fee; others sell worthless seeds and bulbs, on the raise-food-for-defense appeal.

JURY DISMISSES CHARGES AGAINST STRUNK'S DIVISION

Grand Jury in Ramsey County Finds Accusations are Unfounded

Induced to undertake an investigation of policies of the state conservation department, the Ramsey County grand jury this past week reported to the district court that charges made against the department were unfounded.

"This jury was unable to find that the charges made in the public press against the conservation department and the individuals in it were founded on fact," the report concluded, "and we feel that a real effort to accomplish conservation is being made within the state of Minnesota."

It is the opinion of the jury, said the report, that the 16-point conservation plan promulgated and already partly put into effect by Commissioner of Conservation W. L. Strunk, if given a fair trial, probably will "effect the purposes sought by critics of the department" and "insofar as it is possible by any method satisfy the greater majority of the sportsmen's groups throughout the state as well as individuals interested in conservation."

The grand jury reported that it had heard all witnesses that could be suggested and came up with this pearl of wisdom, long recognized at the capitol: "It appears to this jury that the question of conservation and particularly insofar as it relates to game and fish is a matter upon which the people of this state do not agree." Even the sportsmen's organizations, which exceed 300 in number, are in many cases "diametrically opposed to each other," the report said.

Commissioner of Conservation Strunk and six division heads under him all appear, said the report, to be sincere and "very capable men, well suited to handle the tasks assigned them."

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

VERY OFTEN these days, I get to thinking about the soldier boys at camp. And the sailors, too.

What worries me is . . . what happens when they get a day off after working their heads off all week? They go to town . . . and what then?

What happens? The answer is . . . mostly nothing! Because most towns near army camps just don't have nearly enough entertainment facilities to take care of the soldiers on leave. So the boys just stand around, leaning against lampposts or sitting on doorsteps. And sometimes, the local townsfolk find themselves wondering what's changed the town . . . instead of pitching in to help the boys have a good time in decent surroundings.

In many towns, however, the situation is better. Many towns have nice, community places where a soldier can go sit down and "chew the fat" and enjoy some cake and milk, or maybe a good glass of beer. The boys like that. And they're not likely to get in trouble . . . because common sense tells you nothing can be wrong about a couple of glasses of beer.

There's another reason, too. The beer industry is cooperating with the army and with the law-enforcement officers to help keep the places where beer is sold, clean and decent. The brewers don't want their beer sold to soldiers in places where bad conditions exist . . . and they're right.

Seems to me that we Americans ought to get together and do everything we can to make things pleasant for the boys who are in training. They're doing their duty . . . maybe we have some duties, too, in this direction.

There are lots of ways of helping. We ought to support them all. All of us have our part to play in winning this war . . . and making life a little easier for the boys in camp is something we all can do something about.

Joe Marsh

THRIFT POLICIES REAFFIRMED ON FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF DEPARTMENT STORE CHAIN

J. C. Penney Company, in Nation-Wide Celebration, Points Out Country's Need for Universal Economy.

The Company has travelled a long road since Mr. Penney's first little store in Kemmerer, Wyo., (Right). Now it includes such stores as the Company's largest, in Seattle (Above), which, in many a single day, does several times the business which the Mother store did in its first year of operation.

Mr. Penney behind the counter during the closing days of the Company's fortieth year, a place he still loves to occupy after 40 years of storekeeping.

In a celebration featuring the historical background of the business, the J. C. Penney Company marks its fortieth milestone. 1609 stores all over the country are taking part in the celebration, which extends through the month of April. The keynote of the event was set by the founder of the Company, Mr. J. C. Penney:

"We have chosen Thrift as the theme of our fortieth anniversary," said Mr. Penney, "because it seems to us particularly timely to stress the need for our return to pioneer simplicity. "Today America is at war. Now, in wartime, because of the tremendous job ahead of us, we must learn again to work hard and to live simply—to put into the preserving of America what we once put into the building of it—to return to the old ways of thrift and savings that were the general rule at the beginning of this century.

"We feel that the Penney Company is well equipped to make a substantial contribution toward the Thrift and Savings of the nation — because the Penney Company knows from long experience what Thrift is all about. Thrift is nothing new to the Penney Company—it is our stock in trade. When the Penney business was founded, in 1902, hard work and spartan living were the general rule. Our first little store in Kemmerer, Wyoming was dedicated to Thrift, and all through the years, as our business has grown, Thrift has continued to be our guiding principle." This thrift theme appears in advertising and window displays in Penney stores all over the country, together with messages reminiscent of his early store days by Mr. Penney.

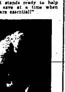
Back in 1902, when Mr. Penney founded his first store, he found that many people who could ill afford it made a practice of buying everything on credit, and "paying up on pay day." He came to the conclusion that he could serve people more economically by selling only for cash, thus eliminating credit costs.

Mr. Penney found, too, that haggling over prices was a general practice, and making a purchase or a sale became a battle of wits between customer and storekeeper. It was this that decided Mr. Penney to maintain a fixed price, and as soon as his customers found that that fixed price was the lowest price, they expressed their appreciation in an impressive loyalty to that first small store, and, through the years, to all other Penney stores as well.

Mr. Penney tells of his many planned economies in the conduct of his business—economies, many of them small, which added up to a successful and profitable business. One such economy was Mr. Penney's decision to offer no delivery service to his customers. In this connection he remarked, "My customers carried their packages from Penney's Golden Rule Store; and they did it gladly because they knew that my No-Deliveries policy helped them to buy for less.

"I resolved that nothing should ever be wasted in my store. Time and energy, string and paper, all were carefully conserved to avoid any expense that might boost prices."

The management of the Penney Company, which in forty years has grown from one store to 1609, still adheres to the policies laid down by Mr. Penney at the very outset. Quoting Mr. Earl Corder Sams, president of the Company, and lifelong associate of Mr. Penney: "The Penney Company still believes in, and practices, the thrifty methods of 1902. It stands ready to help America save at a time when savings are essential!"



Earl C. Sams, President of the Company, has been Associated with Mr. Penney since his early days.

STATION MAN PUZZLED AT CURIO SHIPMENT

New Richland—A most unusual looking shipment reached the railroad station a few days ago and Station Agent S. E. Saffell was put to some bother in trying to recall where he had ever seen or heard of buggy whips. At last he recalled some twenty odd years ago a similar shipment had come to town. Must be the horse is coming back into his own and with him the goad, an instrument of torture, as John Reineke has put in a stock of buggy whips.

FORTY MILE SPEED LIMIT WILL TAKE EFFECT SHORTLY

Governor Stassen to Order Compliance with President's Request

Maximum automobile speed limits in Minnesota will be fixed at 40 miles an hour, to become effective probably May 1, Governor Harold E. Stassen announced last Thursday.

Gov. Stassen said an executive order now is being drafted setting the maximum speed limits in accordance with President Roosevelt's request to all governors. The order is being drafted to conserve rubber and to prevent accidents causing loss of life and injury from high speed.

Decision to curtail speed limits came after a conference between Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffman, Superintendent Elden Rowe of the state highway patrol and George Sjoselius, assistant attorney general representing Attorney General J. A. Burnquist, with the governor.

The proposed executive order will emphasize the danger of speed, Governor Stassen said. He indicated the highway department will be given supervision of the traffic problems. Governor Stassen indicated the effective date probably will be May 1.

Traffic on Minnesota Trunk Routes Reveals Decline in February

Traffic on Minnesota trunk highways, as indicated by totals at 23 automatic recorder stations, was 6.5 per cent less in February than in the same month last year and 0.3 per cent less than in February, 1940, according to figures released today by the Highway Planning Survey, joint project of the department of highways and the federal Public Roads Administration. Traffic in February, 1941, was 6.6 per cent greater than in February, 1940, not counting traffic on the extra leap year day in 1940. Nineteen stations showed a decrease from 1942 and only four an increase. Highway and weather conditions, industrial activity and special events contribute to local decreases and increases, but the average for the 23 stations is considered a good index to the total travel in the state. Since road and weather conditions in February this year were fully as good as in the two preceding years, the drop is considered an indication of the effects of tire rationing and the tendency to curtail pleasure travel.

4-H Mobilization Week to Stress Garden Drive During Week of Apr. 5-11

National 4-H Mobilization Week scheduled for the week of April 5 to 11 will find Minnesota's 60,000 4-H boys and girls already well on their way in keying their individual and club projects to war-time needs, according to A. J. Kittleson, state 4-H club leader at University Farm. At the same time Kittleson announced that, due to the war, the National 4-H Club Camp, held each year in Washington, D. C. for the past 16 years, has been cancelled.

While enrollments in the livestock and homemaking projects have been completed in Minnesota 4-H clubs there is still time for farm boys and girls to enroll in the farm family garden project, Kittleson says. One of the state-wide 4-H goals for 1942 is a vegetable garden to meet family food and nutrition needs and to encourage every club member to produce something for family living.

The mobilization drive will be conducted in this state by the Minnesota Agricultural Extension Service through county Extension agents and local club leaders. During mobilization week the 1,500,000 farm boys and girls in 4-H clubs throughout the United States, 150,000 farm boys and girls in 4-H clubs throughout the United States, 110,000 voluntary local club leaders, and as many new members as possible will be asked to pledge themselves for all-out effort in a seven point 4-H Victory Program, Kittleson explained.

FARMER ON SMALL ACREAGE WILL GET FSA ASSISTANCE

Farm Security Supervisor Says Small Tracts Can Aid War Effort

Even the smallest agricultural producers in the rural area of Pennington and Marshall counties, regardless of the size of their acreages or whether they farm on a full or part time basis, can make a valuable contribution to America's total war effort by increasing their production of food and feed for home use and for the market.

This statement was made by H. W. Thelander, county supervisor of the Farm Security Administration, in calling attention to the fact that in addition to its lending program for family size farm operators, Farm Security is now authorized to make special "Food for Freedom" loans to rural families on acreages which are smaller than regular farm units, to enable them to take part in the increased production campaign.

The Special "Food for Freedom" loans can be made in amounts up to $500, at 5 per cent interest, Mr. Thelander said. They are repayable in one year when used to buy feed, seed, fertilizer, tools, and equipment for conserving food stuffs and to rent equipment, work stock or power. A borrower may have up to five years to repay a loan for the purchase of machinery, work stock, cows, heifers, calves, pigs, chickens, materials for fencing and building shelter for livestock and food, supplies for operating and repairing farm equipment, and materials and equipment for construction of food storage.

As is the case with all FSA loans, they are available only to families unable to obtain credit from any other source. Persons interested in these loans can contact the FSA supervisor at his office, 116 North LaBree Avenue, in Thief River Falls.

Highway Department to Seed Roadside Hay Crop

One of Minnesota's largest forage crop farmers—the state highway department—is getting ready for spring seeding. Although the seeding of roadsides, shoulder slopes, and back slopes where recent construction and maintenance betterment operations have left the soil without cover is a comparably minor operation in a normal year's trunk highway improvement program, the highway department this spring expects to seed 4,889 acres of right of way. Practically all of this acreage will be seeded to grass and a very small amount to nurse crop. Although the real objective of the highway department's seeding operations is to prevent washing and erosion, a good crop of hay and grass is provided which farmers on adjoining lands are encouraged to cut and harvest if they desire to do so.

Luther League Play

The Luther League of the Norwegian Lutheran church presented their play entitled "For He Had Great Possessions" on Tuesday evening in the high school gym, under the direction of Mr. Manville Gunderson.

The play was written by Dorothy Clarke Wilson, writer of religious drama. It's title is taken from the biblical account of the rich young man who found himself unwilling to meet Christ's Challenge to "go, sell all that you have, and come follow me," and who went away, greatly saddened "for he had great possessions." The plot unraveled to show this same young man faced with the loss of his only child. With sent Him seeking the Christ in the hope that he might restore that life. He returned in despair, having witnessed the crucifixion and burial of Christ. The play ended with the climatic proclamation, which changed despair into faith and hope, that "Christ is Risen".

Members of the cast included: Misses Gale Haugland, Wanda Jacobson, Mae Lundberg, Irene Volden and Arlene Gunderson and Messrs. Robert Janda, William Holmes, Harold Kolstad, Manville Gunderson and Rev. Alvin O. Skibsrud.

Musical selections were given between scenes of the play. Lunch was served.

$450,000 Damage to Telephone Lines by Snow and Sleet Storms

Snow and sleet storms from March 16 to 28 caused more than $450,000 damage to telephone property of this Company and its associated companies, the Northwestern Bell and Dakota Central telephone companies in Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota.

The storms caused

52,000 breaks in telephone lines.
Over 5,600 poles were broken or out of place.
Nearly 10,000 telephones were out of service.
More than 400 cities and towns were cut off from telephone communication with the outside world.

About 700 telephone men worked to get the lines in service as early as possible, often in deep snow, under blizzard conditions, and almost impassable roads. Except for some badly damaged rural lines, service is now restored.

In the last five years, damage to the property of these companies from storms has amounted to about two million dollars.

We regret any inconvenience which may have been caused as a result of these storms and greatly appreciate the fine spirit with which our customers accepted the unavoidable interruptions of long distance and, in many instances, local service.

Three Women Die in Train-Car Crash in City

COUNCIL ACTS ON VARIETY OF CITY BUSINESS

Takes Steps to Give Formal Status to Recreation Board Tuesday

MRS. PRICHARD NAMED ON LIBRARY BOARD

Two-Hour Parking Zone on East Third st. Extended to Atlantic av.

At the request of the WPA, which is providing leadership for recreation activities in this city, Supt. Morris Bye proposed to the city council at its April session Tuesday evening the enactment of an ordinance giving official status to the city recreation board which has been functioning here the past several years.

The ordinance, which was given its first reading Tuesday, provides for the appointment to the board of one representative each from the school board, park board and city council, together with four other citizens to be appointed by the mayor.

The council confirmed the appointment by Mayor H. W. Kinghorn of Mrs. W. W. Prichard to the library board, succeeding the late Mrs. J. O. Yotter.

A number of applications for moving permits and minor building repairs and remodeling were read, action being deferred on several of them pending further investigation by City Engineer J. E. Quist and a council committee.

A request from the municipal band and an appropriation of $150 from the band fund was approved, as was an appropriation of $200 to the fire department to cover expenses of members in attending district and state fireman's meetings.

The council voted to accept the low bid of Montgomery Ward & company in the amount of $189, covering the installation of inlaid battleship linoleum in the city clerk's office. It was also voted to advertise for bids on installation of three-quarter inch tile on the floor of the power plant building.

On motion of Alderman A. R. Hulbert, the council authorized the drawing up of resolutions of condolence to the family of John Baker, third ward alderman, who passed away Sunday.

Acting favorably on the suggestion of Police Chief L. W. Knadle, the council voted to extend the two-hour parking zone east on Third st. between Horace and Atlantic avs.

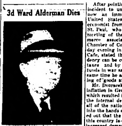
C. and C. Speaker Tells of Inflation's Perils

3d Ward Alderman Dies



JOHN BAKER
Pioneer local citizen and alderman from the third ward for three terms, who succumbed at a local hospital Sunday morning at the age of 61.

After pointing out the dangers incident to uncontrolled inflation, now an imminent threat in the United States, D. C. Dvoracek, economist from University Farm, St. Paul, who addressed a joint meeting of the Civic and Commerce association and Junior Chamber of Commerce last Thursday evening in the Palm Garden Cafe, stated that the present tendency can be controlled by heavier taxes and by investing surplus funds in war savings bonds. At the same time he advocated the rationing of goods at controlled prices.

Mr. Dvoracek cited the runaway inflation in Germany in 1923-24, which resulted in the wiping out of the internal debt, with practically all of the nation's property falling into the hands of a few. He pointed out that the present inflation in this country is due primarily to an increased demand for goods in the face of a smaller supply.

In closing, the speaker expressed the opinion that most farmers would not object to pride ceilings on agricultural products if prices on other commodities as well as wages, were similarly controlled.

Seventy-five persons attended the dinner, with Roy J. Oen, president of the Civic and Commerce association, in charge of the program. An enjoyable feature of the evening's program was the excellent rendition of three selections by the recently organized Junior Chamber chorus, directed by Truman Rivers and accompanied by Mrs. Walter Larson.

EDUCATION BOARD SELECTS JUDGES FOR '42 ELECTION

All Teachers in Elementary Schools Sign Contracts for Next Year

In preparation for the annual School District 18 election scheduled for the evening of May 19, the local board of education at its April session Monday evening selected three persons to serve as judges of election and three as alternates.

Appointed judges were Mrs. Ray Kiland, Mrs. A. C. Matheson and E. R. Bakke. Alternates will be Mrs. W. O. Carlson, Mrs. T. J. Rowan and Kenneth Lindbergh.

The board adopted a resolution authorizing deductions from salaries of school district employes other than teachers who wish to come under the terms of the pension plan of the Public Employes Retirement association.

Approved was a request for a leave of absence for the duration of the war presented by James A. Nordine, who left from Halloch Monday for Fort Snelling, where he was to be inducted into the army. The board also accepted the resignation of Miss Mamie Wise, commercial teacher in Lincoln high school, effective September 1. She has been a member of the local faculty since 1930.

Supt. Morris Bye informed the board that all teachers in the elementary schools had signed contracts to continue at their present posts during the coming school year, and that a large majority of the junior-senior high school teachers had also signed up.

The board voted to advertise for bids on next winter's coal supply, the bids to be opened June 8. It was also voted to continue the custom of past years of supplying each member of the graduating class with a dozen commencement invitations without charge.

The board approved a request from the school board in District 60, Mayfield township, to transport pupils from that district to the Thief River Falls schools, it being planned to close the school in District 60.

Changes in tax laws made by the last session of the state legislature, the most important of which is that transferring livestock from class 3 and an assessment based on 33⅓ percent of the total valuation to class 3D and an assessment based on 20 percent of the true valuation, were cited to the assessors by Mr. Sperry.

He also stressed the changes in legislation affecting the assessment of grains, both sealed and unsealed, and those which change the classification of certain types of farm machinery.

The manuals which Mr. Sperry issued to the assessors are a new booklet, issued by the state department of taxation, and are to be kept for future reference, while previous manuals are to be destroyed to avoid confusion, Mr. Sperry pointed out.

Accident Occurs on Fourth st. Crossing Monday at 6:15 P. M.

DRIVER MAY HAVE BEEN BLINDED BY THE SUN

Two Die Almost Instantly; Mrs. Hovland Passes at 10 P. M.

In the most tragic accident in the history of this community, three elderly women residents of Thief River Falls lost their lives when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a southbound Great Northern train Monday evening shortly after 6 o'clock at the Fourth st. crossing in the west section of the city.

Dead are Mrs. A. Hovland, 64, driver of the car; Mrs. George M. Wilson, 62, wife of the former secretary of the Pennington county fair board; and Mrs. Lena Umland, 72, widow of the late B. F. Umland, former Pennington county highway engineer.

Mrs. Umland and Mrs. Wilson passed away before reaching the hospital, while Mrs. Hovland died shortly before 10 o'clock Monday evening from the effects of a crushed skull. Members of the train crew removed Mrs. Umland and Mrs. Wilson from the car after an ambulance had been summoned, while Mrs. Hovland was thrown into a pool of water at the side of the right-of-way, only her head showing when rescuers reached her.

Charles Smith of Crookston, engineer on the train, which is operated under gas-electric power, stated in his report that the train was moving at a rate of not to exceed thirty miles an hour when the collision occurred.

He said he saw the car approaching from the east when it was about fifty feet distance from the crossing, following which he said he applied the brakes, but the front of the engine caught the right rear wheel of the automobile, spinning it around and throwing the driver clear of the vehicle. In 44 years of railroading, this was the first fatal accident in which Mr. Smith had been involved.

It was speculated that Mrs. Hovland, driving west, may have had her vision partially blinded by the rays of the sun, which at that hour was in the western sky. Dr. C. M. Adkins, county coroner who was summoned to the scene, stated no inquest would be conducted.

Funeral rites for Mrs. Wilson were conducted Wednesday afternoon from the Community church, Rev. S. S. Olafsson officiating, while services for Mrs. Hovland will be held from Trinity Lutheran church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Rev. G. S. Thompson in charge. Detailed obituaries are published elsewhere in this issue.

Final rites will be conducted for Mrs. Umland Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Erickson & Lund Funeral Home, Rev. S. S. Olafsson officiating. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery. She is survived by a son, Bert W. of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and by a daughter, Mrs. C. Iles of Houston, Texas. A more detailed obituary will be published in the next issue of the Times.

Many Parlor Games Will be Out for the Duration

War is bound to bring out a sour note now and then.

The War Production Board, in a general invasion of America's playtime activities, ordered a stop to production of playing cards, poker chips, dice, Mahjong and even Ouija board after June 30.

The order has many other effects, including scores of children's games, dolls, toys, juvenile science sets, tricks, puzzles, Christmas decorations and electric lights, sleds, model building sets, home playground and gymnasium equipment and numerous other items.

Most of them require one critical material or another—steel, chemicals, coloring materials, silk, plastics, copper and tin—all of which are on the government's critical list for war products.

Growing With Your Child

Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

What, New Tricks?

"My husband is a changed man since I was in the hospital for six weeks last spring. In twenty years of married life, I don't believe he ever picked up or put away any of his clothes. But when I was seriously ill, he evidently had time to think about how he could help to prevent my getting into that condition again, and he has been so thoughtful ever since. It's really funny. I don't think it was possible for a person to change a habit so completely."

Mrs. Brown was one of a group of women who were discussing how to get children to pick up their clothes, and keep their rooms neat.

"Apparently if you have a strong enough reason for changing, you can learn new habits," remarked another woman. "I know I felt discouraged about my daughter. Although I had given her the best training I know how, she was as careless about her room and her clothes when she was married as when she was ten. I wondered what her in-laws would think of her, for I couldn't imagine her taking an interest in housework. She always had so many outside things to do, I simply could not tie her down to the domestic things that every girl should get some practise in.

"But I would have done better not to worry. Once she had a home of her own she was a different girl. Of course she didn't learn all at once. But she was so interested in making it an attractive place for her husband, she began to notice all kinds of things she never gave any heed to at home. You couldn't ask for a nicer housekeeper. And as for her care of her own clothes! I doubt if she would believe me if I were to remind her of the untidy heaps that she left on the floor at home when she undressed. Everything is spick and span in her closets and bureau drawers now."

"Do you mean to imply", cried a younger woman, "that we should not even attempt to encourage habits of neatness and orderliness and thoughtfulness when children are young? That all our efforts at good training are wasted?"

"Not in the least," returned Mrs. Brown. "Unless by 'good habit training' you mean the fussing, nagging insistance that some women carry on under that name. But I do think that somehow or other we often fail to furnish the right kind of incentive. People learn faster what seems important to them, or what they see the use of. All these years my husband has simply tolerated my grumbling about his untidiness. Now he sees a reason for sparing me any extra work. Find a real incentive and you can teach even an old dog new tricks."

Housecleaning Time Is Counted on to Furnish Salvage for War Effort

There may be no more gold in them thar mountains, but thar's tanks, ships, guns and planes in them attics and basements.

And spring house-cleaning in the millions of homes of America this year is being counted on by the government to produce vast amounts of metal sorely needed for production of war goods. Mrs. America is being urged to go through the attic and basement while her husband takes care of the garage to uncover stored and forgotten pieces of metal, steel, iron, aluminum, copper, brass and only the householder knows what else.

The Bureau of Industrial Conservation said today that old brass or iron beds, hardware, lamps, ornaments, broken down radios, toys and hundreds of other items forgotten in America's attics or basements can become many essential war items. Rags will be made into wiping rags for use in war plants; wastepaper will become cartons; and old rubber will have many uses in the war plants of the nation.

The bureau urges every housewife to check over the items and get rid of what she knows is no longer of any use, either by selling to a junk man or giving it to her favorite charity. Those items may be the determining factor in winning the war.

GROCERIES: Quality is something that is often difficult to describe or explain, and this is especially true in the food line. We know there is a great difference in the quality of fruits and cereals when they are brought to market by the growers. We know that premium prices are paid for the raw materials that measure up to the highest standard, but when these raw materials have been put into packages as prepared foods, the quality of the products cannot be determined by the pictures on the packages. Housewives who use Hartz DeLuxe Quality foods have the assurance that they are buying the best quality available. Take any of these products at random and compare. For instance DeLuxe Quality Peanut Butter or DeLuxe Quality Prepared Mustard. There is a reason for their growing popularity. Try them.

LOCAL JOB OFFICE PLACES 34 PERSONS IN PAST MONTH

Placements More than Double Total for Same Month in 1941

Riding the crest of a wave of job opportunities which made last month the best March in the history of public employment offices in the state, the Thief River Falls office of the United States Employment Service had a place on the honor roll of the service in Minnesota for the second consecutive month, it was announced this week.

Leonard B. Ryan, director of the United States Employment Service in Minnesota, said the Thief River Falls office achieved a 127 per cent increase in job placements in March of this year, compared to March, 1941. C. J. Sjolander is manager of the Thief River Falls office.

The office reported 34 placements, compared to 15 a year ago and 20 in February of this year. It was one of 13 offices in the state where the increase in placements more than doubled the state average of 40 per cent. This, Mr. Ryan said, indicates an outstanding acceptance by employers and workers of the free facilities offered by the service.

In the entire state of Minnesota, the United States Employment Service assisted 6,113 persons to find jobs last month, compared to 4,257 in March, 1941 and 4,793 in February, 1942. The northwestern Minnesota area, of which Thief River Falls is a part, enjoyed a 61 per cent average increase in placements compared to a year ago.

Copper Shortage Calls for Cut in REA Projects

Critical war requirements for copper will necessitate abandonment of a large number of rural electrification projects planned last fall, the War Production Board said today.

The situation, concerned chiefly with copper, has forced a rearrangement of allowances, leaving the Rural Electrification Administration with but 650 tons of copper instead of 3,300 tons it had expected to get under a previous order.

In the earlier allotment, REA was to have 10,500 tons of copper to complete a number of projects. A survey recently disclosed that 34 projects meet requirements to receive necessary copper. The WPB ordered that copper originally allotted to projects not yet started be diverted to the 34.

PARTS OF 15 MACHINES MAKE ONE GOOD TRACTOR

Hanley Falls.—A bit of ingenuity, on the part of Norsen Albeck, Hazel Run township farmer, and sundry parts taken from fifteen different machines have netted him one good tractor. Back in December he decided he should have a tractor this year to aid in his farm work and being fully aware of government restrictions and shortages he decided to assemble his own. Parts were taken from fifteen different types of machines, from threshing machine to washing machine. The tractor, christened "Victory" has six speeds forward and two reverses. Top speed with governor attachment is approximately fifteen miles per hour.

ISSUE INJUNCTION AGAINST GARDEN VALLEY PHONE CO.

Company Is Ordered to Pay Total of $1,800 in Back Wages

A permanent injunction restraining the Garden Valley Telephone Company of Erskine from further violation of the Wage and Hour Law is now in effect, according to L. A. Hill, Minneapolis, regional director of the wage and hour division, U. S. Department of Labor.

Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye in U. S. district court, Minneapolis, issued the order which also required payment of $1800 in backwages to 21 of the firm's 45 employees.

The action was based on a complaint filed by Donald M. Murtha, regional attorney for the division, who charged that the company had paid wages in some instances averaging less than 25 cents an hour and that hours worked over 40 in a week had not been compensated at time and one-half as required by the law.

The complaint also charged the firm with failure to keep adequate records of the hours worked and pay received by its employees in the past three and one-half years. Investigators also charged that an official of the firm had coerced employees to report to the division less hours than they actually worked.

G. N. Ry. Issues Folder on Potato Production

Constant study of consumer preference is of utmost importance to the potato-growing industry, E. B. Duncan, Great Northern railway general agricultural development agent, observes in announcing publication of a folder on spud production and marketing. The folder cites several factors to be considered in keeping the potato industry geared to changes reflected through consumer preference. They are: Up-to-date methods of production involving plant breeding, disease control, use of fertilizers, and proper tillage necessary in the development of high quality tubers; improved processing which includes preparation and packaging; careful handling and adequate storage; improved marketing methods.

OCCUPATIONAL QUESTIONNAIRES GOING OUT TODAY

Will Give Government Information as to Nation's Man Power

A four page occupational questionnaire to be filled out by all Selective Service registrants who registered on Feb. 16 will be mailed out in Pennington county commencing today, Art Berg, clerk of the local board, announced today.

The occupational questionnaire marks the first step on the part of the government to compile an inventory of the nation's manpower for war production purposes, said Colonel J. E. Nelson, state director of Selective Service, in his announcement.

The questionnaire, which requires detailed information as to the registrant's work experience, will provide a complete picture of present employment activities of registrants and other skills and abilities, it was stated.

This questionnaire must be returned to the local board office within 10 days after it is received. To assist in getting a prompt and accurate return of the questionnaire, arrangements have been made to aid registrants. Information may be obtained at local Selective Service board offices, and at local offices of the United States Employment Service.

On the questionnaire is a list of 225 jobs essential to war production. The registrant is asked to check those in which he has had training or experience.

STATE FARMERS IN 1942 FORESEE RECORD OUTPUT

To Meet Goals Set for Them, State AAA Chairman Declares

Minnesota farmers are launching an all-out offensive on the food production front that is expected to smash all agricultural production records and bring the greatest cash income to farmers in the state's history.

Here briefly, is the production job for 1942:

Milk—9,590,000,000 pounds, 9% over the record 1941 production.

Eggs—196,000,000 dozens, 10% over the 1941 production.

Pork—1,634,000,000 pounds, 19% over 1941 production.

Flax—1,610,000 acres, 12% over 1941 and equal to the all-time 1940 production.

Soybeans—175,000 acres, 219% of 1941.

Sugar Beets—45,000 acres.

Victory Gardens—One on every Minnesota farm.

Besides, thousands of acres of alfalfa, clover, and grasses for dairy feed to keep the "milk factories" going on a 24-hour basis.

"Those are the goals for Minnesota farmers and we'll meet them and beat them," says Charles W. Stockney, AAA state chairman and head of the USDA War Board.

"Take eggs for example. Our goal is 196,000,000 dozens but a recent survey taken by AAA farmer-elected committeemen indicates a production of 221,070,000 dozens, an increase over 1941 of 32 per cent instead of the 19 per cent asked for.

"We'll probably market 1,667,000,000 pounds of pork instead of 1,634,000,000 pounds alloted to our state. Milk production will be slightly more than the goal for the state but we must remember that the increase asked for in 1942 comes right on top of our greatest milk producing year," he pointed out.

In 1940 Minnesota farmers planted over 1,610,000 acres of flax, more than half the flax in the United States. The 1942 plantings are expected to be as high or higher. Sugar beet plantings will be around 45,000 acres. An even greater acreage of this crop is being urged at this time. The same is true in regard to canning crops, especially peas and beans.

Life wouldn't be pleasant without fire or water. But even good things like fire and water are bad if they get out of control. There is such a condition as having too much of a good thing. That goes for dogs too. We like dogs and know from our own experience what they mean to kids. But we also know that to many people of our community dogs have become a nuisance. Our lawmakers have recognized the nuisance possibilities of dogs and have established certain regulations for their control but laws that are not enforced are of little value. Of our several hundred dogs only seventy were licensed last year. So far this year only fourteen licenses have been issued. That would indicate that whatever regulations we have are not being enforced and it is our opinion that our failure to enforce the regulations is the main reason for dog poisoning. Our suggestion is that dog owners of our community who want to put a stop to dog poisoning should take steps to secure more rigid enforcement of the dog laws. There are people who will deal with them as they would with any other nuisance as long as they are permitted to be a nuisance.

Favorable crop reports are always good news and so it is good to learn that our upland game birds have come through the exceptionally fine winter in exceptionally fine condition. It is too early to predict a favorable harvest however. Extreme cold is not the only hazard our birds face. Extreme heat is another—the grass fires that annually destroy so many bird families. And the fire hazard may be more serious this year. Many meadows could not be cut last year because of excessive moisture, and there is much old grass to be burned off to improve this season's hay. We are glad, therefore, to pass along this request to farmers. If you have grass to burn, please burn it early before the birds start to build their nests. If we must have grass fires, now is a good time to have them.

Hitler seems to be making some progress in his effort to bring his puppet government of France into an active war alliance with him but we cannot see that such a development would now be a matter of serious consequence for the United Nations. It might make available to the Axis powers a few more ships, which would be to their advantage. But it probably would also result in a strengthening of the Free French movement which, from Hitler's standpoint, would be a disadvantage. It is inconceivable that the people of France, as a people, would co-operate with the powers that seek the destruction of the Democracies. In the desperation of a cause that must have seemed hopeless, they have yielded to the demands of a conqueror. But cooperation is another thing. The Quisling government of Norway might declare war on the United States, but the Norwegian people would still be at war with Hitler. Regardless of what the Vichy government says or does, the people of France and the people of America are friends.

A magazine of national circulation has been barred from the mails on the charge that it has published seditious utterances, and this brings to the front again the question of to what extent is the war going to interfere with our civil liberties. The magazine involved in this particular case is, in our estimation, one of the journalistic contemptibles. We mention this fact as an admission of prejudice. We have no respect either for its founders or its present publishers. To us they are the lowest form of human vermin because they cloak themselves in a garb of inspired authority, shielding themselves from criticism behind the skirts of an organization that should not be made a party to the type of quarrel they invite. But we are not sure the interests of Democracy will be advanced by barring their magazine from the mail. Until we learn more of the facts we will have to defend their rights to express their opinions. There is a limit beyond which these rights have a proper claim. Motive is an important factor in determining what should and what should not be said during an emergency. If it can be proven beyond a reasonable doubt that the object of a speaker or writer is to create dissension among us and, by dividing us, give aid to our enemies, then certainly the extreme penalties prescribed for treason should be invoked. But unless there is evidence of a will to aid those who seek to destroy us, we would tolerate the most destructive criticism. In the final analysis we must rely on the ability of the average American to judge intelligently what is said and what is done. If we cannot do that, then a Democracy is not a practical form of government. If, as a form of government, it is not capable of surviving its emergencies, then we question whether it is worth saving.

All new construction, public and private, now comes under government regulation, and during the emergency all forms of improvement that cannot be justified as essential will be discouraged if not forbidden. Materials are not the only consideration in determining the effect of any building project on the war effort. Man hours are also a factor. For some individuals and communities this regulation may cause hardship, which is to be regretted. But in some instances the curtailment may be beneficial. During the depression years many communities went into debt for public improvements. Now that improvements by local units of government are not possible the local units of government can concentrate on debt retirement. Taxes levied for improvements can be applied to the payment of old bills. And we will be in much better position to meet the needs of the adjustment period that will follow the war if our local public debt has been liquidated.

Each week that now passes without the launching of a new attack by the Axis powers strengthens the belief that Hitler's Russian campaign has been a major disaster. Had his plans not miscarried it is certain that his Spring offensive would already be under way. The only plausible reason for his failure to start his drive by now is that his reverses during the winter months have been sufficiently severe to force him to delay action. Time is the one big factor that is against him. When he does strike the next time he probably will "shoot the works", knowing that if he does not win this summer he will never win. But the longer he now waits the poorer will be his chances. The United Nations are gaining in striking power faster than the Axis powers.

Urge Joint Use of Farm Trucks to Save Tires

Farmers can conserve tires, gasoline, oil and manpower by pooling their trucking equipment and working out plans for hauling produce and going to town with their neighbors, the office of defense transportation in the War production Board said today.

The mileage put on farm trucks can be reduced 25 to 50 per cent by cooperative use of the vehicles, the ODT said in making public its proposal.

Just as city workers have been urged to "team up" with their neighbors in driving to work, farmers, truck gardeners, fruit growers, milk producers, livestock haulers and others can save on their vehicles by bringing a full load to town instead of a small amount as many farmers do now.

Looking Backward

1932—TEN YEARS AGO

The Lincoln high school basketball team received a tumultuous welcome when it returned from Minneapolis after annexing the state high school championship. The Auditorium was too small to accommodate the throngs that turned out to greet the members of the team, including Chommie, Aanstad, Myrom, Kielty and Stadum. A. W. Mickelson of Minot succeeded C. E. Weeding as manager of the local Montgomery Ward store. —W. H. Mulry announced plans for closing out his variety store in the Citizens bank block. —Mayor E. L. Tungseth appointed O. C. Paulson as a member of the park board, succeeding Frank Protz, and reappointed Dr. O. F. Mellby to the board.

1922—TWENTY YEARS AGO

Members of the Pennington County Automobile association objected to a new city ordinance requiring the parking of cars in the middle of the street.—Archie Dahl has accepted a position as manager of the men's wear department of the local J. C. Penney store.—Interested authorities were considering reducing the length of Clearwater river from 143 to 47 miles at a cost of $537,000.—A. W. Crown filed for the office of sheriff, which position is now held by W. J. Lafiree.—This locality received a heavy snowfall March 25.

HERE'S ONE WAY TO LOSE ONE'S SHIRT

Storden—No doubt, Dr. P. C. Fage, veterinarian, is going to be far more cautious about handing his shirt in the future. This because one day recently he rushed to a professional call, pulled his sweat shirt off and hung it on a hook near the entrance of the building. After caring for the animal he had been called to see he returned to find a billy goat enjoying a delicious dessert of one sweat shirt. Mr. Goat had torn it into bits and the pieces not gulped down were strewn about the floor.

Preview of the End

New York. — Referee Eddie Josephs rushes over to herd Joe Louis to a neutral corner and starts the count over Big Abe Simon just before bell ended the fifth round of the scheduled fifteen round heavyweight title bout at Madison Square Garden. The bell ended the count of this down at "four". But Abe wasn't as lucky the next round—a hard right fluch to the button slammed him to the canvas. He rolled over and over and was struggling across the ring on his hands and knees when the referee tolled the knockout ten over him, giving Joe Louis knockout victory in 16 seconds of the 6th round.

35 LINCOLN HIGH TRACK MEN TURN OUT FOR PRACTICE

Co-Captains Bruce Biddick and Don Olson Only Lettermen

Co-captains Bruce Biddick and Don Olson were the only lettermen in the squad of thirty-five Prowlers that reported to Coach Harry Newby Monday afternoon for the track season's first outdoor practice drill. With the Prowlers' first competitive meet tentatively scheduled for April 29th, Coach Newby intends, if the weather remains favorable, to send the track men through intensive drills.

If arrangements can be completed the Prowlers will open the season against Roseau high school on April 29th. On May 1st the Moorhead State Teachers College will conduct the Dragon Relays, and Coach Newby will select a team to participate in that meet. The inter-class track meet will be held on Saturday, May 2nd, and the winners of first and second places in the individual events, will earn a minor track letter.

The inter-class meet will also enable Coach Newby to select the squad that will represent the Prowlers in the district track meet which will be held on the University of North Dakota's Memorial Field, May 9th. Winners of first, second, and third places in the individual events in the district meet will be eligible to participate in the Eighth regional track and field meet, which is scheduled to be run on the Bemidji State Teachers College field, May 16th.

Keeping Score

Wow!

Walt Johnson certainly baked the Mint alleys Saturday night! Bowling in the handicap singles tournament, Walt poured his curve ball into the pocket for 26 strikes to score games of 180 209 180 256, for an 825 actual pins total, and with his 58 pins handicap racked up an 883 total to take the $12.00 first prize. Walt had five blows in his four game series, but it was his ability to bunch his strikes that gave him his high total. In his huge 256 game, and it was the final game in his series, Walt opened with a strike, spared the second frame, and then rammed home eight strikes in a row.

And Walt needed that 256 game to edge out Frank Kobliska, for Kob, too, came through with a fine series score. Kob, who rolled an 815 actual, marked up 18 strikes, 20 spares, and had only one blow. With his 45 pins handicap Kob's aggregate was 860, which gave him second place money.

I knew that I would Jinx Bill Thompson. Bill, who carried a 206 pins handicap, rolled games of 140-126-147-124, to get himself an aggregate of 737. And that total wasn't so bad. At least it out-scored Al Weber, and that's something. Al tallied 177-150-146-133, and with 85 pins handicap, totaled 691.

Prospects: fair

I've watched the Prowlers run through several outdoor practices, and the track prospects aren't too dismal. Bruce Biddick, the region's top-ranking hurdler, and Don Olson, the district's half-mile champion, are the only veterans on the squad; but there are a number of Prowlers that may develop into point-winners and give Bruce and Don some assistance in the district meet May 9th. Biddick set new marks in the low and high hurdle events last year, running the lows in 24.0 in the district meet, and in 23.8 in the regional, and marking up a 17.1 in the highs in the district. Bruce fractured an ankle while playing baseball last summer and if that injury hasn't handicapped his running, the lanky Prowler senior should crack his own hurdle marks this year. Don Olson ran the half-mile in 2:12 in the district, setting a record; and half-mile Ole ran a 2.07 half-mile in taking second place at the regional meet.

Squinting around the district we find that the Crookston Pirates' one-man track team, Bill Ericson, is still in competition. Bill ran the 100 in 10.6, the 220 in 23.7, and broad-jumped 20 feet 1½ inches, to set three district records. The Prowlers will have to put hobbles on little Bill if they expect to take any first places away from the Pirate speedster.

It's That Time Again

Team manager Ole Ness, and team captain Wally DuChamp announced that there would be an informal baseball practice at the Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon. It'll probably snow by Sunday, though.

Manager Ole is pretty optimistic about the new season, and while a number of the boys are in the service— catcher Bing Bergstrom, pitcher Hemmy Sahl, second baseman Johnny Jaranson, and shortstop Jesse DuChamp are already in the army, and third baseman Clarence Rasmusson is slated for induction [illegible] that there are quite a few boys available for baseball. Catcher Benleen Nornes, first baseman Stan Cockrell, third baseman Bobby DuChamp, and center fielder Wally DuChamp are ready to play ball. It's possible that left fielder Nick Bromberg, who's driving a bus, and pitcher Bill Hallamack will be able to find time to play with the locals, too. Bill will be pretty busy this year, having turkeys, chickens, and general farming to take up his time. But perhaps Bill could find some time on Sundays to play some shortstop. And in addition to these veterans, Ole says that there are several youngsters around town that would make fine ball players, and he mentioned Don Glaholt, a former Detroit Lakes player, Lyle Green, who played with the Grand Forks Junior Legion team, Eddie Flasch, Gordy Rasmusson, and Merle Carlson. Well, that's enough players for batting practice anyway.

Having only a few unbroken bats on hand, Wally DuChamp requests that Stan Cockrell bring his own bat Sunday.

Miscellany

Roy Lee was a member of the Washburn-McReavy team that participated in the Minneapolis citywide basketball meet. And Roy had Stu McDonald, of Minnesota, and Kuecen and Henry Epp, of Mountain Lake, as team-mates. They defeated the Mithy-Sather's 48 to 35, and the Mithy's had such stars as Minnesota's Don Smith and Hy Thune in their line-up; and the B & B team, with Tony Jaros, Lefty Holick, Willis Warhol, Wally Kowalski, and Johnny Kundla on its roster, barely scratched out a 43 to 38 win over the Washburn's—Wayne Bredeson has been rated among the first ten University of Minnesota basketball prospects.— Eddie Flasch, who cancelled out of school this term, will return to North Dakota 'U' next fall.

War Board Recommends Filling Coal Bins Now for Next Winter's Use

Here's something that sounds a little bit previous at this point, what with winter coal shoveling just about at an end.

Nevertheless, Price Administrator Leon Henderson has notified Northwest War Production Board officials to carry the news to all points. It's this:

Pack into your coal bins or sheds all you can of your next winter's coal supply. You'll be helping the war effort considerably by getting it in now instead of waiting for next autumn's snow flurries.

"The advice to buy coal now may develop into a now or never appeal for many coal users," Henderson said. "Transportation now is available to haul from the mine to the consumer's coal bins, but by fall our railroad and truck lines will be loaded to capacity hauling war shipments."

Many coal dealers are cooperating with the government in this drive by offering summer prices to consumers who buy now.

PUBLIC PAYROLLS IN MINNESOTA NOW TOTAL 51 MILLION

Substantial Savings Can be Made, State Taxpayers Association Says

Because there is a growing need for men, money, and materials to speed the war effort, substantial savings can be made in state, municipal and county government where part of the personnel is now devoted to unnecessary non-war activities, the Minnesota Taxpayers association pointed out in a statement today. Manpower is too valuable to be devoted to unnecessary tasks in these critical days.

Here in Minnesota, the U. S. Census Bureau reported that there were 54,445 persons employed by the state, county, municipal and other local governments in 1941, exclusive of the 33,156 public employees engaged in educational activities. The annual payroll was $51,300,000.

Even a 10 per cent reduction in this expenditure would result in a substantial saving that could be devoted to necessary services.

According to the U. S. Bureau of the Census, state government personnel costs in the country increased almost 70 per cent since pre-depression 1929. Municipal payrolls are 13 per cent higher than in 1929, and county, township and other civil division payrolls have increased 26 per cent. Public education wages and salaries throughout the nation are almost 14 per cent higher.

Federal pay rolls are not included in the association's report because of the unforseen emergencies that have forced enlargements in many Federal departments. It is pointed out, however, that cities, counties, townships, etc. do not come under such emergency classifications and should yield whatever personnel it can that might better be made available to further the war effort.

"U" Students Age 17-19 May Enlist in Navy and Finish College Studies

University of Minnesota students 17 to 19 years of age, below the draft limits, will be given a chance to enlist in the navy under the V-1 plan (V being for victory) and complete their college course before being called to active duty if they make good in their study programs.

Naval officers spent Monday and Tuesday on the campus (March 30-31) conferring with Dean M. M. Willey of the defense committee and with deans of colleges that admit freshmen, concerning the plan.

V-1 enrollees will continue for two years in that category and then will have a chance to pass examinations admitting them to V-5 and V-7 classes, in either of which, if they pass, they may complete the full four years course. V-5 training leads to a flight commission and V-7 to technical positions with the navy, with officer rank.

The university was informed that 80,000 will be enrolled nationally in V-1, of whom 20,000 will be ultimately advanced to V-5 and 15,000 to V-7.

New Plates Save Money

California's new license plates, owing to their rounded corners and lighter weight, will save the state, in cost of manufacturing and mailing, approximately $125,000 a year.

Lawless Truckers Deter War Effort by Causing Damage to Highways

Lawless truckers who try to "sneak by" on restricted roads, or use the "critical materials" excuse to try to alibi overloading, are only slowing up the long-run war effort by ruining roads which the state highway department has no assurance it will be able to restore or repair.

This was the warning this week of Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann, as maintenance engineers' reports showed approximately 5,000 miles of state trunk highways posted for load weight restrictions of varying limits, in order to protect them from destruction or serious damage during spring breakup conditions.

A considerable number of truckers recently have been apprehended carrying loads in excess of the posted limits on restricted highways. Time after time highway patrolmen have listened to the alibi "but this is critical material, needed to win the war."

Overloading at this time of the year, even with critical materials, will not help win the war, the commissioner pointed out; instead it may help to lose it—or at least prolong it. Restrictions are not arbitrarily imposed, he explained, but are determined by careful study and observation by competent engineers of just what maximum weights each section of highway will carry without seriously damaging or destroying its driving surface.

The other hobby, less strenuous is saving string and the ball is nearly half his height now.

INCREASE NOTED IN STATE SCHOOL AID PAYMENTS

Appropriations for Current Year to Aggregate More than $8,000,000

Payments made by the state for aid to high, graded and rural schools of Minnesota, source of much of the local school funds in many districts, will be increased approximately 15% this year and next year as compared with the amount being paid in 1938, state fiscal officers pointed out this week in a study of school aid payments.

Tracing steady growth in the payments during the last twenty years, the summary disclosed that appropriations for the aids for the year ending June 30th, 1942, will amount to $8,102,000, and that the total for the next fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1943, will be $8,287,000.

The 1943 peak thus will be more than $1,100,000 above the total for the fiscal year that ended June 30th, 1938, when total appropriations for this purpose amounted to $7,115,000.

Growing reliance on the state in financing of Minnesota's schools is brought out by the report. For the year ending June 30th, 1921, funds provided by the state for this purpose amounted to only $3,175,210. From that time on, the school aid payments increased to $5,500,000 by 1926 and after staying around this level for several years began to climb again.

Including income from the state trust funds, state one-mill tax, the $10 per pupil allotment from the income tax fund and the special state aids, school districts of the state now receive on the average close to 30% of their school funds from the state.

Speed, Liquor Cost 1,248 the Right to Drive Cars

Just two types of traffic law violations, the death-dealing offenses of excessive speed and driving while drinking, have cost 1,248 Minnesota motorists the right to drive during the first quarter of 1942, the state highway department disclosed today.

In all, 1,858 drivers since January 1 have been barred from the wheel, 842 with their licenses revoked for a year, and 1,016 under license suspensions ranging from 30 days to a year.

Five hundred and fifteen drivers forfeited their licenses for speeding, 733 for drunken driving and inebriacy, 109 for reckless driving, 35 for running through stop signs or signals, and 17 for failure to stop and report an accident.

258 Drivers' Permits Revoked in March for Driving While Drunk

Two hundred and fifty eight drinking drivers were barred from driving their cars for one year as a result of drivers' license revocations by the Minnesota state highway department during the month of March.

In addition to these drivers who "set out to win the war" by mixing gasoline and alcohol, 47 others lost their driving permits by revocation for various other traffic offenses which endangered their own lives and the lives of others.

Twelve revocations were for repeated offenses of speeding, four for reckless driving, and six for failure to stop and disclose identity after an accident. Total March revocations were 305 and drivers license suspensions numbered 101.

GIVES DETAILS OF SELECTION OF MEN BY DRAFT BOARDS

Colonel J. E. Nelson, State Director, Outlines Procedure

Clarification of the procedure used by selective service boards in calling men from different registrations into military service was made today in a statement by Colonel J. E. Nelson, state director of selective service. The procedure was outlined as follows:

Registrants from the first and second registrations have been consolidated into one age group, including men who at the time of registration were from 21 to 35 years old. (The first registration on October 16, 1940, required the registration of men from the ages of 21 to 35. The second registration on July 1, 1941, included men who had reached the age of 21 since the first registration.)

Men of the third registration, held February 16, 1942, will be placed in a second age group. This age group will include those men not previously registered who were from 20 to 44 years old, inclusive, when they registered. The present policy of selective service with regard to the different age groups, it was announced, is that available men from the first age group will be inducted before men from the second age group are called. All local boards either have completed or are completing classification of men in the first age group. However, such classifications are not considered permanent, since the local boards are now checking all past classifications, and they will continue to reclassify wherever necessary. In addition, the boards are now beginning to classify those in the second age group so that there will be enough men available to fill future calls.

State headquarters indicated that many inquiries have been received regarding the high order numbers received by men who registered in the third registration on February 16. It was announced that men who registered in this registration were given order numbers beginning with 10,001 merely as a means of easily distinguishing them from registrants of the first age group.

GARDEN and TABLE

By ERNEST A. PALMER

County Agricultural Agent

Don't forget to cool off the hot beds on bright sunny days. The upper end of the sash can be raised slightly to keep the temperature down to about 65 degrees Fahrenheit. On those cold cloudy days in April, the sash should be kept closed, and if necessary should be covered with heavy blankets, mats or straw.

Planting time is closer now than it was a week ago when we talked about planning a two-garden system, one near the house for table use and a larger one in the field for vegetables wanted for storage and canning. Naturally, a lot of us are anxious to get started on these gardens, and we may even find some who will be over-anxious. For example, working the soil in the spring when it is too wet may cause it to lose much of its ability to nourish the growing crops. If the soil forms a compact muddy mass when pressed in the hand and does not crumble readily when released, it may become lumpy, hard and compact when worked. This is especially true of the heavier soils.

Good health springs from a variety of foods including those produced in the family garden. It's a wise homemaker who knows her family food needs and can tell at the end of each day whether the dinner table has provided the several food elements needed to maintain good health. Extension Pamphlet 95 provides an interesting and easy way to determine whether the members of the family are getting their daily food requirements. The new pamphlet lists 56 different foods, all reliable sources of protective vitamins and minerals, and tell just what food values can be obtained from a definite serving of each one. Copies are being distributed at nutrition meetings held in the county this month.

It may sound a little early to be talking about vegetable garden insects that threaten the gardens in summer, but this summer's insect population can be reduced this spring by having the seedbed free from weeds at planting time. Keeping the weeds down and removing or burning the crop residue from last fall's harvest helps to destroy the winter shelters of the common stalk borer, cabbage worm, and many other insects.

White grubs are expected to appear in great numbers this year and many gardeners may hesitate to plant their vegetables in areas where this larva of the June bug has appeared in large numbers. It is safe, however, to plant vegetables in ground previously infested with such insects if alfalfa, sweet clover, soybeans or other legumes have been grown on the land for the past two years. Grubs don't like legumes and the adult June bugs will not lay their eggs in soil that has been seeded to leguminous crops. Poisons do not control the white grub pest but cultural methods aid somewhat.

A comparatively small garden can furnish enough vegetables for consumption this spring and summer, but no family with plenty of garden room should be satisfied with that this year. Plan for plenty of canning, and look ahead to a good supply of the products that can be stored successfully, potatoes, carrots, beets, cabbage, squash, onions, rutabagas, turnips, parsnips, and others. More and more farm people are finding the two-garden system most convenient. In a smaller garden near the house, put in those things that you want for the table. On a fertile piece of ground, perhaps next to a cornfield, put in tomatoes, beans and peas for canning, cabbage, vine crops and others than can be cultivated with farm equipment. Such a garden will produce in quantity with very little handwork.

In Minnesota it is always wise to build the garden around tomatoes. This crop is adaptable to a great many uses, it is easy to can, and furnishes the vitamin C which otherwise would have to be supplied by citrus fruits. Tomatoes are good raw. They make a refreshing drink. They go well with other vegetables, with cheese, rice, spaghetti and meat. They lend themselves to an almost unlimited number of combinations in cooking, salads, relishes and desserts. They are even good if served green. Give them the star role in your garden.

The University division of horticulture recommends these varieties of tomatoes; early—Red River, Earliana, Bonny Best; mid-season—Break o'Day, John Baer, Rutgers; late—Stone, Ponderosa, Marglobe. In most Minnesota sections it is best to start the plants indoors, harden and develop them by one or more transplantings indoors, and then set them out as soon as danger of frost is past.

If you want to learn all about growing tomatoes, stop in at the office for a copy of Extension Folder 29, or drop us a card so we can send you a copy. The folder includes instructions for canning, ideas for serving, and a recipe for mincemeat.

We have known for a long time that liver is an A-1 food, but we didn't realize how amazingly good it is until we looked over the food value chart in Extension Pamphlet 95, just published. If you attend the nutrition meetings in the county during April, you will get a copy. Did you know that liver exceeds practically all common foods in its supply of protein, phosphorus, iron, vitamin A, vitamin B-1 and vitamin G? It even beats milk in supplying a wide variety of the food elements most needed by the body. When you think of meat, remember that liver is tops not only among the meats, but among all foods.

Hero Becomes Bum

The hero of France for building the 100-mile-long Suez canal, de Lesseps became a bum to his countrymen for failure to cut through with the Panama canal, half that length. In connection with the Panama debacle, he was given five years in jail for misappropriation of public funds, but was freed for his previous good services to France. But he still died in poverty and disgrace.

FARMERS' GROUPS FIGHT CIO PLAN TO ENLIST DAIRYMEN

Six Organizations Decide on Stand at St. Paul Meeting

Allied farm organizations of Minnesota will make a joint stand against labor leaders who propose to set up a dairy division of the CIO United Mine Workers Union, it was decided in St. Paul on Saturday, March 28. Represented at the meeting were officers of the Central Co-operative Association, the co-operative livestock marketing agency; Land O'Lakes Creameries, Minnesota Association of Local Creameries, Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation, Minnesota State Grange and the Twin City Milk Producers Assn.

A statement issued by the farm group declares:

According to newspaper reports, John L. Lewis and District 50, CIO United Mine Workers of America, is attempting to organize dairy farmers in many states and, through funds supplied by the Mine Workers Union, has at his disposal a large sum of money for this purpose.

In our opinion, it is unthinkable that dairy farmers can be well served by an alliance between them and such industrial worker groups as the Mine Workers' Union. Their basis of organization is fundamentally different. Farm organizations are of the voluntary type, and they depend upon education and negotiation to achieve their ends. Labor organizations, on the other hand, have frequently resorted to methods which are totally at variance with the democratic ideal which prevails in farm organizations.

We do not believe that any labor leader has any fundamental right, and certainly no obligation, to organize farmers. The labor group is an entirely natural classification of certain elements in our population. The farm group is another, and quite distinct group with a community of interest which is naturally outlined by the nature of the products which it produces. We cannot understand how these two groups can ever successfully be merged.

While conceding the right of labor to organize and select leaders of its own choosing, the farmer's battles can be fought more effectively through leaders of his own selection, rather than through self appointed labor leaders who seek to invade the farm field.

Government Is Seeking More Stenos, Typists

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced examinations for the positions of junior stenographer, $1,440 a year, and junior typist, $1,260 a year, in various branches of the government service. Applications for this examination must be on file in St. Paul before the close of business on April 16, 1942. Information in regard to the requirements and the character of the examination and application card forms may be obtained from Gunder Legvold, secretary, board of civil service examiners, at the post office.

State Safety Council Holds Award Dinner in Minneapolis April 27

The 1942 annual governor's award dinner of the Minnesota Safety Council assumed added importance today when it was announced that the event will be a major factor in the new national plan to speed up war production through reduction of accidents.

Announcement of the part the gathering will have in the national war picture was made by A. V. Rohweder of Duluth, president of the Council and a vice president of the National Safety Council.

Commenting on the dinner, which will be held April 27 in the Nicollet Hotel, Minneapolis, Rohweder said that the affair will signalize the opening in Minnesota of operations of a new national committee of business executives who have pledged themselves to anti-accident work.

Activities of the group are expected to be discussed at the dinner by Colonel John B. Stilwell of New York City, president of the National Safety Council.

With public safety work regarded as an essential part of the war effort, more than 1,000 persons will attend the April 27 dinner, at which awards will be made to individuals, organizations and cities and counties which led the state in war against accidents in 1941.

SOUNDS LIKE THE GOOD OLD DAYS!

Canby—In the year of 1942 a Minnesota town without mail or freight for three whole days really is something. Friday, Saturday and Sunday not a single piece of mail or freight shipment reached the town. No explanation seems to be available as to why the branch railway line did not function as usual those days.

KRATKA

Easter Sunday supper guests at the Henry Waale home were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Waale, Ruby Jean and Marylin, Mr. and Mrs. Halvor Waale, Hilda, Selma and Olga and Thelon Skretvedt.

A 4-H Club organization meeting will be held at the Julius Hanson home, Monday evening, April 20th at 8 o'clock. Anyone who is interested in joining, be sure to be present.

Mrs. Ed Troones, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Troones of St. Paul visited at the Henry Runnestrand home last week.

The old adage "It never rains, but that it pours" seems to hold true at the Anton Jenson home. Having severly injured his hand over two months ago, Anton Jenson was just beginning to get over the effects of that, when he was stricken with pneumonia, requiring a physician's care. He is gradually recovering from the attack.

Miss Ruby Hegreness spent the Easter week-end at the Knut Knutson home. She returned to Thief River Falls Sunday evening where she is employed.

The Misses Ruby and Mildred Breiland spent the Easter holidays at their parental home. They are both students at the St. Cloud State Teachers College.

Little Miss Mila Jane Burstad went for a little too early ducking on Easter Sunday. She and her brother, Milton James were looking for fish in the large drainage ditch that borders just south of their home. The banks being slippery, Mila Jane lost her footing and plunged into the icy cold water. The quick action of her brother in grabbing her hand and pulling her to safety undoubtedly saved Mila Jane's life, since the closeness of the drainage ditch to the river made the current very swift and strong.

Mr. Louise Brevik accompanied Mrs. Anna Anenson and Andrew Anenson to Grand Forks to spend the week end. The former visited with her daughter Mabel who is employed there while Mrs. Anenson and Andrew were guests at the Carrie Olson home east of Grand Forks.

Easter Sunday dinner guests at the Simon Breiland home were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Burstad, Mila Jane and Milton James, Grandpa Breiland and Misses Ruby and Mildred Breiland of St. Cloud.

Guests at the Otto Rehm home in Thief River Falls Easter Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Hafdahl and Marilon.

Mrs. Ivar Anderson received the sad news of the death of her mother Mrs. Ole Sletten of Grygla on Tuesday. The sincere condolence of her Kratka neighbors are offered Mrs. Anderson and her family.

Easter Sunday festivities at the Ole Hafdahl home included the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hanson, Pauline and Ralph of Thief River Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Hafdahl and Marilon, Rose and Willard Hafdahl of Thief River Falls, Arthur Hafdahl, Supt. of School at Red Lake, Grace Hafdahl, student at State Teachers' College at Moorhead.

Easter Sunday guests at the Henry Runnestrand home were Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Nabben of Mavie and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwartz and David of Holt.

The Telemarken Ladies Aid will be entertained by Mrs. Anna Anenson at her home Thursday, April 30th. A sincere invitation is extended to everyone.

Good business is NOT always Profitable . . .

Because the telephone meets today's requirements for fast communication so well, we have been experiencing the greatest demand for service in our history. As additional telephones have been placed in service our gross revenues have increased. However, due to tremendously increased expenses we have found that this larger volume of business has not been profitable.

Wages constitute almost half the cost of providing telephone service. In the past five years total wage payments in Minnesota to employees of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company and its subsidiary, The Tri-State Telephone and Telegraph Company, increased thirty-one per cent.

Taxes are another important item of expense. In the last five years taxes chargeable to our Minnesota operations increased eighty-seven per cent. Other telephone expenses also have gone up.

At the present relatively low rates, revenue resulting from a larger volume of business has not been nearly enough to offset the substantial increases in wages, taxes and other telephone expenses. This is our situation TODAY . . . and there are many indications that the full effects of rising costs are still to come.

GRYGLA

Pioneer Mother Called by Death

Mrs. Ole Sletten passed away last Tuesday morning after a lingering illness of several months at the age of 77 years, 7 minths and 17 days. Mrs. Sletten was one of the first pioneer settlers in the Grygla community, having come here with her family in the year 1900. Last year she and her husband were honored by friends and neighbors in commemoration of their sixtieth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Mari Sletten was born, July 21, 1863 at Nordre Fran, Gudbrandsdalen, Norway. She was united in marriage to Ole Sletten in Norway in February 1882. They immigrated to the United States in 1883, settling at Webster, S. D. The family moved to Grygla in 1900, settling on a homestead, and here Mrs. Sletten remained until death.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Alma Olson of Thief River Falls, Mrs. Clara Baagard of East Grand Forks, and Mrs. Inga Anderson of Mavie; five sons, Richard of Bottineau, North Dakota, and Oscar, Adolph, Peter and Julius, all of Grygla; 37 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

Oil for the Buttons

Button controls on the dash, such as the choke, are disposed to become difficult to operate with the passage of time—a drop of light machine oil will effect a quick correction of the condition, according to automobile experts.

Drake Early Speed Laws

The duke of Queensbury paid a physician 500 pounds annually so long as he kept him in good health, and took a daily bath in milk. He bet he could drive a carriage 19 miles an hour, and to travel at this unheard-of-vehicular speed, killed seven horses in preliminary practice before he ran a finely mettled team to victory.

'Red Herring'

"Red herring" refers to the traditional use of strong smelling fish to throw a dog off the trail. Sometimes red herring has been used in the training of dogs. Another tradition attributes ill fortune to red herring and it is said that the fishermen of northern Europe considered it unlucky to find a red herring in their nets.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

RUMMAGING through my desk the other day, I came across some snapshots of friends of mine made back in 1933.

If you don't think time flies . . . if you don't think this world ever changes . . . you ought to look at the women's hats and dresses in those pictures taken 9 years ago! Wow!

It gave me quite a start . . . and then it set me to thinking . . . and rememberin'! Lots of things sure happened in 1933. A new administration in Washington . . . the turning point of the depression . . . and the coming of Repeal.

I remember the re-legalization of beer. It came before Repeal, when Congress amended the old Volstead Act to allow legal sale of "3.2" beer.

What talk and arguments they had in those days! One argument I remember well . . . was that beer would do a lot to help bring back prosperity. I wondered at the time whether that argument could be proved.

I thought about that again, the other day. I decided to check up, and find out.

Well, I found out plenty. I found out that legal beer has paid more than 3 billion dollars in taxes since 1933. It has made more than a million new jobs.

According to one of the reports I've seen, beer has put more than 15 billion dollars into general business circulation. Goodness me, that's a lot of money.

Beer is sold today in every state in the Union. Every state benefits from beer's jobs and taxes. And I guess there's no denying that beer did do its share in bringing back better times.

I'm glad it did, too, because beer is such a pleasant, appetizing beverage. And it stands for moderation and moderate people . . . it's not likely to get you in trouble.

MORE Than a Trade Mark!

The familiar "Soo Line" emblem above represents far more than a trade mark. It represents the transportation outlet for thousands of Northwest communities. It represents the means by which farm products are quickly transported to marketing centers. It represents the means by which the merchandise that creates the commercial activity of these communities comes from the larger distribution centers.

In short, the Soo Line is an important factor in the life of the communities it is our privilege to serve.

MEN OF WAR

General Electric men and women—thousands of them! Four typical scenes show the spirit with which they are tackling the grim job of producing for war!

1. Thousands of employees, only ten days after war declaration, gathered in mass meetings in most major G-E plants to pledge all-out war effort!

2. Almost 85 per cent of all General Electric employees signed up to buy U.S. Defense Savings Bonds totalling more than $20,000,000 a year!

3. A sign chalked by a G-E workman on a big machine being built for war. The sign carried this challenge to fellow workers: "Remember Wake Island!"

4. And day and night—around the clock—G-E workmen keep steadily at the most important job of building weapons and supplies for U.S. fighting men!

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.

URGES PROTECTION AGAINST SLEEPING SICKNESS ON FARM

County Agent Advises Vaccination of Horses as Safeguard

May time is vaccination time for Minnesota horses and mules, says County Agent Ernest A. Palmer, who urges all farmers in this area to guard against a recurrence of equine sleeping sickness which last year spread to more than 80 counties affecting over 3,500 head of horses. As soon as mosquitoes or flies appear, there is danger, he says, pointing to the fact that one of the most common varieties of mosquito is known to be a carrier of the sleeping sickness virus.

Disease prevention is more important than ever and death losses will be more costly now that wartime emergencies make horses more valuable as a source of horsepower.

Encephalomyelitis, or sleeping sickness, continues to be the most important infectious disease of horses and mules in Minnesota, says W. L. Boyd, chief in the veterinary division at University Farm. It is important to recognize, he says, that the disease has gained a foothold in this state. While last year's outbreak was not unusually severe in any one area, its appearance was widespread.

Veterinarians are better prepared than ever to prevent the spread of sleeping sickness when it appears in a territory. More than 90,000 horses and mules were vaccinated during 1941, according to a study made by the Minnesota State Livestock Sanitary board. Of this number only five developed the disease 10 days or more after the last treatment was given.

The improved chick-embryo vaccine, says Boyd, is given in two injections at an interval of seven to 10 days and provides protection for one year. The best time to vaccinate is during April and May, and because it takes a little while to develop immunity, it is wise to vaccinate early and get the full benefit of protection during the working season.

Made-in-Minnesota Bullets Pass Tests

No mere man's war is this present world conflict. Minute attention to details is the watchword at the Twin Cities Ordnance Plant near New Brighton, Minn., and the delicate "feminine touch" is a vital factor in the rigid inspection of cartridges as demonstrated here (above) by this group of women in one of the manufacturing units. They are searching for minor imperfections in 30-caliber cartridges to be used by the United Nations forces on European and Far East battle fronts.

The loud and ominous chatter of machine gun fire now echoes daily from the hills of a once peaceful tract of farmland near New Brighton, Minn., as gunnery experts (below) at the Twin Cities Ordnance Plant devote long hours to the careful testing of newly manufactured cartridges destined for the battle fronts in Europe and the Far East. Firing on the test range is a daily activity, seven days a week and the small arms ammunition is responding to the rigid tests in a very business-like manner, stated production control officers and executives of the Federal Cartridge Corporation of Minneapolis, plant operator.

New High in Ship Production

Bethlehem ship production this year will represent the greatest all-round shipbuilding output by any company in the history of the country.

Speed, speed and more speed is the constant objective; and always speed with quality, for a jerry-built ship is virtually useless in the grim tasks of maritime war.

The first Liberty ship which recently discharged supplies at a Red Sea port was built in a yard that was virtually non-existent a year ago. A tanker was delivered in 100 days from laying of keel. A battleship will be delivered 14 months ahead of schedule.

Cargo ships are being built in less than one-half the time required in the first World War. Comparable speeding up has been achieved on other types of ships and the schedule is being constantly stepped-up.

Expanding old yards, building new ones, tripling employment in a year's time, training thousands of new men, putting every effective facility to use, adopting pre-assembly and mass production methods—all these spell tonnage and more tonnage, a steadily-mounting output of ships from Bethlehem yards.

All hands are doing their utmost for Victory, working to achieve the maximum for the U. S. Navy and the U. S. Maritime Commission, so that the "bridge of ships" shall be maintained and steadily enlarged.

REGISTERING OF SUGAR DEALERS DUE APRIL 28-29

Historical Society

Retailers, Wholesalers and Institutional Users to be Listed

REGISTRATION TO BE HELD IN HIGH SCHOOLS

Officers of Ladies Aids and Other Groups Required to Register

Officials in charge of the rationing program here and in other communities throughout the state were busy this week preparing for their first big task —registration of retailers, wholesalers and institutional and industrial users of sugar—scheduled for two days next week, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 28 and 29.

On those two days, between 4 and 9 p. m. users of sugar in these categories will have to appear at high schools in their districts and register, reporting quantities of sugar they have been using and amounts on hand, together with other information that will be helpful in determining the allotments of sugar to be made. High school teachers will conduct the registration.

In Thief River Falls the registration will be conducted in Room 113, Lincoln high school building, Supt. Morris Bye announced, adding that ushers will be on hand to direct registrants to the proper room.

Registration of consumers is set for a week later, May 4 to 7.

To aid in the big task of registering the wholesalers, retailers and industrial users of sugar, T. G. Driscoll, state rationing administrator, in sending out final instructions this week urged that all registrants in these groups ascertain in advance what information will be required and come to the high school registration desks with this information all ready. Sample copies of the form to be filled out may be obtained at the rationing board office on the second floor of the Northern State bank building.

"I would suggest that all persons in the groups indicated who are not familiar with the requirements get in touch with their local rationing boards," Driscoll

$10,500 IN JOB INSURANCE PAID IN PENNINGTON

940 Weekly Checks Issued in First 3 Months of 1942, Says Christgau

Weekly job insurance checks numbering 940 and totaling $10,500 were issued to residents of Pennington county in the first three months of 1942, it was stated this week by Victor Christgau, director of the employment-security division.

The checks represent supplemental buying power for county residents who, by reason of their previous work history, qualified for participation in the unemployment compensation program. Otherwise they would have been obliged to use their credit or savings for current living expenses, it was pointed out.

The amount is 28 per cent less than the $14,594 paid out in 1,334 weekly benefit checks during the corresponding three months of 1941. The decrease in the number of weekly payments amounts to 28 per cent.

In the state as a whole, the Employment-Security division issued 245,430 weekly benefit checks totaling $2,906,827 during the first three months of 1942. This is a 12 per cent decrease from the $3,310,248 paid out during the first quarter of 1941. The number of payments decreased 23 per cent.

The average weekly benefit check in March amounted to $11.05, or 15 per cent above the average for March, 1941, Mr. Christgau said.

LUMBER: Attune with the spirit of conservation prudent folks are looking beneath the surface of their purchases to be assured of a full measure of quality. However often the nature of their purchase is such that quality cannot be evaluated by mere inspection — in this event they must have confidence in the integrity of the seller. The folks of Thief River Falls and vicinity are assured of getting that very necessary high quality in all their purchases, from the SKAUSTAD DANIELS LUMBER COMPANY, headquarters of the quest for quality.

COUNTY AAA HEAD ASKS SUPPORT OF QUOTAS ON WHEAT

Says Price of Wheat Affects Prices of Other Farm Commodities

Dairy, poultry and hog producers have an important stake in the outcome of the national wheat marketing referendum May 2, according to Carl R. Anderson, Pennington county AAA chairman.

Mr. Anderson points out that "the price of wheat is a mighty important factor in the determination of the prices of commodities produced through feeding. Eggs, poultry, and pork, indirect by products of feed grain, are generally sold in relation to the price of the feed. The price of wheat is important in the determination of the price of other feed grain."

"When wheat prices are maintained at a fair level, the price of poultry, dairy and pork products generally net as fair a price. But if price-depressing surplus wheat was free to flood our markets, clog our over-stuffed terminal elevators and tie up vital railroad cars, the market value of the products fed with grain would logically slip to unprofitable levels also.

"In this time of emergency, we must look at the wheat situation from an unselfish angle and see that it is handled in a way best suited to our war effort. The production of excess wheat is not in line with our nation's war-time needs and it behooves every eligible farmer to vote in favor of the marketing quota in the national referendum May 2."

Child Health Roundup Now Under Way in City

The Summer Health Roundup of school children, sponsored by the Parent Teachers association, has been started, and members of the committee are now making home calls, inviting parents to bring their pre-school children who will enter school for the first time next fall to visit the kindergarten at their respective schools on the following dates:

Monday, April 27, at 3 p. m., Washington school. Tuesday, April 28, at 3 o'clock, Knox school. Wednesday, April 29, at 3 p. m., Northrop school.

Each of the children in this age group will be given a free dental examination at their dentist's office on Saturday, May 2, from 1 to 4 o'clock.

Physical examinations with vaccination against smallpox and immunization against diphtheria will be given at the doctors' offices from May 1 to 15. Parents are requested to call their physician for an appointment. During this period the reduced fee of 70 cents for each vaccination or immunization as approved by the medical association will be in effect.

Any parent of a child of kindergarten age who has not received a call from the committee is asked to come to school on one of the dates listed above or to call Mrs. Andy Williamson, phone 815.

In the case of business firms, he added, one of the officers will be required to register for a corporation and a partner for a partnership.

Federal authorities are having a terrible time with the tax problems. Taxes are not popular and our present administration, having purchased popularity by spending, fears the loss of popularity that might follow the collection of taxes on a sufficient scale to enable the continuation of spending. And in the present emergency, the government must continue to spend. We can suggest one way that the government can pick up a few extra billions, and that is by cutting costs. A penny saved is a penny earned. Practically all of our present economy is based on government spending. If the government stopped spending the bottom would fall out of the labor market. If the government stopped spending the bottom would fall out of the market for agricultural products. And business, of course, would do a nose dive with labor and agriculture. But the government's only possible source of revenue is what it can take out of the pockets of the farmer, the laborer and the business man. So in reality we are only kidding ourselves when we think we are enjoying prosperity at government expense. What the government pumps into the economic system it will have to take out of the economic system either now or later. If we are now paid twice what our services are normally worth, sooner or later we will have to take less than our services are normally worth in order to square accounts. It therefore is in the best interests of all of us if present government costs for services of all kinds are kept close to normal. On the amount of money the government is now spending, we venture to say that it could save at least five billion dollars a year if the services and commodities it bought were purchased at normal prices. And that would be just like picking up five billion dollars in additional tax revenues. It probably wouldn't be popular, so it probably will not be done. But it would be smart.

Folks who had their wash out on the line yesterday probably will wash again today. Forgetting the dirt, however, strictly for drying purposes, yesterday was nice weather.

Reports vary from day to day as to where Hitler is massing troops for his Spring offensive. One day Sweden is to be the next victim. Then the rumors point toward Spain. The Channel attack is to be attempted. From north to south and from east to west the troop concentrations are shifted in the headlines. It is reasonable to assume that this confusion of reports and rumors is encouraged by Hitler but it probably is a little more difficult for him to get the desired results now than it was a year or two ago. His opposition is not as easily confused now as it was then. Of all the predicted directions of his drive, the best bet seems to be that he will move toward the southeast in an attempt to establish contact with the Japs. One thing is certain and that is that he will take desperate chances to offset his Russian reversals with a glorious Summer victory. If his Summer campaign is successful we can look forward to a long war. If it fails then the end of the war is in sight.

No citizen of Thief River Falls would deny the need for extensive improvements to our water system. You can't re-build water systems over night however, and we probably will have to wait until the war is over before a project can actually be started. There are several things wrong with the present system, they tell us. For one thing it is too small. Settling basin capacity is insufficient, which means that water is pumped into the mains too soon after it has been chemically treated. Another change that will improve the quality is to move the intake farther up the Red Lake river. These improvements will be expensive, but certainly not too expensive, and it would definitely be in order to get the preliminaries out of the way now so that a project could be started as soon as the national emergency has ended.

There are several parts of this civilian defense program that have definite merit. Gardens is one of them and the first aid instruction that is being given to millions of men and women is another. We can't think of a single thing wrong with the garden idea and certainly no harm is going to be done by learning how to take better care of ourselves and others in an emergency.

It is not difficult to believe that the Chinese rejoiced when they heard of the bombing of Japanese cities. It was the kind of news they had hoped for during the long years they were the helpless victims of Jap bombings. May the Chinese have occasion to rejoice many times during the coming months.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear father, son and brother, Joseph F. Vakoch who died three years ago April 20, 1939.

Spring brings us sad memories of our loved one gone to rest. Tis hard to believe he is really gone
That the voice we loved is stilled and tho we cannot understand, we must bow at our Saviour's will
But when life's sorrows are over, when we reach that beautiful land, God grant that we who loved him best, may again hold his hand. Sadly missed by his children, father and sister. Alvin, Jana and baby Joe Vakoch, Mr. Joseph Vakoch and daughters. 17c

In Memoriam

In memory of our dear loving wife and mother Mrs. Joseph Vakoch who died April 18, 1941

It was on a Friday evening,
We will never forget that day,
An Angel came and took our dear mother away.
She bade no one a last farewell,
She said goodbye to none.
Her loving heart had ceased to beat,
And in a moment she was gone,
Her smiling way and pleasant face,
Are a pleasure to recall;
She had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
The deeds that friends do are very kind
But there'll never be another like you dear mother,
Your equal we never can find.

Sadly missed by her husband and daughters, Mr. Joseph Vakoch, Mrs. Frank Horejsh, Mrs. Joe Cernousek, Mrs. Alex Kosanda. 17c

Patrol Chief Warns Bicycle Riders Must Obey Laws for Autos

Anticipating a continuing increase in bicycle traffic this summer by both adults and children, because of war restrictions on automobile travel, Elden Rowe, chief of the Minnesota highway patrol, has urged all highway patrolmen to tighten up on enforcement of traffic rules as they apply to bicycle riders.

Mr. Rowe pointed out that "bike" riders are subject to the same regulations as automobile drivers, must obey the same traffic rules and do not have the protections accorded pedestrians. "We do not want to cause any undue hardship to bicycle riders," Mr. Rowe said. "We want to protect them. But we must look facts in the face and anticipate a marked increase in bicycle accidents if the number of riders increases as rapidly as we expect."

Junior Baseball

If the age limit rule doesn't raise too much hob with the boys, the local American Legion junior baseball team should be a crackerjack outfit this year. Fellows that are certain of being eligible for the team, and veterans from last year, are Don Berg, Bob Baker, Vern Tormoen, Milt Peterson, Noly Ness, Marlyn Dorn, and Homer Matheson. But pitcher Lenny Lorentson, catcher Jug Snelling, shortstop Soup Campbell, and second baseman Ralph Hunt are reported as being over the age limit. With these 18-year olds barred from play, the locals will have a battery and a keynote combination lifted out of its line-up, and a lot of mending will have to be done to patch that hole.

Lenny Lorentson will be eighteen the latter part of May, and his loss will be quite a blow, for Lenny has been pitching fine ball this year. Lenny, you know, is the left-hander that was within one put-out of upsetting the all-veteran East Grand Forks team in the district semi-finals last July. Last Sunday Lenny set the city team regulars back on their heels and won a five-inning 4 to 3 decision. And this Sunday he will go against them again.

And speaking of baseball, I see that Plummer's Lefty Hovanac is playing first base for Louis Benson's Gustavus Adolphus baseball team. Lefty and the Gusties didn't do so well against the U. of M. last Thursday, losing a 9 to 0 game, and Hovanac went hitless in four trips to the plate.

Should be in the Money

Kammy Berg, bowling in the Fargo Forum singles classic last Sunday, piled up games of 180 222 201 182, for a 784 total and a sixth place. The tournament will continue through next Sunday. 350 bowlers are expected to enter the classic, and 190 have already posted their scores, so it's fair to judge that Kammy's 784 will be up in the money. Kammy had a fine chance to go into the 800's, having a 602 total as he started his final game; but he ran into three splits and had to be satisfied with an 182.

By the way, Les Boyd collected $40.00 for placing in seventh place in the Grand Rapids singles bowling tournament.

Interclass Track Meet

The Seniors will depend on Bruce Biddick, Don Olson, and Johnny Campbell, for the bulk of their points tomorrow afternoon when the interclass track and field meet is held on the Lincoln field. And if the first place points were to decide the meet the Seniors would win the title hands down, for Bruce and Don are cinches to mark up firsts in every event they enter, and Soup may pick up a first place, too. But the better squad balance of the Juniors and the Sophomores should counteract the individual efforts of the Senior stars, and make the meet a wide-open, three-cornered affair.

Hazarding a guess on the individual events, I'd say that Biddick will take charge of the hurdle events; Don Olson, the half-mile, the 440, and perhaps the 220; Pete Michalsky, the mile run; Carl Green, the pole vault; Soup Campbell or Jimmy Magnuson, the broad jump; Mouse Efteland should come close to copping the 100 yard dash, but he'll be pushed, and plenty, by Biddick, Campbell, and Olson; the Seniors should win the relay; and the discus and the high jump events do not have any outstanding performers, and Biddick will perhaps trot over to the high jump pit and pick up another first place. Now that I've picked all the winners there doesn't appear to be much of a reason for running the meet! Well, I'll be out there Friday to see how wrong I am.

Remember the Priorities, Boys

Now that the "bridge" has been floated into the place, so that holes 8 and 9 may be played, the golf season can be considered as being officially open. But with the strict priorities on rubber, the boys had beter install a quota system on golf balls, so that their supply will last the season. Golf balls have a habit of disappearing, as Doc and Mrs. Hedemark well know. A re-cap of the Hedemark's golf ball purchases reveal that they bought 60 golf balls last year.

I expect that the boys will be doing a lot of playing over holes 3 and 4 this year. They are the holes that are located in the middle of the course, several hundred yards away from the out-of-bounds, and when you lost a ball there you have the satisfaction of knowing your ball is inside the course somewhere. My favorite golfer, Lloyd Bennes, who is on a one-ball-a-week quota, will be giving No. 3 and No. 4 a heavy workout this year.

Where are the Suckers?

That's what a lot of the fellows with spears want to know. I've had only a couple of reports of good catches being made. Last Thursday, and that appears to have been the peak day in the sucker run, the Johnsons, east of town, and working a pool in ditch 18, picked up quite a mess of fish; and on Monday, Harold Olson and Dick Hornseth, and they were along ditch 18, too, speared sixteen good-size fish. But the suckers aren't running the ditches as they did several years ago.

ROOSEVELT PUTS STASSEN ON U. S. DEFENSE BOARD

Governor Will Help Put National Program on More Effective Basis

With Minnesota's widespread organization for civilian defense already accorded high praise by federal officials, new recognition came to the state this week in announcement that President Roosevelt had appointed Governor Harold E. Stassen as a member of a newly created national civilian defense board to help put the national program on a more effective basis.

Reorganizing the office of civilian defense, the President retained James M. Landis as director, but appointed a board, consisting of Stassen and other prominent citizens and heads of a number of government departments, to advise and assist him. Purpose of the reorganization, it was annonnced, is to integrate civilian defense activities more closely with those of other war agencies and gear the program more effectively into the war effort.

Selection of Stassen as a member of the board was a recognition, Washington observers reported, of the record made in organizing civilian resources of Minnesota for defense. Months before Pearl Harbor, Stassen began setting up an organization, modelled after plans proposed by the Council of State Governments, of which he is president, to carry on the tasks that might fall to civilians in case the nation should be attacked.

Later local councils of defense were organized as the national program got under way, followed by the recruiting of air raid wardens, victory aides, emergency firemen, emergency policemen and other volunteer groups, blanketing the state with what federal inspectors have said is one of the most effective organizations of the kind in the country.

HIGHWAY PATROL FILES REPORT ON MARCH ACTIVITIES

824 Arrests are Made, 3,658 Motorists Warned for Minor Offenses

Eight hundred twenty-four motorists were arrested for traffic violations by state highway patrolmen during the month of March, and 3,658 warned for lesser offenses.

During the same period the highway patrolmen gave aid to 5,207 motorists, of which 1,306 had to have the help of an officer in making minor adjustments and repairs, and 168 were pulled out of ditches.

The five traffic offenses which contribute most to traffic deaths and injuries in Minnesota caused an average of approximately 100 arrests each. One hundred three motorists were arrested and convicted for excessive speed, an equal number for improper passing, 99 for going through a stop sign or signal, and 85 for driving while drunk. The number arrested and convicted of improper passing was the largest since the end of the heavy traffic season last fall.

The lawless motorists apprehended were assessed a total of $12,353 in fines, of which the 85 drunken drivers paid $5,218, careless drivers, $1,936, and speeders $1,108.

Driving cars with illegal and unsafe equipment resulted in 97 arrests and the issuance of 1,421 "must repair" warning tags. Of these, 1,133 were for illegal or insufficient lights and 23 for illegal brakes. Written and verbal warnings for minor or inadvertent traffic offenses totalled 2,237. The warning ticket leniency is accompanied by the established rule that a second offense will be cause for arrest. As was the case with illegal equipment tags, the largest number of warnings for any one offense were prompted by motorists driving with improper lights. They numbered 520.

HOLDS FIRST DOLLAR HE EVER OWNED

Benson—It is often said of a man that he has the first dollar ever earned but holding the first dollar ever owned is now. Axel R. Johnson of Garfield possesses a Swedish dollar given to him at birth, February 6, 1870. The coin bears the date 1782 so it is now nearly 160 years old. One side bears a picture of King Gustavus III and on the other side, "Fadernesslandet" and the date. It is some larger than the American dollar.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

Every Friday night a bunch of us fellows get together over at Bill Webster's place. We wouldn't miss these weekly get-togethers for anything.

There are seven in the group—Bill Webster, Judge Cunningham, Pete Swanson, Old Doc McGinnis the dentist, and young Doc Mitchell the M.D., the government man Bob Newcomb, and myself.

We don't play cards. We don't sing or carry on.

We just sit quietly and talk—and drink a glass or two of beer.

I guess we discuss just about everything under the sun—politics, business, family affairs, music, farming, hunting, fishing, and what not.

But mostly we like to chew the fat about life's experience and a man's philosophy in these times.

To sort of help out the conversation, we've found mellow beer particularly relaxing. Every one of us likes the tangy taste of beer... and now and then Judge Cunningham insists on ale for everybody.

You mightn't think that just settin' and talkin' would be so much fun. But it is. Particularly when a man begins to get around to the age of reason. Like us.

And it's wonderful how a few glasses of good beer help bring out good talk and good sense when men get together. There's something peaceful and friendly and human about beer that brings out the best in a man.

They call beer the "beverage of moderation." That "moderation" idea is good philosophy... maybe that's why good beer and good fellowship go together so well.

Seems to me there ought to be more of this quiet talk over a glass of beer. It sure straightens out a man in his thinking.

Anyhow, men ought to get together and be friends. That's the way we were made. Why not try it more often—all of you?

LOCAL GROUP GIVES PATRIOTIC SKIT

Federal Reserve Bank Official Cites Necessity for Bond Buying

One hundred fifty bankers representing the greater part of the Ninth congressional district assembled Wednesday evening in the Palm Garden Cafe to hear a discussion of the federal war bond program.

Making up the large group were members of the Northwest and Red River Valley Clearing House associations and war bond chairmen from nearly a dozen counties.

The keynote of the evening's program was sounded by a well-presented skit picturing the development of a patriotic family in war time. Staged under the direction of Mrs. Stanton R. Dahlen the cast included Mr. Dahlen, Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Mrs. L. B. Hartz, Betty Jacobson and Don Collins.

The program was opened by Toastmaster Paul Lundgren, who called on Mayor H. W. Kinghorn for greetings, followed by brief remarks by A. A. Habedank of Ada and Arthur D. Reynolds of St. Paul, state administrator of the war bond campaign, who commended the bankers for their whole-hearted and unselfish cooperation in the drive.

The principal address was given by Harold C. Timberlake, chief statistician with the Minneapolis Federal Reserve bank. Pointing out that in order to win the war, it must first be financed, he told of the tremendous government outlay of money at the present time, and said that it may reach forty billion dollars in the 1942-43 fiscal year.

Stressing the necessity of everyone buying as many bonds as possible, he pointed out that the war effort can be financed only by borrowing or by taxation. In conclusion, he expressed the conviction that the financing problem is within the capacity of the nation.

A meeting of the county war bond chairmen followed the general session.

Registration of Sugar Consumers Set May 4-7

Grade Schools to be Scene of Biggest Similar Task in History

HOURS TO BE FROM 4 TO 6 AND 7 TO 9

Thief River Falls Citizens to be Listed in Alphabetical Order

Making final preparations for the biggest task they have yet undertaken, state and local rationing officials joined this week in asking for cooperation of all citizens in the general registration of sugar consumers, scheduled for next week, May 4 to 7.

Local rationing board officials emphasized a plea made by T. G. Driscoll, state rationing director, outlining the information which each person will be required to furnish when registering and urging that all applicants compile this information in advance in order to save all possible time in registering.

All persons must register or have an application filed in their behalf in order to obtain the War Ration Book, which hereafter is to be essential for the purchase of sugar and possibly other articles which may be placed on the rationing list. Only persons who will not be required to file applications are members of the armed forces who regularly receive their rations from the government and persons, other than temporary residents, confined to public and private institutions whose meals are furnished by the institution.

Registration will be conducted in the public elementary and grade school buildings, with teachers supplying the registration staff, under supervision of the local rationing boards and the city and county superintendents of schools. Each person is to be registered in the school district in which he lives.

Hours set for the registration by the government are from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 p. m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Among the information which applicants must furnish to get a rationing book is a statement of the amount of sugar on hand. In order to start all citizens off on the rationing program on an equal footing, the government has decided to allow a nominal amount of two pounds on hand for a person. For each pound in excess of this, up to four pounds, a stamp will be removed from the ration book to be issued. Ration books will not be issued to persons having more than 6 pounds of sugar, but arrangements will be made later whereby they can get sugar after present supplies have been used up.

4-H HOG PROJECT DETAILS LISTED BY COUNTY AGENT

Project Open to Farm Boys and Girls Aged from 14 to 21

Farm boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 21 still have time to enroll in the 4-H market litter project, says County Agent Ernest A. Palmer, who has just received word from Clifford Cairns, state 4-H club agent, in charge of this activity which fits in with the nation's war effort to produce more pork.

Pigs which may be grades, crossbred, or purebred, must be farrowed between the dates of February 15 and May 15 to be eligible in this project.

Four-H market days will feature this project with members from each section of the state having an opportunity to market their pigs on the same day. New enrollments in this project are being encouraged in all 4-H clubs throughout the state. Members learn to emphasize the importance of large litters of good average weight at weaning time and apply efficient feeding and management practices to produce a ton or more of pork from one litter in 180 days.

Those wishing to enter the market litter project are urged to get in touch with the county agent's office between now and May 15. Complete instructions for carrying out the project will be made available to each enrollee.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN THE CURE

Steps have now been taken to freeze commodity prices at approximately present levels and it is reasonable to assume that there will be much dissatisfaction with the new regulations. That is to be expected, because many people will be adversly affected and inconvenienced by the restrictions that will be imposed upon them. Every reasonable person, however, will admit that price ceilings are necessary if we are to avoid the disastrous conditions that followed the last war and because these regulations are imposed in the best interests of the country as a whole, they deserve the support of all citizens.

Business leaders are objecting to the proposed limits on salaries and profits. Labor leaders are objecting to the proposed limits on wages. Farm leaders are objecting to the proposed limits on the prices of farm products.

The President has suggested that salaries be limited to $25,000, all in excess of that amount, presumably, to be taken by taxation. The President himself comes under this classification, being paid $75,000 a year along with a liberal expense account. It may be a little unfair to some of our business executives and movie stars to arbitrarily reduce their earnings to the $25,000 limit, but with few exceptions they will be able to adjust themselves without undue hardship—less sacrifice certainly than is made by the men who will serve in the ranks. We may take for granted that some of those who have become accustomed to large salaries, including President Roosevelt, cannot live on $25,000 a year and do justice to their positions, but we may also assume that most of those in the top income brackets have laid aside enough in the fat years to tide them over several bad seasons. Because it will satisfy the masses of the people that a few individuals are not becoming rich in this war, we believe the $25,000 income limit is proper.

Objections to the limitations by labor and farm leaders do not, we believe, represent the views of rank and file wage earners and farmers. Labor that is highly organized can offset increased living costs by demanding correspondingly high wages. Rising prices, however, mean reductions in the buying power of the great masses of unorganized labor and the restrictions are definitely favorable to that large portion of labor that is still in the low wage bracket.

Farm leaders are hot under the collar because the president proposes a price ceiling on farm products that will not exceed 100% of parity. The farm leaders are asking for a limit 10% above parity. There may be something in their demands that we do not understand but if parity means what we think it means, equality of buying power, then we can come to only the one conclusion, that our farm leaders are playing politics and are just as unreasonable as some of the leaders of organized business and organized labor. Regulated at parity, farm prices would be permitted to fluctuate with living costs, and if the base upon which parity is figured is right, then no farmer will have cause to complain.

In so involved a program of price control many mistakes are going to be made. It is going to take time to make adjustments, and we doubt that the program can ever be perfected to a point where it will operate without hardship to some individuals and groups. It is justified only by the fact that the emergency has made ineffective those natural forces that tend to keep the economic machine in proper balance. It is acceptable only because the consequence of not regulating prices under the present circumstances is disaster. The ounce of prevention may not be pleasant but it is far less disagreeable than the pound of cure we would otherwise have to take later on.

Not many public meetings are held in the Municipal Auditorium but that does not mean that the building is not being used. We had occasion to spend a couple of hours there Monday evening and there were so many people running back and forth thru the halls that we decided to find out what they were doing. In the auditorium itself three activities were under way at the same time. On the stage, behind drawn curtains, a Women's Club music group was rehearsing songs to be sung at the coming convention of that organization. Out in front young fellows, 45 to 65, were being registered for the draft. Back in one corner a skit was being rehearsed to be presented at the bankers' convention—something to encourage the purchase of defense bonds, we were told. In the council chamber air raid wardens were receiving first aid instruction. In the Legion Club Rooms a committee was ironing out a few details in the plans for the district Legion Convention while in another corner of the room the draft board secretary was checking a tall pile of questionnaires. Back in the Civic & Commerce room a Boy Scout troop was doing its stuff and in the Women's Club room an art group was occupied with some kind of activity—we didn't ask them what. City band members wandered around for a while looking for a place to rehearse but the jail didn't appeal to them so they left in a huff. Two outfits used the kitchen that night, according to the janitor, who seemed to think that Monday night was much the same as any other night of the week. The Municipal Auditorium is being used.

We will miss Hugh Johnson, one of the most colorful of our columnists. We didn't always agree with the General but we did like the way he said things, and, right or wrong, he made an important contribution in the field of news analysis. America owes much to its newspaper columnists and radio commentators of the Hugh Johnson type if for no other reason than that they keep a wary eye on our politicians. In effect they serve as a mirror through which the private citizen, in the comfortable privacy of his home, can keep an eye on the actions of public officials. Sometimes, it is true, the mirrors present a distorted picture, but out of the daily debate among the writers and commentators the average citizen can get a pretty fair idea of what is going on. They serve a useful purpose.

Now that the administration has put the brakes on rising prices, our confidence in the government as a credit risk has strengthened. We will now buy defense bonds and stamps as an investment rather than as a donation, and will so recommend them. Another thing about the news from Washington that has encouraged us is the announcement that taxes are going to be increased. The President acknowledges that it is going to be necessary for us to adjust ourselves to a lower standard of living during the emergency. Most of us have realized this for a long time but until now the administration has walked around with its head in the clouds. We prefer the realistic attitude. The war must be fought to a successful conclusion. If we do not win we will not survive as a free people. If it costs all of our energies and all of our resources to win, the cost of victory will still be less than the cost of defeat. The war is being fought now and now is the time to make the sacrifices. The closer we come to paying as we go, the easier it is going to be to adjust ourselves to a new set of facts when the fighting has ended. And the better will be our chances of retaining the things we are now fighting for.

It may be a little difficult, Mr. President, but if you think it will help win the war Pennington County people will gladly adjust themselves to the $25,000 income limit.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR FORMER RESIDENT

Funeral rites were held at the St. Olaf Lutheran church Monday for Halvor Magnuson, a former resident of this village. Rev. T. C. L. Hanson of Holt officiated and pallbearers were six sons of the deceased: Ilus, Roy, Vernon, Elmer Alvin and Harry. There was a profusion of beautiful floral contributions from relatives, neighbors and friends. Interment was made at Lanstad cemetery in Gatzke where the remains were laid to rest by the graves of a brother and sister, who preceded him.

Halvor Magnuson was born at Preston, June 6, 1876. He passed away at the home of his son, Ilus Magnuson at Thief River Falls on Thursday, April 23. Death came after a short illness, caused by pneumonia and at the time of his passing he was 65 years, 10 months and 17 days.

The deceased spent the early part of his life in southern Minnesota. He was united in marriage at Clarkfield to Lena Westerland on June 15, 1900. Two sons blessed this union, Ilus and Roy. His wife passed away in 1904 after which he came to Clearwater county. He was remarried on December 28, 1907 at Bagley to Olga Lundeen and six children were born to this union.

He began his career as a buttermaker at the Creamery at Olga, continuing at creameries in Weme, Wannaska, Kenmare, N. D., Newing, Grygla and Van Hook, N. D. He lived in Grygla from 1921 to 1920, approximately. After returning from Van Hook, N. D., the family moved to Thurhult in 1933 where they built a home. Here they remained until a few months ago when Mr. Magnuson went to Thief River Falls to be employed as a bookkeeper for the Minnesota Electric Welding Co.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, six sons, Ilus and Roy of Thief River Falls, Alvin of Des Moines, Iowa, Harry of Stanchfield, Elmer of Alamo, Arizona and Vernon of Detroit, Mich.; two daughters, Mrs. Alvina Holthusen of Fourtowns and Mrs. Irene Aninson of Red Lake Agency; one sister, Mrs. Martin Olafson of Gatzke; and twelve grandchildren. He was preceded in death by one brother and two sisters.

Relatives from a distance who were here for the funeral are Elmer Magnuson of Alamo, Arizona, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Magnuson and son of Stanchfield, M. and Mrs. Alvin Magnuson and son of Des Moines, Iowa, Vernon Magnuson of Detroit, Mich., Ray Magnuson and Mr. and Mrs. Ilus Magnuson and family of Thief River Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Aninson and daughter of Red Lake Agency, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Sundeen, Martin Johnson and Gust Lundeen and family, all of Clearbrook, and Charles and Stanley Wahler of Gonvick. Besides this there was a large number of friends and other relatives from Gatzke and Thief River Falls.

John Peterson of LeSeuer visited at the Clarence Peterson home and with other relatives Saturday. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Russel Wentz of Grand Forks.

Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Wallin and sons of Minneapolis were recent week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Wallin's mother, Mrs. B. O. Dolas.

People of this community were sorry to hear of the death of eight year old Dolores Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson of Thief River Falls Tuesday, April 21. The Anderson family were residents of Grygla a few years ago and Clarence Doran, who moved away from here a few months ago, was an uncle of the deceased. Dolores died from a heart ailment from which she had suffered for some time.

Mrs. Emil Boyum went to Warren on Tuesday where she attended a meeting of assessors. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. J. Miller.

WORLD IS LARGE, BUT NUMBERS ARE CLOSE

Wadena—At the end of the rainbow, it is said, is a pot of gold, but just try to come close to it. The registration of Thomas E. and Lawrence Hanson, Wadena brothers, was not a pot of gold, but they came close together after a wide-apart start. On different days in February they registered and their county numbers were 584 and 643. But Uncle Sam would not have it that way—when the national lottery was held they received consecutive numbers of 10,257 and 10,258. Both boys served in the last war.

In Memoriam

In memory of our dear loving husband and father, Ole Thune, who passed away April 30, 1941.

Spring brings us sad memories of our loved one gone to rest.
'Tis hard to believe he is gone.
An angel came and took our dear one away.
His smiling way and pleasant face.
Are a pleasure to recall;
He had a kindly word for each
and died beloved by all.
God grant that we who loved
hand. Sadly missed by Mrs.

Following her graduation from St. Olaf College in 1913 she did postgraduate study in Oslo, Norway, and was a teacher in Norway for some time. Upon returning to this country she taught in Minnesota high schools and while teaching in Thief River Falls was married to Tobias Reep. Mr. Reep and daughter, Barbara, will remain in Northfield until next June, when Mr. Reep will join another daughter, Carol, in Yakima, Wash.

To illustrate one phase of the nation's military production program, an interesting exhibit is now on display at the Northern State bank.

A scale model of this revolutionary airplane, together with photos of some of the manufacturing processes of the plant, also are in the exhibit.

SELECT PROWLER ENTRANTS IN THE MOORHEAD RELAY

Five Lincoln High School Track Men Slated to Compete

Coach Harry Newby has selected Don Olson, Morris, Efteland, Ralph Hunt, Johnny Campbell and Lamar Hanson to represent the Prowlers in the Moorhead State Teachers College Dragon Relays at Moorhead, Friday, May 1st. Don Olson is slated to run the half mile; while Mouse Efteland will enter the 440 yard run; and Hunt, Campbell, and Hanson will run the sprints.

Running on an improvised track on Lincoln field Wednesday afternoon, Olson ran the half in 2:22; Mouse, after taking a spill on one of the turns, was clocked in 1:02 for the 440; and Hunt marked up 28 seconds in the 220 yard dash.

Bruce Biddick, the Prowlers top notch hurdler and a capable sprinter, will not enter the Dragon Relays, as he will compete in the sub-state music contest being held here on Friday and Saturday.

Keeping Score

Thanks, Seniors

The Senior class track team—Bruce Biddick, Don Olson, Ralph Hunt, Ade Magnuson, Guernsey Gjernes, Dale Hovtvet, and Lenny Lorentson—made me look like a reliable prophet by piling up 59 points Friday afternoon to win the interclass track and field championship. I was given quite a scare, though, by the Frosh and Soph outfits for those two teams came up with 47 points each; but the Seniors had too many first-place winners on their squad for the underclassmen. The Seniors either won or shared first place in nine of the twelve events on the program. Biddick, Hunt, and Gjernes scored "doubles", and Don Olson had a first in the 880 and a first place tie in the high jump. Ade Magnuson picked up four points with a tie in the 100 yard dash.

The surprise of the meet was the performance of the Freshman team. The Frosh had been expected to finish in the ruck; but the "greenies" marked up 47 well-earned points to tie the Sophs for second place. That should be a good omen for future Prowler track prospects. Track, according to Coach Newby, is largely a "form" sport, and when you get the youngsters taught the proper method of hurdling, pole vaulting, putting the shot, throwing the discus, etc., then you have the makings of a track team. That's been the reason why the Park Rapids high school has scored such a succession of regional track and field championships. They specialize in the sport, and give considerable polish to the individual members on their squad, with the result that the Park Rapids team has been practically unbeatable in the region.

The Sophomores have a track prospect that gives every indication of developing into a stand-out all-round performer. He's "lanky" Blond Burdell Merritt. In the meet Friday Merritt tied for first place in the high jump, a third place in the broad jump, and third places in the hurdles, and a fifth place in the discus, for a total of 11 points. He has a fine stride, and enough power to make a first rate hurdler; and he has enough speed to run the 220; and all he needs in the broad jump is a bit more coordination in this take-off.

Boloney Golf League Prospects

There has been considerable comment and discussion along La Bree and Third to the effect that the Boloney golf league should be in operation again this year. War Time will give the golfers an added hour of twilight, and it should be possible to complete the team matches in comparative daylight, with the matches getting under way at about 7:00 p. m. It is hoped, too, that business and professional firms in the city could be induced to sponsor teams, somewhat in the manner in which bowling teams are sponsored. Such an innovation, it is believed, would cerate considerable interest and perhaps attract new players. I think the suggestion has merit.

By the way, L. N. B. has enlightened me as to the golf holes I should play if I wished to conserve golf balls, and they aren't holes No.3 and No. 4 as I said last week. No. 3 is fairly safe, but No. 4 is the over-the-pond hole, and that's where the priorities catch up to you. Holes No. 6 and 7 are the center-of-the-course holes, according to Lloyd. And he should know.

Hope They Win Again Next Year

If Cliff Bjorkman will promise me a supper again next year, I'll pick his Bjorkman's Toggery basketball team for the all-city team, and hope that they repeat as city champs next year. Friday night Cliff will reward the members of his team—Bobby DuChamp, Wes Burrell, Jimmy LaFave, Jewell Stadum, Si Kompelien, Babe Peterson, Loren Jung, and Del Daly—with a supper in the Log Cabin. I am to be included in what is commonly termed the honored guests, to provide a contrast, perhaps.

It's doubtful if Cliff will be able to put as fine a team on the floor next year as he had this year. Burrell, Stadum, DuChamp, and Daly will enter service in a couple of months, and several of the other members of the team will be eligible for military service before another basketball season comes around.

It's Lake Trout Time

According to reports received here this week the ice has "gone out" at Crow lake, and a number of the local anglers are preparing for trips up there this week-end. Frank Rinkel, Kern Olson, Helmer Bauman, and Haakon Olson will leave Friday for Nestor's Falls; and on Sunday, if the weather is favorable, J. P. Curtis, Milton and Justus Larson will go up there. The boys will be fishing out of Bob Booren's and Tuss Langlie's Arrowhead Camp. Knowing the kind of silver bait that he's taking along, I have an idea that Kern Olson will return with the largest trout.

PRICES OF FARM COMMODITIES TO REMAIN STEADY

County Agent Cites Report from U. S. Department of Agriculture

While rising consumer incomes may be tapped by higher taxes and war bond sales, domestic demand for farm products is likely to continue around present high levels, says County Agent Ernest A. Palmer, reporting the highlights from U. S. Department of Agriculture reports. This, in view of increasing lend-lease purchases of vital foods, is good news to Minnesota farmers who are engaged in producing large supplies of livestock, dairy and poultry products for the war effort.

No great decline is expected in hog prices despite the large number of hogs to be marketed during spring and summer. Prices during the remainder of the 1941-42 marketing year will depend largely upon consumer demand and government purchases of pork and lard.

Dairy farmers may expect wholesale prices to continue higher for whole milk, and butterfat prices are expected to average higher during most of 1942. Cheese and evaporated milk production is considered adequate at present, but considerable expansion is needed in dry skim milk production. While milk cow numbers are increasing in the western Corn Belt, farmers in this area are increasing hogs and beef cattle much more rapidly. Continuing favorable hog prices are largely responsible for the shift from butterfat to pork production.

Egg prices are expected to continue favorable in view of government purchases and stronger consumer demand. On March 1, the number of layers on farms was 12 per cent larger than a year ago. The expected 6 to 10 per cent increase in turkey numbers over 1941 will provide the largest supply of turkey meat on record. Prices received by farmers for turkeys probably will average higher than in 1941.

Summer Project Work Is Being Carried out by N. W. School Students

Three hundred and seventy-four students enrolled for the regular year at the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston are now aiding directly in our country's war effort, according to Superintendent T. M. McCall. To supplement their formal school of the six winter months, students are required to do summer project work on the farms and in the homes. 285 of the underclassmen are now carrying on project work under the direction of their parents and project supervisors from the school. Summer projects selected by the boys may deal with tractor and field machinery operation, farm buildings, management of farm herds and flocks, feeding of a few or many head of livestock, poultry production, use of fertilizers on field and garden crops, gardening, home grounds beautification, windbreak planting, and collection projects. Project reports are submitted for credit at the opening of the fall term in October.

KITTEN SNOOPY HAS ONLY EIGHT REMAINING LIVES

Redwood Falls—Even though he is still a young fellow, Kitten Snoopy has lost one of the customary nine lives which a cat has. Way back in December when he was a tiny fellow he monkeyed with a lamp cord under the radio, scooped it up in his mouth, gave a good bite and passed out cold as he shorted the circuit. The wires were fused to this teeth and it took some inventive dental surgery on the part of his owner Jim Parsons to loosen them. Who could tell what his future would be, with his fur gone white and his body stiff. But four months later Snoopy's fur is back to its pretty gray and he is as healthy and frolicsome as ever.

POLK COUNTY MAN EXPECTS TO FILE FOR LT. GOVERNOR

Ole A. Flaat, Prominent Farmer, Announces Plans in Crookston

Ole A. Flaat, prominent Polk county farmer and vice president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau federation, Friday night announced plans to file as a Republican candidate for lieutenant governor.

Speaking at a dinner given in his honor in Crookston by the Polk county Ole A. Flaat for governor committee, Flaat praised the policies and administration of Governor Harold E. Stassen, outlined a four-point program and announced his own intentions in these words:

"I wish to state that if the people of Minnesota tender me the same measure of support that you have tonight here demonstrated, and if personal circumstances permit, I will file as a Republican candidate for lieutenant governor this June."

Introducing Flaat, Herman F. Skyberg, chairman of the committee, referred to Governor Stassen's announced plan to resign if re-elected and enter active military service next year and pointed out that "selection of the lieutenant governor is a selection of the man who shall succeed to his vacant office." Skyberg sounded the keynote of the Flaat campaign in the slogan "a farmer for governor."

Flaat is the first man to announce formally for the lieutenant governorship, although Lieutenant Governor C. Elmer Anderson has indicated he plans to seek renomination. Nearly a score of others have been mentioned as possible candidates.

Flaat's four-point program for the progress of Minnesota envisions civilian and military protection, sound government management, new gains in the field of labor relations and expansion in agricultural and industrial development.

1912 FLIVVER STILL COUGHING

Sleepy Eye.—If you don't think a 30-year-old car draws attention these days you should have been around one day recently when William J. Schlacht of Ocheyedan, Sibley County, Iowa, pulled up to the curb. He was driving a car which came off the assembly line at the Ford plant back in 1912 and has been its owner ever since. When queried as to the speed of the vehicle he commented, "I don't go very fast. I'm in no hurry to get to my destination." Later it was noted that after he twisted the crank, jumped into the improvised cab and chugged westward, he was traveling fully 10 miles per hour.

Northwest housewives: Study this application form very carefully. Be sure you can answer every question exactly and fully. A good plan is to fill out this reproduction and take it with you when you go to your nearest schoolhouse on May 4, 5, 6 or 7. Then you won't go wrong when the school teacher who helps prepare your application card asks for the answers.

The Office of Price Administration estimates that it will take only four minutes to fill out the card if you have ready answers. Thousands of school teachers will serve as registrars in the Northwest states—a million and a quarter throughout the nation.

Here are a few important pointers about registering:

1. A separate application must be made for every person for whom a ration book is issued, but only one member of each family unit is to appear at the nearest elementary school to apply for all members of the family.

2. A "family unit" has been defined as "a group of two or more individuals who are living together in the same household who are related by blood or marriage."

3. This means that all other persons in the household—boarders, servants, roomers, permanent guests, etc.—must register if a ration of sugar is to be obtained for their use. These must register in person.

4. Applicants should come prepared with a list of the members of their families, giving the exact name of each.

5. An exact description of each member of the family unit, giving the height, weight, color of eyes, color of hair, age and sex of each one.

6. The person who registers for the family unit must state his or her exact relationship to each member of it. One—and only one—person of the family unit must go to the elementary school to register for the family.

7. It is necessary to know to the pound just how much sugar is in the possession of the household at the time of registering. The amount of sugar will be divided by the number of persons in the family unit and stamps will be torn out by the registrar for all sugar in excess of two pounds per person. If more than four stamps have to be removed, issuance of the rationing book will be withheld until later.

This is the biggest registration job ever undertaken in so limited a time in the United States. Within four days the nation's 130,000,000 men, women and children will be registered and will receive their ration books. The job can be done efficiently, completely and without confusion only if the applicants come prepared to answer all questions promptly and accurately.

Former Local Resident Gives Account of Honolulu Bombing

In an interesting letter, from which the following excerpts are taken, Mrs. Kenneth Whitelaw of Honolulu, Hawaii, formerly Miss Martha Tanem of Thief River Falls, gives a first-hand account of the Japanese bombing of the Hawaiian Islands December 7, 1941, together with conditions existing since that date.

Sunday, December 7th, 1941, dawned very much like any other beautiful morning in Hawaii except that the Northeast Trade Winds had died down during the night and there was an unusual stillness in the air. From our home on the hill there is a sweeping view of the city below, Diamond Head in the distance and miles and miles of blue-green ocean, and as I went out to pick up the milk and morning newspaper I stopped to take a look at the scenery before me. Somehow on this peaceful, quiet Sunday morning it seemed more beautiful than ever.

Through the stillness came a roar of planes overhead which attracted my attention even though we were accustomed to seeing and hearing planes at all hours of the day and night. Watching them for a moment the thought struck me that there were more planes in the squadron than usual and also that the formation was different. Yet I paid little attention and the incident was soon forgotten as breakfast got under way. How little did I guess at the time that these were enemy planes in a sneak attack, bringing death and destruction to thousands of unsuspecting victims.

A gentleman who was staying with us at the time kept looking out the window during breakfast and several times called our attention to the spectacular air activity, remarking, "If those are only maneuvers, they're playing awfully rough this morning." Looking out to sea shortly thereafter we noticed huge geysers of water spout into the air as bombs fell—yet we didn't attribute this to anything out of the ordinary. Heavy clouds of black smoke appeared over Pearl Harbor and through the binoculars we could actually see bombs drop and planes dog-fighting in the skies. A neighbor came up to the door just then and soberly announced that Honolulu was under enemy attack! Of course we did not take him seriously and it was not until the radio was turned on that we were convinced. For the first time I began to realize that the planes I'd seen earlier were those of the enemy coming directly over Diamond Head and making straight for Pearl Harbor.

From that time on there was plenty of activity. Wave after wave of Japanese planes roared through the skies. At times a group of them would dive downward while others raced for their objectives. Apparently each had a certain mission to perform and every second counted. We watched it all spellbound without much thought of personal danger. The sights before us were both horrible and fascinating and most unbelievable. Suddenly it dawned on me that to read about one's impression of a falling bomb is one thing but to have a ring-side seat is quite another matter. Its shrieking wail as it comes whissing through space is most terrifying and you naturally wonder just how close it will drop. The anti-aircraft guns were in full action and we could not only hear them but could see the black puffs of smoke as the shells were released.

In the meantime the excited radio announcer was doing his best to appear calm as he tried to convince his listeners that this was not one of the many maneuvers we were accustomed to watching but that it was an honest-to-goodness enemy attack. He kept repeating, "Now, folks, this is not a maneuver. The City of Honolulu is actually under attack. This is the real McCoy. Be calm. Our armed forces have everything under control, etc." His voice quivered and you could hear plenty of excitement around him.

Shortly thereafter the military authorities began giving instructions to the civilian population. "Stay off the streets, get your car off the street, do not use the telephone except in cases of extreme emergency, seek shelter, boil all water in case of contamination, etc." Then came an urgent call for police officers, doctors, nurses, ambulances, trucks and drivers, disaster squads, defense workers, carpenters, mechanics, as well as for all Pearl Harbor workers to report at once to their stations. An appeal was broadcast to all plantation managers to plow up all open fields to prevent enemy plans and parachute troops from landing.

The Governor came on the air and the poor fellow was so nervous he could scarcely speak, but no wonder for that morning one bomb had landed just outside his home and another in the Palace grounds where his office is located. He declared martial law throughout the Territory after which the Military Governor outlined various restrictions which were to be observed under martial law and ordered civilians to prepare for a complete blackout. This concluded our broadcasts, not only for that day but for at least a week as all stations closed down completely.

Just at that moment several bombs fell in the valley below us, starting fires, one razing a good portion of two blocks consisting of a large Japanese Drug Store and several dwellings occupied by Japanese. Looking through the binoculars toward Waikiki Beach I saw a bomb strike what appeared to be a new apartment house into which a girl friend of mine had just moved the previous day. No fire started but there was a huge cloud of dust or smoke and it was too far away to determine just what damage had been done. It developed later that the bomb struck in the street just outside her apartment, shattering all windows including a large one in her bedroom which sent large splinters of glass through her bed. Fortunately, she had gotten up early that morning to move the last of her belongings and was out when the crash came although she had slept there the night before.

It seemed as if the raid would never end. By eleven o'clock the planes grew more infrequent. No bombs fell on our hill although nearby hills did not fare so well. The fire and smoke over Pearl Harbor grew increasingly worse and we could only guess what was happening for we had no radio, telephone or other means of communication.

By noon it was evident that the enemy had left the Islands. Gradually the neighbors began to "come to" and got together in small groups to talk things over. Evacuees from the various Army and Navy posts began pouring into the city and many came up on the hills to stay with friends. They brought with them many hair-raising tales of what had transpired that morning.

Three Months Later

Needless to say, many changes have taken place in these fair islands during the past three months and we are living a rather unusual existence. Instead of basking in the sunshine at Waikiki, all spare time is taken up with lectures and demonstrations having to do with our common safety and welfare. Courses have been instituted to familiarize the civilian population with first aid, effect and control of various types of gases, incindiary bombs, etc. Everyone is taking a vital interest and you hear few complaints about blackouts and other restrictions. The newspapers tell us we have some 167,000 Japanese living here and of course we can't vouch for what they are thinking or doing but we'd certainly like to cut their number down by at least three zeros.

Since December 7th there's been a complete blackout every single night and very strict curfew regulations. For the first two months we were not allowed outside after six o'clock but now the time has been extended to 7:30. If folks want to do any evening visiting they either have to be home by 7:30 or stay over night which has become quite popular with those who aren't too fond of their own beds. Rigid prohibition has been observed up to the present time. There is a heavy fine for being caught out after curfew hours or for failing to turn off a light. The courts are all under the Provost Marshal and he doesn't waste time nor words in meting out sentences. Gasoline is rationed at 10 gallons per month per car and all headlights on cars must be painted blue. Moving picture theatres operate only during daylight hours. Schools were closed for many weeks but are now in session on a limited basis.

Every Island resident has been registered, fingerprinted and issued an identification card and gas mask which must be carried at all times.

Production Credit Units Help in War Production; Loan $600,000 in March

Production credit associations in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, and North Dakota bolstered the war production effort to their members with more than $600,000 during March. This money was obtained from the associations by farmers for the purchase of feed, equipment and facilities, and of livestock, plus some incidentals conected with the same objective—increasing the output of high-vitamin food. It was the largest draft for that purpose upon the lending facilities of the associations in any one month since records have been segregated showing this use of funds.

About one third of the amount for the month went for the purchase of dairy stock, swine and poultry, the latter including baby chicks. These 3 main items will mean a substantial increase in the amount of butter, cheese, condensed and dried milk, pork and poultry products during the coming season. Added to the $208,000 used for livestock purchases, farmers borrowed $178,000 to buy feed, much of which has gone into the better feeding of dairy cows than is usually followed.

MINNEAPOLIS • MINNESOTA

by Joe Marsh

A few weeks ago, I had occasion to visit some friends of mine in Nebraska.

Nebraska certainly is a great State. I like Nebraska. I like those immense cornfields that seem to stretch from horizon to horizon. (Plenty of wheatfields in Nebraska, too.)

But the thing that interests me most about Nebraska right now is the very important social experiment the beer people started there several years ago.

Beer [illegible] is naturally a beverage of moderation. Yet, all too often, people are inclined to blame beer wrongly for any misconduct of the customer or the proprietor in a place licensed to sell beer.

So, the brewers got together to see what they could do about this. They weren't really responsible for their retailers... in fact, they're not allowed to control retailers. But the brewing industry worked out a plan by which it cooperates with the public authorities to eliminate bad conditions in the minority of places whose conduct would reflect on the law-abiding majority.

The beer people urge proprietors of retail places to conduct them properly and to obey the law. They urge consumers to cooperate, and ask the public generally to report law violations to the authorities. They send warnings to careless retailers and if conditions are not corrected they take the case up with the authorities. Naturally the authorities and the public have welcomed this as an added force in building respect for law and order.

That program is now operating in many states — and with the Nation at war, brewing industry organizations cooperate with civil and military authorities to assure good conditions in beer outlets around the army camps and naval stations.

Somehow, to me, that's a mighty important, public-spirited effort. I don't know of anything like it ever having been tried before. If people really help the brewers with that program they'll be doing a great thing for the country.

WAR BOARD CITES ACUTE SHORTAGE OF SCRAP RUBBER

Points out Patriotic Duty of All Citizens to Salvage Material

"Scrap rubber has now become one of the most needed of all vital war materials," Linus E. Vorpahl, of the bureau of industrial conservation, War Production Board, stated today in an interview.

He further said that reclaimers' stocks of scrap rubber will be depleted in less than four months unless their present supply is replenished. "Rubber items, such as tires, tubes, overshoes and rubbers, bath and scrub mats, garden hose, hot water bottles and ice bags, crepe soles, rubber heels, fruit jar rubbers, and anything made of rubber that has outlived its usefulness should be sent on its way to be reclaimed," he continued. He also pointed out that if every person in the United States salvaged one pound of rubber, the result would be 66,000 tons of scrap rubber.

To further emphasize the need for scrap rubber, Mr. Vorpahl quoted from Amendment No. 6 of March 20, 1942, to War Production Order No. M-15-b which states:

"No person shall, unless expressly permitted by the Director of Industrial operations, destroy, by burning or any other means, all or any part of any rubber tire, casings, tire tubes, waterproof footwear, heels, soles, hose, belting or storage battery boxes, whether these products are worn out or not, which is composed in whole or in part of any kind of rubber." Violations are punishable by a heavy fine, imprisonment or both.

Mr. Vorpahl urges every man, woman and child in Minnesota to concentrate their efforts on collections of scrap rubber. "There is not a great deal of revenue realized to individuals in the collection of scrap rubber, but it is their patriotic duty to cooperate with local Salvage Committees in contributing to this special war effort," he said.

Commode

The term, commode, broadly describes a cabinet or chest that is not large in size and used for storage or as a drawing room piece or for a bureau in a bedroom. The commode may have doors or drawers.

THEY HELP BUILD INCUBATORS TO HATCH ALLIED "EAGLES"!

Down across the middle of these United States is a row of Bomber Plants at points most inconvenient for Hitler, Hirohito & Co. to reach. In early 1941, these huge plants were only gleams in keen American military eyes. Today, on sites where cows grazed and corn and cotton so recently grew, "eagle-incubators" are hatching high-flying, long-range bombers—the kind that carry big loads of anti-axis toxin.

Sure-footed, heavy-duty "Caterpillar" Diesels have done the groundwork to rush these and hundreds of other units of Democracy's Arsenal into roaring all-out production. They're helping America do in months what Hitler hoped would require years. The United Nations' cause depends upon their power today—on a thousand vital fronts.

So, "Caterpillar" Diesels are enlisting as fast as they come off the assembly lines—donning the olive drab or going on top-priority war jobs . . . As dealers, our facilities are dedicated to the job of helping present owners of "Caterpillar" track-type Tractors "keep 'em working" efficiently.

And you folks who want a new one, remember: A "Caterpillar" Diesel is worth waiting for!

VIKING CHILD IS DEATH VICTIM IN BLAZE SATURDAY

Curtis Kezar Loses Life in Fire that Destroys Farm Home

Little Curtis Kezar, aged three years and eight months, was the tragic victim of a fire that destroyed the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kezar, three miles north of Viking Saturday morning at 10:30.

Mrs. Kezar had gone out to the barn to assist her husband in bringing in the milk, and when they returned the house was ablaze. Mr. Kezar made his way thru the flames and rescued a daughter, Florence, lying inside the door, and their baby, Erwin, two months old, but was unable to reenter the house to take out Curtis.

The house was destroyed, and Curtis' remains were found in the ashes Sunday. The cause of the blaze was not ascertained. Two other children, Donald, 6 and Richard, 5, were outside the house at the time of the fire. Florence, who had been overcome by smoke, was released from a local hospital Tuesday.

Funeral rites for Curtis were conducted Tuesday afternoon from the Viking Lutheran church, Rev. H. O. Peterson officiating, and interment was in the Viking cemetery.

Surviving, in addition to the immediate family, are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moen of Middle River.

District Convention of Legion Cut to Two Days

With a view to interfering to the least possible extent with the activities of Northwest citizens in wartime, the program for the scheduled three-day Ninth district convention of the American Legion and auxiliary in Thief River Falls June 13 to 15 was rearranged Sunday to eliminate the third day Monday, June 15.

Action was taken at a meeting of the district executive committee in the Terrace Room of the Rex Cafe. Present, in addition to local Legion and auxiliary committee heads, were Philip Monson of Fergus Falls, district commander, and Al Unger of Fergus Falls, acting district adjutant; Al Berggren of Detroit Lakes, past district commander; and Mrs. Claude Carpenter of Crookston, district auxiliary president.

Under the revised schedule, business sessions will be held Saturday instead of Monday, as originally planned. It is also anticipated that there will be several activities in advance of the convention Friday evening, June 12.

It also was decided to negotiate with the Norwegian consulate for an address at the convention of a prominent representative of the Norwegian government in exile. At the suggestion of Mayor H. W. Kinghorn, the convention committee voted to sponsor the observance of Flag Week starting June 8 and culminating in the observance of Flag Day Sunday, June 14.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

At the girl scout council meeting held last Monday plans were discussed for the camp for the summer. Camp Trowbridge was chosen as the site for this summer's excursion which is planned for some time in July. We hope that it will be possible for all the girl scouts to go to this camp. Those girls desiring to earn money to take them to the camp this year call Mrs. William Korstad who will keep your names on file and help you find part time work.

The council appreciates very much the training Mrs. Orrin G. Lynde has given the girl scouts in the line of home nursing and first aid. She started the first of January and every Saturday afternoon for four months she kept up this work.

Mrs. Hovald K. Helseth, Commissioner of the Girl Scout council, has announced that the following will make up the delegates from Thief River Falls to the Girl Scout regional conference in Aberdeen: Mrs. Hovald Helseth, Mrs. Norbert Holzknecht, Mrs. W. M. Ferguson, Mrs. A. F. Berge, and Mrs. Orrin G. Lynde. The group will join with representatives of local Girl Scout organizations throughout the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, who will meet with officers of the national Girl Scout organization and members of the Girl Scout national staff to discuss war-time activities for Girl Scouts and the opportunities for Girl Scout volunteers to aid their country in its war effort. A two day program of general meetings, discussion groups and training sessions has been scheduled for the delegates, in addition to luncheons, teas, and a banquet.

Champion Autograph Forger

Autograph collectors were easy to victimize 75 years ago. Vrain Lucas sold them letters he composed with a peculiar knack and signed with such names as Columbus, Caesar, Charlemagne—any celebrity whose signature thrilled collectors. He sold nearly 30,000 before his "knack" backfired him into jail.

The Financial and Advisory Board of The Salvation Army is launching the annual drive for funds to support the work of The Salvation Army in the city of Thief River Falls. Plans are carefully laid to contact every business firm and employee that the goal may be reached quickly. The goal will be $1,000.00. In these times of war strain and anxiety the needs of The Salvation Army and the work for them to do is greater than ever before.

CAPT. ART ANDERSON.

LEADING CITIZENS OF THE WORLD ENDORSE THE SALVATION ARMY

The test of any Society founded on Christian principles is to be seen in its redemption of waste humanity and the re-making of men; to this test The Salvation Army is continually responding.—Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

The Salvation Army can make a dollar go farther and work harder in the succour of humanity than any other agency on earth.—Irvin S. Cobb.

When Jap planes sprayed bombs and bullets on Pearl Harbor, and sent this country into war, two armies were under fire—the United States army and The Salvation Army. To be sure, the quarters of Uncle Sam's fighting forces were savagely raked—but so, too, were the quarters of the Salvationists, manning a post established 18 months ago to minister to the military men in the mid-Pacific outpost.

In the last war the Salvation Army carried its work to the front and won the doughboys with its sympathetic assistance. The Salvationists are again at work, on seven fronts with the Allied forces. The work started in World War I continued in World War 2.

THE STAGE IS SET

Hitler's Spring offensive is slow in getting started but it won't be long now. So say the observers who have noted the heavy concentrations of Nazi supplies in Southern Russia, indicating a drive to the Southeast. Objectives will be the oil of the Caucasus; cutting the supply lines over which American and British war materials are being hurried into Russia; and an outlet to the Indian Ocean, which would make available the raw materials of Japan's extended Empire.

In their part of the Axis program the Japs have already succeeded in gaining control of the Burma Road. Objectives are to cut China's principal supply route; gain complete control of Burma oil wells, the principal fuel supply of China and India, and to establish themselves before the monsoon rains add to the difficulties of military operations.

Main hope of the Allied nations this summer will be the ability of Russia to hold the Germans in check, and that is far from a certainty. The pressure will be terrific. Hitler will put all the power he can spare into this one drive for upon its success depends his whole future. If the drive fails, his days are numbered. If he succeeds in reaching the Indian Ocean, the Jap-German combination will be hard to beat.

It was because of the importance of maintaining the supply line around Africa that the British moved into Madagascar this week, risking an open break with France's Laval government. In deciding upon this action the Allied command must have concluded that the loss of this island to the Axis powers would have been a more serious reversal than even the French fleet becoming active with the opposition. Had the Japs been able to establish themselves on Madagascar they would practically have control of all of the Indian Ocean, making extremely hazardous all Allied positions in the Near East.

The stage now seems to be set for the world's greatest battle, a fight in which, for the first time in history, two highly mechanized armies will clash. In all previous campaigns in this war, the Axis powers have enjoyed the initial advantage of surprise attacks and the later advantages of superior equipment. In this coming battle the odds will be more nearly equal. The Russians have demonstrated both their willingness and their ability to fight. They have learned how to meet the tactics of a Blitz campaign. And while the advantage of superior equipment may still be with the Germans, Russia has the advantage of superior numbers of men fighting in defense of their homeland. It will be a tremendous struggle.

Lack of supplies finally conquered the defenders of Corregidor. An army cannot fight on courage alone. Soldiers must have food and medicine and ammunition. After five months of resistance to constant Jap pressure, the battle has been lost. But it is only another battle. The war is still to be won. Many more battles may be lost before we are ready to strike back, but when we do strike the Japs will know they are in a war.

Another ten days of dry weather will be very welcome hereabouts. So far there has been little reason for complaint. In many respects we have been favored this Spring. So many communities are worse off than we are that we really should feel quite grateful. Incidentally, a town in Nebraska reported twelve inches of snow yesterday.

'Chicken Pox!'
Poultry Raisers
Vaccinate your chickens and turkeys for Fowl Pox this summer. It is best to vaccinate birds between 6 and 12 weeks of age. After last year's epidemic, it looks as if pox is here to stay. The spread of infection is almost 100% throughout the poultry population.
Fowl Pox usually shows up in the late summer and fall. An infection will prevent you from marketing your turkeys at the peak of their condition and will rob your laying pullets of many weeks of egg production when egg prices are highest. Death losses are sometimes heavy and feed losses are greater.
The cost of the vaccine and treatment is very reasonable. We will vaccinate your birds for you at a low cost to you. See us in advance for dates, or phone 253.
If you wish to do the job yourself, consult us for advice on proper methods, vaccines and Bacterins. We have a complete line of fresh Fowl Pox and other Vaccines and Bacterins under refrigeration at our plant at all times. New Style in Wartime Transportation

The bicycle with trailer attachment pictured above shows how the ingenuity of one local man solved, for the time being at least, the problem of travel restrictions in war time. Furnishing the motive power for the equipage is L. L. Furan, inventor of this and many other gadgets, while in the caboose is Ernie J. Richards, bound with rake, hoe and lunch box for his victory garden. Mr. Furan hasn't yet got his new device into mass production.

ANGLERS PREPARE FOR MAY 15 START OF PIKE FISHING

Several Factors Give Hint of Better Fishing Than Year Ago

With some factors indicating better fishing than a year ago, fishermen over the state rushed last minute preparations this week for the opening of the season on walleyes, northerns and several other species on May 15.

One of the factors is that lake levels are slightly lower than a year ago, when many fishermen felt high waters were responsible for a drop in early season fishing luck.

While most lakes are in good condition as to level this spring, old timers say that most years when there was a drop in level from the preceding year that fishing improved.

Verne E. Joslin, director of the division of game and fish, reminded anglers that only walleyed pike, saugers or sand pike, great northern pike or pickerel, and muskellunge perch and rough fish may be taken in inland waters on May 15.

In Big Stone Lake and Lake Traverse, waters which form the Minnesota-South Dakota boundary taking of crappies, sunfish, pike, perch, pickerel and bullheads became legal May 1.

The season on crappies, large and small mouth bass, yellow bass, rock bass, sunfish and catfish opens May 29 in the southern zone, and June 21 in the northern zone.

In inland waters, the daily limits are: Walleyed pike, sand pike and pickerel, eight per day and 12 in possession, and muskellunge two per day and two in possession. Inland water limits apply in Big Stone Lake and Lake Traverse.

LOCAL ATHLETES WIN POINTS IN THE MOORHEAD RELAYS

Prowlers Take First Place in Medley Relay Event Saturday

With their anchor man Don Olson running a brilliant half-mile, the Prowlers' medley relay team, composed of Morris Efteland, Ralph Hunt, Lamar Hanson, and Olson, won first place in the medley event in the Class A high school division at the Dragon Relays held on the Moorhead State Teachers College field Saturday afternoon.

The Prowlers, with Mouse Efteland running the 440 yard leg, Hunt and Hanson each running a furlong, and Olson running the half mile anchor leg, marked up a 4:06.2 for the mile. Grand Forks Central trailed the Prowlers to win second place honors; while Moorhead placed third; and Fergus Falls fourth. The Prowlers also scored a fifth place in the Class A 880 yard relay.

In spite of the inclement weather, four records, all in the high school division, were broken. Perham high school's classy relay team set new marks in the Class B 440 yard and 880 yard relays, running the former in 47.7 seconds, and the 880 in 1:42. Dick Hilden, the Moorhead Spuds all-round athlete, set a new high school pole vaulting mark when he soared over the bar at 11 feet, 2 inches. Harold Spillum, of Grand Forks Central, accounted for the fourth record when he leaped 20 feet, 3 inches, to set a new broad jumping mark.

It Seems There Are Only 36 Canines in This City

Contrary to popular opinion, there are only 36 dogs in Thief River Falls. Either that, or their owners don't value them enough to take out licenses for them, for only 36 have been issued to date from the office of City Clerk P. G. Pederson. With the appointment by Mayor H. W. Kinghorn of Rual Rolland as dog catcher, the task of rounding up the delinquent pooches is now getting under way.

DRAFT BOARD HEAD CLARIFIES RULES FOR REGISTRANTS

Men Must Appeal within Ten Days in Case Deferment Is Sought

Owen Olson, chairman of the Pennington county selective service board, today called attention of registrants to some of the regulations that cause frequent questions.

He stated that the registrant should keep himself informed of his classification, and in case he feels that he should have had a deferment because of dependency or occupation, an appeal must be taken not later than ten days from the date the notice was sent out. No extensions, he said, can be granted after the notice to report for induction has been sent out except in case of sickness or death.

Mr. Olson pointed out that the registrant is required to notify the local board of each change of address, change in occupation, change in marital status and any deaths or births in his family.

Registrants also were urged to complete as much of their questionnaires as possible before going to members of the advisory board for assistance.

Central Lumber Company Managers Convene Here

Freezing Temperatures Recorded Here This Week

Temperatures low enough to freeze ice were recorded locally early this week, the mercury dropping to a low mark of 29 Tuesday morning. Nearly an inch of additional rain fell late last week, the power plant rain gauge recording .47 inch last Thursday night and the same amount Friday night. As a result of the recent rains, seeding operations in this locality have been materially delayed.

The first refrigerator car was patented in 1867.

Not Such a Cinch

While coach Lloyd Osborne's Crookston Pirates are favored to successfully defend their 31st district track and field title in the district meet which will be held in the Memorial Stadum at Grand Forks on Sunday, the Pirates aren't the odds-on favorites they were a couple of weeks ago. The Prowlers have responded favorably to coach Harry Newby's intensive practice schedule, and as a result the boys in the blue-and-gold are apt to give the Pirates quite a tussle.

Both squads, the Pirates and the Prowlers, have district champions in their line-up. Crookston will rely on Bill Ericson in the 100, 220, and the broad jump; on Don Mortenson in the high jump and the pole vault; and on big Keith Thorson in the shot put and the discus. At 5 points for each first place, these three Pirates accounted for 35 points last year. The Prowlers will have Bruce Biddick in the high and low hurdles, and Don Olson in the half-mile run, which should give the locals 15 points. If all these athletes repeat as champions this year, and they should, it means that the Prowlers will have to pick up enough second and third place points to erase that 20-point advantage. The Prowlers, with their 21-man squad, should account for a number of seconds and thirds but if they can get enough of them, that's the question.

The Prowlers did well at the Dragon Relays on Saturday, winning the Class A high school medlay. Don Olson, who ran a fine half-mile, deserves pretty much of the credit for the win. Ole was in sixth place when he received the baton, but the powerful Prowler senior ran the other half-milers into the dirt to cross the finish line about 10 yards in front of the run-up. Don, who ran the half in about 2:10, says that he could have sliced a couple of seconds off his time if he had had to do it.

I guess the most entertaining feature of the meet was the sight of short, chunky Mouse Efteland running the 440 yard leg against two long, lanky opponents. They were clubbing Mouse on top of the head with their elbows. But the "Squeaker" ran a dandy quarter mile.

Among the Missing

Homer "Ace" Gilbertson, Roseau golfer who has participated in a number of tournaments here and who is well-known to the local golfers, is reported as being "missing in action" on Bataan peninsula. There is a possibility, though, that he has been taken prisoner. "Ace" was a member of the Marines, belonging to a machine gun unit, and had been transferred to the Manila area in December.

Just a Reminder

To all the anglers who are planning a jaunt into Canada. If you have registered for selective service it is necessary for you to secure permission from the local draft board before you can leave the country. Omission of this technically may cause considerable trouble and inconvenience at the border.

And you will have no difficulty in getting an outboard motor across the line. In fact, they will even permit you to bring a camera; but on your return all undeveloped film is taken by the customs officials and sent to Washington for developing and inspection. The gas ration restrictions, though, are pretty severe in Canada.

Wanted: Ball Players

Team manager Helmer Ole Ness announces that practice sessions are being held every evening on the fair grounds diamond, and that all candidates wishing to try out for the team are welcome. Ole especially would like to have a couple of curve ball hitters put in their appearance at the park.

It's apparent that Henleen "Buttercup" Nornes, the rookie of 1941, still has that 1941 batting weakness—a straight ball right down the middle, cutting the heart of the plate, and waist high.

Fishermen's Luck

Helmer Bauman, Frank Rinkel, and Kern Olson returned Sunday from Crow lake, with the cold weather cutting short their stay at the lake. Helmer and Frank, fishing a short while on Saturday, and using K-B and Hofschneider spoons, caught seven fine lake trout. The trout averaged about seven pounds apiece.

Oscar Ellingson and Cliff Overum returned Wednesday evening from a three-day Crow lake fishing trip, and they reported fine luck. Oscar and Cliff made most of their catches while trolling a Colorado type spinner baited with a shiner minnow. The largest trout in their catch weighed a bit over ten pounds, and that's a nice catch.

Sportsmen's Meeting Attracts Big Turnout

The May meeting of the Pennington County Sportsmens club Tuesday evening attracted a large turnout. Progress of the crow hunt was discussed, and plans were made for a start of trapshooting at an early date. An excellent lunch was served.

County Farmers Support Wheat Marketing Quotas

The referendum held in Pennington county Saturday on the question of retaining the wheat market quota system resulted in 117 affirmative votes while five voted No, and six ballots were challenged because of irregularities, it was announced today by Carl R. Anderson, county AAA chairman.

Highway Department Issues Report for First Three Months of 1942

A report for the first three months of 1942 issued by the safety division of the state highway department to Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann, reveals several very interesting facts.

An analysis of 27 of the motor-vehicle traffic accident fatalities for the first three months of 1942, occurring on trunk highways outside of municipalities show the following:

Of 31 drivers involved in 27 accidents, four were listed in the age group of 20 years or under; nine in the group 21 to 24; eleven in the age group 25 to 44; and seven in the age group 45 to 64. No driver over 65 years of age was involved in any of these accidents.

The report also shows that in ten cases excessive speed was the major contributing factor and shows that although many drivers have voluntarily reduced their driving speeds and are showing a due regard for their own and others safety, the accident death rate has not decreased, and that all drivers should show more patriotism and thereby contribute to safety on our highways by voluntarily driving slower.

In six cases where only one vehicle was involved, the report shows that these drivers simply ran off the road. This was perhaps caused by such things as, falling to sleep at the wheel or permitting the vehicle to get out of control. In other cases where two or more vehicles were involved there were such items as a driver having stopped on the roadway and not on the shoulders as required by law and were run into by a second car. In four cases one car had stopped where it should not have, and the other car involved was driving too fast.

Of the 27 accidents analized in this report, 33 persons lost their lives. Of these four were pedestrians, 12 were passengers and 17 were drivers.

BRING IN AN OLD BATTERY FOR NEW

Purchasers intending to replace their old automobile batteries this year will have to bring in the old one before the dealer can turn over a new one. This has been ordered by the War Production Board in connection with an order curtailing production of new batteries. The program, northwest War Production Board officials said, is aimed at turning 23,000 tons of lead and huge supplies of other critical metals and rubber into war production. The number of models was dropped from 75 to 15 and retailers were instructed to carry only a 45-day supply on hand at any time.

A 10-inch phonograph record contains about two ounces of shellac, which is the amount that goes into the manufacture of one military signal flare.

CONSTRUCTION ON FARMS PERMITTED IN CERTAIN CASES

Prospective Builders Asked to Contact County War Board

Applications for authorization to begin farm construction restricted by WPB Conservation Order L-41 will be filed with County USDA War Boards for review and recommendation, Charles W. Stickney, Minnesota USDA War Board and AAA chairman, announced on Saturday.

"Although all details concerning the steps necessary to obtain permits for country construction are not available at the present time, it can be announced that farmers who wish to construct farm homes costing more than $500.00 or more than $1,000.00 for other farm buildings should contact the County USDA War Board where the construction is contemplated for further information before going ahead with plans," Mr. Stickney said.

"County USDA War Boards are charged with the responsibility for stopping non-essential agricultural construction during the duration of the war," Mr. Stickney said. "In addition to farm construction, county USDA War Boards will have the responsibility of reviewing and recommending construction of off-the-farm, agricultural processing and storage facilities."

Mr. Stickney pointed out that some of the factors that will be taken into consideration by county USDA War Boards in reviewing and recommending permits for construction of farm buildings are:

1. Whether the construction is essential to meet agricultural production goals for the farm.
2. Whether the amount of scarce materials to be used has been reduced to a minimum.
3. Whether construction is consistent with sound agricultural practices.

The State USDA War Board has requested all county USDA War Boards to review and make recommendations on all emergency applications that have been submitted since the conservation order was announced.

EVEN POLICEMEN MAY PAY FINES

Luverne—Four drivers appeared in municipal court recently to pay fines for parking near fire hydrants in this city, and believe it or not one of the four was none other than policeman P. J. Ryan. The car which he had parked near the hydrant was the city police patrol car.

RRV DEVELOPMENT GROUP CONTINUES 4H TREE PLANTING

Valley Association Offers $100 Awards for Windbreak Planting

A grant of $100 for prizes in 4-H club tree planting for 1942 has been made by the Red River Valley Development association. In announcing the 1942 prizes, T. M. McCall, president of the association, states "The board of directors of the Development Association was unanimous in its approval of continuing the windbreak awards for 1942. Reports from District Club Agent H. A. Pflughoeft indicated prizes offered have encouraged from fifty to one-hundred Boys and girls each year to establish windbreaks on prairie farms."

The rules governing the 1942 contest permit 4-H club members and students from Agricultural Schools enrolled in windbreak projects to qualify for prizes. An enrolled member of the tree planting project may grow 500 or more young trees from cuttings or seeds, or transplant 500 or more young seedling trees to nursery rows or plant 500 or more trees in the farm windbreak.

Windbreaks established since the inauguration of the development association prizes seven years ago are now growing effective shelter to farm homes. Evergreens such as Colorado blue spruce, broad-leafed trees, and hedge plants are being distributed now to the 1941 winners in the tree planting projects.

Black Hills Ordnance Depot Requires Workers

The U. S. Civil Service Commission is recruiting inspectors (general construction), inspectors (safety), surveymen, and rodmen and chainmen for employment at the Black Hills Ordnance Depot, Edgemont, South Dakota. Salaries for these positions range up to $2300 per year, with time and one-half paid for work in excess of 40 hours a week. Full information regarding these positions may be obtained from Gundet Legvold, local secretary at the Thief River Falls postoffice.

Many Seek State Park Superintendent Posts

The positions of state park superintendent and custodian are mighty popular this spring. When a state civil service examination was announced for seven positions as custodian, paying $90 a month to start, and three for superintendent, paying $120, more than 300 persons filed. Of the total, 201 passed the written examination, and 166 were interviewed. The oral part of the examination counts approximately 30 per cent in the final rating.

Travel on Highways Decreases in March, State Office Reports

Traffic on Minnesota trunk highways, as indicated by automatic recorders operated by the highway planning survey, was 11.5 per cent less in March, 1942, than in March, 1941, and 6.7 per cent less than in March, 1940. Since road and weather condtions generally were better this year than in 1941, the drop in traffic is ascribed to an increasing tendency to conserve vehicles and tires during the national emergency. Traffic in February was 6.5 per cent less than in February, 1941, while January showed an increase of 2.2 per cent over the same month last year.

Only three of the automatic recorders in operation in March, including one on U. S. Highway 2 at Bagley, showed increases over March last year, while seventeen showed decreases. Local road and weather conditions, industrial activity and special events contribute to local increases or decreases, but the average for each of the three years for the twenty stations, widely distributed over the state, is considered a good indication of traffic trends. The counters are of the photo-electric type which record the number of vehicles passing each station each hour throughout the year.

1040 Bicycle Riders Killed in U. S. in '41

National traffic accident records show that 1,040 bicycle riders were killed and 49,000 others injured in traffic last year. Of these fatalities, 520 were children between the ages of 5 and 14 years. Federal authorities estimate that there are now 8,000,000 bicycles in use in the United States and that, because of wartime restrictions upon motor vehicles, tires, and gas, more adults are riding bikes and are riding them more consistently than ever before in the nation's history. The number of bicycle riders may reach the all time high mark of 12,000,000 this summer.

URGE INCREASE IN GRAIN STORAGE ON MINNESOTA FARMS

Terminal Facilities Taxed to Capacity, Says PCA President

With terminal and other warehouse facilities for wheat already crowded to the bursting point in most areas, and with a record carry-over of 630 million bushels and a prospective new crop of around 800 million bushels, there is going to be a tremendous shortage in the storage capacity of the country, according to a letter just received by George Susens, president of the Production Credit corporation of St. Paul, from A. G. Black, governor of the Farm Credit Administration.

Governor Black urges wheat growers to "start right away to build storage bins on their farms, for a large part of this year's crop will back up on farms and not move in the usual channels to terminal elevators in the usual way." He points out that "there are enough nails and lumber to build all the farm storage that is needed, provided farmers begin the work immediately. If they do not start now, but wait until the last minute before building their storage bins, there will not be enough nails and lumber in the right places at the right time to complete the job."

Governor Black points out that if the quotas are continued they will help farmers to keep excess wheat on their own farms and the 7 cents per bushel storage allowance will be available if the quota-loan system is continued. This allowance will help farmers to finance the needed farm storage space.

Mr. Susens states that eligible farmers who have adequate security for loans also may obtain assistance in the financing of the building of farm storage from production credit associations.

National Waste Paper Campaign Is a Success

So much waste paper has been gathered up in the Salvage for Victory campaign that paper mills scattered the country over are now able to meet all current orders, the bureau of industrial conservation said today. Only a few months ago many of the mills were on the verge of shutting down because of a lack of waste paper. The bureau is now looking for public support for a campaign to bring scrap rubber into salvage operations. Old tires, inner tubes, hot water bottles, rubber bath mats, old raincoats, rubber jar rings—they and many similar items can be found in nearly every home.

Many Jobs Await U of M Graduates This Spring

Overwhelmingly large percentages of students to be graduated this June from engineering departments, chemistry, the School of Business Administration and the College of Education of the University of Minnesota will have jobs before they receive their diplomas, a check-up of three departments reveals. Business and engineering graduates will find posts approximately 100 percent, and there is an admitted shortage of teachers. Not all of the jobs offered will be in lines that the government considers cause for occupational deferment, but a great many of them will be. Proportions of graduates placed have been increasing each year since the spring of 1938 and in percentage figures, at least, the number of those placed this year will probably hit an all-time high.

Locals Have Narrow Escape

When Manuel Hanson returned home recently he had a hair-raising story to tell of a narrow escape from a fatal automobile ride. Mr. Hanson was accompanying Abel Stanel, also of this community, on a trip to the state of Washington, where the pair planned to seek work. The men had reached a place near Whitefish, Montana, where the road passed through mountainous country. Abel Stanel, who was driving suddenly noticed something wrong with the car, which could neither be steered nor stopped. They were approaching a turn in the road and below was a sheer drop of one hundred and fifty feet. Thinking quickly, Mr. Stanel opened the door and jumped to safety, shouting to Mr. Hanson to follow. The latter quickly followed, just in the nick of time, getting his trouser leg tore by a fender as the machine plunged over the precipice. The men took a trail to the ravine where they found the smashed vehicle, a total loss except for the tires. They gathered up their scattered clothing which had been packed in suitcases and considered themselves very lucky to be alive. Mr. Stanel continued to Washington by bus while Mr. Hanson is back home.

From where I sit . . .

by Joe Marsh

MAYBE I shouldn't admit it, but there are a few things about this writing job I really like.

F'rinstance, I like the part where . . . after all the writin' and the routine is done . . . I just set back and think about things in general. (Oh, yes, that's part of the job, too.)

Doesn't matter much what I think about. Sometimes I concentrate on one thing. Sometimes I think of lots of things, one right after the other.

Usually, when I get to thinkin', I send down for some beer. Seems a glass of beer not only touches the spot but it also sort of helps the thinkin' mood along.

It's such a peaceful, friendly beverage. Sort of honest and human. And it tastes good.

I like to hold my glass of beer up to the light and look through it. That beautiful, golden-amber color kind of fascinates me. Reminds me of the sunny barley fields where beer gets its start.

After all . . . when you stop to think about it . . . beer is a simple, natural thing. I read somewhere that all it's made of is good, wholesome farm grains and water and a little yeast . . . with hops for flavor. Nature's process of fermentation and the age-old art of the brewer does the rest.

I guess that's why beer is so wholesome. It really is the beverage of moderation. You just can't imagine anybody getting into trouble drinking a few glasses of beer.

Well, here I am . . . going on and on thinking and talking about beer. Probably could go on for hours. That's the way I am when I set back and get to thinking about things.

And by the way, taking it easy and "just thinkin'" is fun. Try it sometime . . . quiet and comfortable like.

THIS IS THE STORY OF CARBOLOY

How a Most Strategic Material of the War—Invented in Germany—Was Made Available to the United Nations

More Precious Than Diamonds in War Production . . . Carboloy is an American trademark for cemented tungsten-carbide, an alloy second only to diamonds in hardness, more precious than diamonds as a vital material in America's war program. It is used for the tips of cutting tools, and for wear-resistant dies. Carboloy is used in small quantities; it is difficult to make and difficult to use—but it has never been scarce in modern times. There is no scarcity now.

Invented in Germany—Krupp Protected by U. S. Patents . . . Cemented carbide was invented in Germany—it belonged to Krupp of Germany, and this made all the rest of the world Krupp's customer. In this country, Krupp was protected by patent grants from the United States.

General Electric Creates Independent Production . . . The General Electric Company two years before this had begun research on tungsten-carbide and foresaw its importance in industrial production. For immediate use in its own plants and for easier availability to others, General Electric undertook the long and arduous negotiations for the American rights. Limited rights were obtained in 1928, with Krupp continuing to export the material to its United States customers—a business which languished, however, as General Electric painstakingly developed its own Carboloy technique. This paved the way for General Electric to make the United States entirely independent of Germany for its cemented tungsten-carbide supply as early as 1935.

American Tool Costs Half That of German . . . From the start, two totally different businesses were involved. Krupp originally exported cemented carbides in chunks—and was unsuccessful. General Electric—and its subsidiary, Carboloy Co., Inc.—found it necessary to develop a complete engineering and manufacturing service, making various types of Carboloy equipped tools, training men in their use, and offering to its customers a specialized and successful production technique. For purposes of fair comparison, a typical German cemented carbide tool in 1928 cost $22.26 in the United States, while a comparable American Carboloy tool cost $11.11.

Loss to General Electric for Many Years—Art Taught to Industry . . . In times of peace—and 1928 was such a time—the measure of success of industrial adventure is to be found in profit to the adventurer. By such a measure, Carboloy could not be called successful. Initial expenses were great. For a time the Company lost at the rate of $1300 a day, and once had an operating deficit of more than a million dollars.* One of the major contributing reasons was the continuing high cost of development, standardization, and training. In 1938-39 alone, training courses were given to [illegible] men in industry. Moreover, six major price reductions were made in the face of operating losses, until the standard tool blank had been reduced in price 93 per cent.

Faith and Perseverance . . . Depression was still another reason—labor-saving tools could not be sold to industry or labor at any price. But General Electric, with determination that now seems providential, kept on—increasing its capacity, granting new licenses, condoning instances of unlicensed production, staying ahead of its market.

Production Multiplied Forty-five Times in Four Years . . . Cemented tungsten-carbide could easily have been a source of weakness here, as it was in England, had it not been for General Electric's policy of continued expansion. In 1938, the production of the Carboloy Company was less than 20,000 lbs.; in 1940, it was 62,000 lbs.; in 1941, it was 161,000—and in December came Pearl Harbor. Now, in 1942, the Company's production is going at a rate that is 45 times that of only four years ago.

Britain Dependent upon Us . . . By contrast, British companies, which had been content to continue as customers of Krupp, found themselves cut off from the vital material when Poland was invaded. But the General Electric Company was able to supply substantial quantities to British industry immediately and since then has continuously filled British orders. It has, in like manner, filled Canada's requirements since 1936. It is currently supplying Canada, Russia, and other United Nations. All this in addition to supplying the greatly expanded needs of American industry.

An Inspirational Story of American Industry . . . Thus, the story of Carboloy does not end in "too little and too late." Like many previously untold stories of American industry, it continues, a sturdy and inspiring example of public service born of private enterprise, and characterized by hard work, ingenuity, investment, research, risk, and courage—a familiar pattern on this side of the Atlantic. General Electric Company, Schenectady, New York.

*Over the entire period of its existence up to January 1st, 1942 the total net profit of the Carboloy Company was 2.5 per cent of sales.

COUNC[illegible]'S 7 RECREATI[illegible] UNIT MEMBERS

Appointments Made to Complete Personnel of New Board

ASK STATE BOARD TO STUDY WATER SUPPLY

Vote $100 Additional to the County Fair for 4-H Premiums

The city council at a lengthy May session Tuesday evening confirmed the appointment of seven men to the city recreation board created by an ordinance enacted that evening, and acted on a wide variety of other matters that came up for consideration.

Of the seven appointees, four were named by Mayor H. W. Kinghorn to represent the city at large, including Bill LaFave and Ole Engelstad for three-year terms, W. E. Dahlquist for two years and T. M. Thronson for one year. Named by the council on the board was Dr. A. R. Hulbert, while the park board appointed Lawrence Bjorkman and the board of education appointed Supt. Morris Bye.

Mr. Dahlquist appeared in behalf of the county fair board to ask an increased appropriation for the county fair this year as compared to the 1941 grant of $400, explaining that the added money would be used exclusively for the payment of premiums in the 4-H department. With this understanding, the council voted an appropriation of $500.

Bill LaFave announced that the local voiture of the 40 & 8 had applied for a boxing franchise for Thief River Falls, and asked the council to give the required approval, which was granted when it was explained that no responsibility on the part of the city would be involved.

T. M. Thronson of the arena management committee informed the council that the concrete floor of the arena is in poor condition, and recommended the installation of a new layer of concrete. The matter was laid over for further investigation.

Three bids were opened on the installation of a tile floor in the municipal power plant building, and the contract was awarded to the Dunlop-Moore company of Duluth on its low bid of $1,500.

A resolution was adopted at the suggestion of Dr. O. F. Melby, city health officer, requesting the state board of health to make a survey of the local water supply situation.

The salary of the city assessor was set at $150 per month, this amount to include the services of whatever deputies may be needed to complete the work.

Alderman A. B. Stenberg was elected vice president of the council, succeeding the late John Baker.

RELIGIOUS SURVEY TO BE CONDUCTED IN CITY MAY 19TH

Will Supply Data on Church Affiliations of Local Residents

A religious survey covering every family unit within the city limits will be conducted by a committee of 75 women from Trinity Lutheran church next Tuesday, May 19th. Mrs. Thora Steinhauer, Mrs. Gaston Ward and Mrs. Joe Dostal, Jr. are the committee in charge of the survey, which will attempt to present a picture of the church membership of the city and to facilitate the work of the churches among those who express some church preference.

Rev. G. S. Thompson, pastor of Trinity Church, stressed the fact that data collected on the cards by the committee will be allocated to the various churches of the city as preferences are expressed. In that way the local church rolls may be brought up to date and a foundation laid for more efficient work.

"In similar surveys that have been made in other communities", Mr. Thompson said, "the national ratio of church membership to the unchurched has been borne out by the survey. It will be interesting to discover the ratio in our city."

The work of the survey committee will be completed this week and reports turned into the central committee on Friday. Rev. Thompson requests that everyone cooperate in this survey by permitting the canvassers to ask their few, simple questions.

STATE CHIEF CITES DUTIES IN WARTIME

Mrs. P. F. Fountain, Ninth District President, Conducts Session

At the principal session of the 42d annual convention of the Ninth district federation of women's clubs in this city Monday afternoon, at which more than 100 visiting club women were in attendance, Mrs. L. R. Upham, president of the state federation, called attention to the responsibilities of women in wartime, and the annual election of district officers was conducted.

With the president and first vice president holding over for another year, those elected include Mrs. Jacob Bigg of Ada, second vice president; Mrs. E. W. Reike of Bagley, secretary; Mrs. Joseph Linster of Crookston, treasurer; and Mrs. C. W. Verschek of Thief River Falls, historian.

The convention accepted the invitation of East Grand Forks club members to hold the 1943 convention in that city.

Pointing out that the war can be lost, Mrs. Upham declared in her address that the outcome depends on what each individual is willing to do to help gain the victory. Women, she said, have a vital part in the war effort, and can be depended on to respond to the call.

She counseled her hearers to cooperate in reducing family expenditures in order to buy more war bonds and pay increased taxes; to join some branch of the Red Cross; to write letters to the boys in military service and help keep up their morale; and to cooperate in the salvage campaigns and with the work of the Victory Aides.

The first speaker introduced by Mrs. P. F. Fountain of Moorhead, who presided, was Rev. W. W. Kloose of Moorhead, who discussed spiritual trends in our democracy. He said he had noted signs

MINN. DRAFT BOARD CITES CASE OF MEN WITH DEPENDENTS

Many in That Class Eventually to be Inducted, Says Nelson

A warning that many selective service registrants who are being deferred from military service solely because they have dependents may eventually be inducted was issued today by Colonel J. E. Nelson, state director of selective service.

"We are rapidly approaching the stage where everyone must be working or fighting to win the war," Colonel Nelson said. The demand for manpower by essential industries may compel many local boards within the near future to find selectees for their quotas among registrants who have dependents.

Local boards are now reconsidering all registrants with dependency deferments for two major purposes. The first is to retain in this class only those men who can prove that their dependents need their earned income for support in a reasonable manner and those who can prove that they did not acquire dependents merely to avoid military service. The second purpose is to distinguish between men with dependents who are not engaged in essential activities, and those who are contributing for victory by their work as necessary civilians.

By making this distinction between those engaged in essential activities and those whose civilian occupations are not contributing to the war effort, it is desired to encourage a voluntary movement of the latter group into essential activities. This will result in the release for military service of men without dependents who must be deferred as "necessary men" until they can be replaced at their work.

Persons engaged in nonessential activities, however, should not cease their present employment until their services are needed in some essential activity, it was emphasized.

The federal government will make known, from time to time, the opportunities for training and employment in activities essential to the war effort so that this shift of employment may be made without unnecessary disturbance to the welfare of the community, the family, and the individual.

When men with dependents are considered for military service, it was pointed out, local boards will have regard for occupation together with the degree of dependency. Registrants who are employed in essential industries and who have the greatest degree of dependency, such as a dependent wife and children, will be the last group sought for military service.

H. S. GRADUATES BEING REGISTERED FOR NYA TRAINING

Purpose Is to Fill Vacancies in Several Defense Projects

High-school graduates, as well as other young people who wish to find a place in America's industrial war effort, this week were urged to register with the United States employment service for possible referral to NYA work defense training centers.

Leonard H. Ryan, director of the USES in Minnesota, said 1,400 youth—including 1,120 boys and 280 girls—had been placed in jobs with war industries after completing NYA training since July 1, 1941. Placements have been speeded up in the last 90 days, he added.

The director said openings now exist for NYA defense work trainees in a variety of skilled occupations at four work defense projects and three defense resident centers. Youth graduating from Minnesota high schools this year were urged to register immediately at the nearest office of the United States employment service in Minnesota.

Work experience and training at the centers includes: machine shop, welding, sheet metal, radio, forge, aviation service, pattern making and joinery, industrial sewing, auto mechanics, and related types of work, all of which are in demand by employers in the war industries.

Non-resident training is offered at Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth and Winona. Resident centers are located at Glenwood, Shakopee and Duluth.

The NYA defense projects are open to youth from 17 to 25, who are out of school and unemployed. They work 80 hours per month on NYA production and take organized shop training for 80 hours. This experience and training usually prepares them for jobs in about three months.

Auxiliary Notes

"Wearing a poppy is a pledge that we will not break faith with those who have died defending America", said Mrs. Esther Plough, president of the Elmer J. Ecklund unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, as the unit prepared for the annual observance of Poppy Day Saturday, May 23.

"The poppy comes to us from the fields of France where Americans first gave their lives in battle against the dictator powers", continued Mrs. Plough. "We wear this little red flower in honor of the men who fell at Belleau Woods, Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel, the Meuse-Argonne and other battles of the first World War. We wear it also in honor of the brave boys of Pearl Harbor, Wake, the Philippines, the East Indies and all those who have sacrificed life elsewhere in this renewal of the conflict.

"The poppy, as you know, was inspired by the poem, 'In Flanders' Fields' with its immortal lines: 'In Flanders' fields the poppies blow, Between the crosses, row on row.' The poppies were the only touch of beauty that survived amid the desolation of the battle front in France. They formed the only floral tribute on the graves of the dead and became for the men fighting there a symbol of heroic sacrifice. The poem ends with the words: 'If ye break faith with us who die, We shall not sleep, though poppies grow in Flanders' Fields.'"

Paper poppies, made by disabled veterans of the First World War, will be distributed throughout the city on May 23 by the women of the Auxiliary. In exchange for them the Auxiliary will receive contributions for its welfare work among the disabled, their families and the families of the dead of both war.

THIS IS FORESIGHT!

Ortonville.— A local jewelry store is experiencing sales of a kind never before known to it. A farmer recently walked into the store, selected a watch, paid for it and then said, "Now put that in your safe and keep it until May 1947." That is the date his son graduates from high school. Soon after that another man came in and purchased a watch as a Christmas present for his wife.

John Havel's light went out yesterday. In years of service in the craft, John was this community's oldest printer and in the days of our years as publishers of the Times, he has been the Old Faithful of the shop. As a compositor he had an unusual knack for style and under conditions more favorable to self expression in the selection and arrangement of type he probably would have distinguished himself in a trade that is also an art. Painstaking in his work, considerate of those who worked with him, and always willing to do more than his bit, John contributed much to the "paper" of which he had so long been a part.

LOOSE PRACTICES

Uncle Sam is generally pretty fussy about how his money is handled. That's why it seems strange to us that he is so careless in the method he has adopted in the collection of one of his taxes. In Thief River Falls alone several dozen citizens are collecting revenue for him and are mailing it in to him once a month. They are not bonded. They keep their records in whatever way they choose. And, as nearly as we can determine, Uncle Sam has no way of knowing whether or not they make honest reports. Over the country as a whole there are hundreds of thousands of these revenue collectors, and it is reasonable to assume that not all of them are honest.

The revenue collectors we refer to are the thousands of merchants and their employees who sell cosmetics and jewelry. In Thief River Falls cosmetics and jewelry are sold in a couple of dozen stores and beauty shops. When a sale is made a 10% tax is added to the regular selling price. At the end of the month this is mailed in to the revenue department with a simple statement in which is certified the amount collected. Apparently the government has no way of knowing or finding out whether or not the report is correct.

The looseness of this method was called to our attention by one of the dealers who collects these taxes. He remembered way back when similar taxes were collected during the Spanish American war. Dealers then were required to buy special stamps at the post office and affix the right amount of stamps to each article that was sold. The post office handled the money and the merchants handled only the stamps, while the purchasers who paid the tax, then as they do now, knew that they had paid the proper amount and that their contribution to the war effort would be properly accounted for.

Uncle Sam very properly insists that we put a postage stamp on each letter we mail. The post office authorities would not think of permitting us to mail our letters without stamps on the assumption that at the end of the month we would tell them how many letters we had mailed that month and pay them the proper amount. But that, in effect, is what the Treasury Department is now doing in the collection of these sales taxes. Seems strange for Uncle Sam to handle his affairs in that way, doesn't it?

A GREAT SPEECH

Prime Minister Churchill delivered a speech Sunday that probably meant as much for the United Nations in their conduct of the war as would have meant a major military victory. To the armies of Russia, who have reason to fear Hitler will resort to the use of poison gas against them, his speech brought assurance that Germany would suffer equally with other nations if this method of warfare were adopted. And fear of that consequence is the only consideration that will keep it from being used. In this speech Churchill spoke with a new confidence. That the things he said must have been disconcerting to the Axis powers is indicated by the extent to which they misinterpreted his speech in their reports.

One of the things that deserves more consideration by all of us was his statement on the Madagascar expedition. He called attention to the fact that this expedition had been ordered more than two months before its purpose was finally accomplished. During that period of waiting the people of Britain were demanding that the government do what it had already ordered done. He expressed the uneasiness these demands had caused him because of the fear that the public clamor for such action would induce the Japs to speed their plans for the occupation of the Island and thus get there first.

From our positions on the side lines we think of many things that we believe should be done. We become impatient with those in authority because they are not done. But we have no way of knowing what plans are unfolding, and we lack essential information that is available only to those in authority. And, as Churchill pointed out, there may be times when our enthusiasm may cause embarrassment to those who are directing the action. Our well-intended suggestions are not always helpful.

Trinity Church to Join in Appeal for Aid to Men in U. S. Armed Forces

Trinity Lutheran congregation of this city is making final plans for an appeal in behalf of the Lutheran ministry to men in the armed forces and war-orphaned foreign missions, Rev. G. S. Thompson pastor, said today.

Nearly all Lutheran congregations in the country will participate in this drive, called Lutheran World Action, which is scheduled at Trinity church for Sunday, May 24th. Goal of the appeal is $650,000, the amount required to maintain these Lutheran services for a year.

Of the total $250,000 will be earmarked for the ministry to servicemen, which was initiated by the Service Commission of the National Lutheran Council early in 1941, shortly after the draft law was passed.

Since its inception the Service Commission has set up 31 service centers in all parts of the country, in communities adjoining the largest concentrations of Lutheran men. These centers are staffed by pastors who have the responsibility of ministering to the spiritual needs of men in the service.

Auto Drivers Told to Check Driving Permits

May 1 has been one of the traditional moving days for Minnesotans, but for the state highway patrol and drivers' license division of the state highway department it becomes a "go" sign to check up on drivers' licenses.

The highway department this week again warns motorists that failure to apply for a duplicate drivers' license within 15 days of changing their address, is a misdemeanor and carries a maximum penalty of $100 fine or 90 days in jail.

This year the drivers' license division and highway patrol is issuing an appeal to all persons who are changing their address, to immediately make application for their duplicate drivers' license either to the Highway Department Drivers' License bureau in St. Paul or to any county clerk of court. By so doing they will avoid a very embarrassing situation if they should be asked for their drivers' license by any authorized police officer.

Highway Crews Start Marking Safety Lines

Centerline marking crews have already started working on this year's centerline and "no passing" zone markings in congested traffic areas. Because of war priorities on various paint materials, the Minnesota highway department has had to resort to a slower drying paint than has been used in past years, and asks all motorists to refrain from driving over freshly painted stripes when red flags are set out. White stripes on black top and black stripes on concrete pavement, either in solid or intermittent will be used again this year to mark the highway center lines; yellow stripes, as adopted in 1940 in conformity with national standards, will invariably constitute barrier or "no passing" zones, lines at curves, hilltops, or other hazards.

LOCAL RAIL HAULS MAY BE ELIMINATED

Vast demands on the nation's transportation facilities as a result of war restrictions will require adjustment of schedules and possible elimination of local trains in many areas, the Office of Defense Transportation said today. Rail schedules will be lengthened to serve points now served by local trains or motor busses, and in situations in which train service is discontinued altogether, bus lines will be substituted so there will be no transportation shortages.

HAIRPIN MANUFACTURE CUT FIFTY PER CENT

The prospects of frowsy headed women may not be inviting to the imagination, but that's what we'll be coming to if America's women aren't careful with their hairpins and bobbie pins. The War Production board put a stop order on high carbon steel, which is used for bobbie pins and when the current stock is used up no more can be made. Hairpins can be made yet, for a while, but they cannot be more than two inches in length.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

The recreation program is sponsored by the city council in cooperation with the Work Projects Administration.

Puppet Show

Next Thursday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock in the arena puppet theatre the last puppet show of the school year will be staged. "The Black Rabbit" and "The Sleeping Beauty" will be shown as a double feature. Along with the two main attractions comes several numbers by the animal orchestra. There will be no shows during the summer months, so all those interested in seeing the puppets in action are encouraged to be on hand next Thursday for the current season's final performance.

Music Activities

Ella Loven, formerly of Stephen, is now in Thief River Falls and will handle music activities as a part of the local recreation program. Some piano work and rhythm band work will be available soon. These activities will be for pre-school and grade school children. Parents interested in the music work are asked to get in touch with Miss Loven at the Arena or send the children to the Arena. Rhythm band instruments are available for a 33 piece orchestra. Work in both these activities will begin this coming Monday.

Nature Study Hike

This coming Saturday afternoon a nature study hike will be conducted by Camille Dostal. All children interested in the hike are asked to report to Mrs. Dostal at the sports arena at 1:30 Saturday afternoon. Bring lunch and water along.

Boxing and Wrestling

All boys interested in boxing and wrestling are asked to report to the sports arena Friday night of this week at 7:00 o'clock. Gym equipment has been installed in the arena upstairs and will be ready for the initial workout Friday night. Bill LaFave will be in charge of the boys at this first meeting. Plans are being made for a boxing card to be held June 12th in the City Auditorium. Local boys will appear on the card along with several professional bouts.

Miscellaneous

Remember East-side park for tennis, softball, baseball, volleyball, croquet, horseshoe, and other activities. Keep in mind the puppetry construction work, the craft shop, photography, and other activities in the arena.

St. Louis Cardinal Ball Club Will Hold Tryouts in Barnesville June 8th

The St. Louis Cardinal organization in co-operation with the Barnesville Booster club and American Legion will conduct a baseball tryout camp in Barnesville, starting June 8, which will give local boys and boys of the surrounding territory an opportunity to determine whether they have the ability to play professional baseball.

The tryouts which will continue for a week will be held at the baseball park, and will be directed by Robert L. Finch, vice president of Cardinal minor league clubs.

Finch announced that all boys between the ages of 17 and 23 who believe they have the ability to play professional baseball will be welcome at the tryouts. Boys showing sufficient promise, he said, will be offered contracts with minor league clubs in the Cardinal organization.

Boys wishing tryouts have only to present themselves at the ball park at 9 o'clock the morning of Monday, June 8, bringing their shoes, gloves and uniforms. No fee is charged. The only other requirement is that out-of-town boys must finance their trips to Barnesville and living expenses while there.

Be Patient with Price Regulations, Says Chief

While the government is putting into effect its drastic price regulation order, the Office of Price Control is asking America's housewives to be patient and tolerant. Administrator Leon Henderson said the basis of the order is to protect the country against the rising cost of living. "Long-run success of the program requires the complete cooperation of the consumer," Henderson said. "The housewife and shopper can help by learning how price ceilings will operate and by showing patience while a program so vast is getting under way." Every retailer in the country must reprice his merchandise by May 18 to conform with the maximum price regulations. This is a tremendous task, much more difficult than anything the consumer must do.

NOTHING NEW, NOT EVEN STYLES

Shakopee.— Way back thirty years ago Lee Gelhaye was the proud purchaser of a linen duster. Before he wore it out the fashion changed and linen dusters just were not worn. Mrs. Gelhaye with wifely foresight packed the garment away in moth balls. Now once again linen dusters are in vogue, so Lee has shaken out the moth balls and feels he will be right in the swim wearing the garment purchased when he was a "young feller".

CROOKSTON NOSES OUT PROWLERS IN DISTRICT 31 MEET

Lincoln High Athletes Fall by Four Points to Take First Place

The defending champion Crookston Pirates, although picking up a 12-point cluster in the pole vault event and scoring in eleven of the thirteen events on the program, barely squeezed out a 4-point win over the Prowlers in the 31st district track and field meet held in the Memorial Stadium at Grand Forks Saturday.

The Pirates totaled 65½ points to nose out Coach Newby's Prowlers, who tallied 61½ points to win runner-up-honors. East Grand Forks earned third place with 27 9-10 points; and Fisher, due to the individual efforts of its all-round star, Edmund Rutherford, won fourth place with 23 2-5 points. Red Lake Falls marked up 12 7-10 points for fifth place; and Oslo and Climax each garnered 2 points.

Five records were broken during the meet, and one new record, in the mile run, was established. Bruce Biddick, Prowler co-captain, flashed over the high hurdles in 16.7 seconds, to break the 17.1 mark he set last year. Bill Ericson, Crookston sprinter, failed in his efforts to break his own sprint marks, but he hurled himself through the air to break the broad jump mark. Bill leaped 20 feet, 5½ inches, to better the record he set last year.

Ed Rutherford, of Fisher, was forced to crack the half-mile record to beat the defending champion, the Prowlers' Don Olson, in a race which proved to be the highlight of the meet. Rutherford ran the half-mile in 2:08.6, and only a fine "kick" during the last few yards enabled the Fisher lad to break the tape inches ahead of Olson. Crookston's Keith Thorson tossed the discus 109 feet, 9 inches, to erase the mark of 106 feet, 6½ inches, set by Dobias of Warren in 1935.

The Prowlers' Don Michalsky ran the mile, an event just introduced this year, in 5:12 to be installed as the district record holder. While in the meet's final event, the half-mile relay, the Prowler quartet—Bruce Biddick, Morris Efteland, Don Olson, and Ralph Hunt—flashed across the finish line in 1:41.4, to break the mark set up by Crookston in 1939.

Fisher's Ed Rutherford, with a first in the half-mile, a tie for first in the high jump, and second in the 220 yard dash and the broad jump, won high point honors with 17½ points. Bill Ericson, of Crookston, with firsts in the 100, 220, and the broad jump, won runner-up honors with 15 points; while the Prowlers' Bruce Biddick, scoring firsts in the high and low hurdles, and tying for first place in the high jump, totaled 14½ points.

Keeping Score

.... With BUCK OLSON

Quite a Performance

Coach Harry Newby is entitled to a couple of bows for the very fine performance of his track squad at the district meet Saturday. Although the Prowlers did not win the title they did give the heavily favored Crookston Pirates quite a scare. Given a couple of breaks the Prowlers could easily have erased that 4-point margin by which the Pirates retained their championship.

Crookston, perhaps, and due largely to the individual efforts of Bill Ericson, deserved to win; but the Prowlers exhibited the better balanced squad. The Pirates in amassing their 65½ points, scored in 11 of the 13 events; while the Prowlers in collecting their 61½ points, scored in every event on the program.

Prospects for next season's Prowler track team are fair, for while Coach Newby will only lose Bruce Biddick, Don Olson, Lenny Lorentson, Ralph Hunt, Ade Magnuson and Orlin Gjernes by graduation, these losses are first place losses. Biddick and Olson have been the Prowlers chief point-getters for the past two years, and it will be impossible to replace them. There are some youngsters in the freshmen and sophomore classes that are prospective track stars, and by next year they may have developed to the point where they will fit into Newby's program. Sophomores Jimmy Magnuson, Billy McKechnie, Mouse Efteland, LaMarr Hanson, and Burdell Merritt; and freshmen Chuck Richards, George Guttu, Billy Bye, Manny Forsberg, Larry Rulien, and Earl Helle, are the lads that are on their way up. The juniors will give next year's squad Pete Michalsky, Bob Abbott, Bob Wright, Mark Leverson, Milt Reierson, and Bob Powell.

Should be a Race

That half-mile duel between the Prowlers' Don Olson and Fisher's Edmund Rutherford in the regional track and field meet at Bemidji tomorrow should be a classic; and with favorable weather conditions and a fast track, the winner should set a new regional record. Don was beaten by Rutherford in the district meet Saturday, in record making time, and he's anxious for revenge. Don doesn't have any alibis for his loss last Saturday, but it must be stated that Don ran the 200 yard low hurdle event just preceding the half-mile. And, too, Don underestimated the sprinting ability of Rutherford, for the Fisher ace, with a fine sprint, caught and passed the Prowler runner in the last few yards.

Are the Crookston pole vaulters due for a surprise when they tangle with the Park Rapids entry! A week ago Saturday, competing in a meet at St. John's college, McNulty of Park Rapids pole vaulted 11 feet, 6¾ inches, to set a new Collegeville record. The regional pole vaulting mark is 11 feet, 2 inches, so it appears that a new record is in prospect tomorrow.

And too, I hope that Bruce Biddick can set a new high hurdle mark.

We'll be Having Boxing

Bill LaFave, in behalf of the local 40 & 8, has made an application for a boxing franchise for the city, and the state boxing commission has acted favorably on his request. It was necessary for Bill to secure permission from the city council to conduct matches, and that permission was obtained from the council Tuesday night.

It is Bill's intention to promote amateur bouts, and to organize a northwest Golden Glove circuit.

Pike Fishing Tomorrow

The wall-eye and great northern pike fishing season opens tomorrow, the 15th, and it appears that the river, especially that stretch of the stream between here and St. Hilaire, will be given a workout. It is Orlando Bishop's opinion, and he has fished the river as long as I can remember, the pools below the dam should produce some fine fishing. I'll perhaps get myself a couple of minnows and a june bug spinner and go down to the bend in the river, below Aubol's school, and if I don't have any luck there I'll get a can of angle-worms, and fish the Thief river for bullheads.

Dr. Homer Hedemark and Dr. Warren Hanson were on Crow lake last week, and they reported a fine catch. And on Saturday Cliff Bjorkman, Chris Rinkel, Howie Holum, and Clarence Offerdahl, made the jaunt into Canada to fish Crow lake. Haven't heard what luck they had, but knowing Cliff, I imagine that the party caught their limit, and with the smallest fishing weighing about fifteen pounds.

On Sunday George Mostue, Haakon Olson, Helmer Bauman, Frank Rinkel, and perhaps Leon Kaliher, will leave for Quibell, to fish for lake trout, great northerns, and muskies in Big Canon lake. This territory, northeast of Kenora, has just been opened to fishing, and the catches coming out of there have been remarkable.

Vern Williams and Walt Gibson are leaving for Canada this week-end too, but they are headed for Crow lake, and from there they will go on a two-week, combined canoe and fishing trip.

Legion Baseball

The American Legion's junior baseball team will begin practice on Monday. Ferd Elstad will have charge of the boys, and he announces that the east side park will be utilized for the practice sessions, which are slated to be held in the early evening. All candidates are asked to report for the opening practice.

LOCAL SCHOOLMEN WILL ENTER BEMIDJI TOURNEY

Supt. Morris Bye, Principal W. G. Claffy and Coach Harry Newby will journey to Bemidji Saturday to participate in the Paul Bunyan Schoolmasters golf tournament in that city.

DRISCOLL GIVES POINTERS ON USE OF RATION BOOKS

Minnesota Chief States 98.5 Pct. Were Registered Last Week

With 98.5% of Minnesota's population registered for the government's war rationing program, T. G. Driscoll, state rationing administrator, this week summarized regulations covering use of the new ration books to make it easier for consumers to live under the rationing program.

Driscoll had only praise for the way school authorities, school teachers, members of Parent-Teacher associations, Red Cross workers and other volunteer groups, working with the rationing boards, carried through the stupendous task of registering consumers of the state smoothly and efficiently during the four days set aside for this purpose.

Due for commendation, too, he said, are newspapers of the state who aided tremendously in spreading information about the registration. That of 98.5% of the people of Minnesota, as shown by the 1940 census, should be registered, was considered excellent evidence not only of the organization developed but the spirit of cooperation on the part of the public.

Total applications for ration books in the state as a whole were 2,736,444. Of this number, 2,474,722 were issued ration books. The remainder—261,722, or nearly 10%—had more than the amount of sugar allowed and will get books when their excess supply is used up.

Persons not registered in the four days last week will not be able to register until May 21st. After that date they can register at the office of their local rationing board. Meanwhile, they will be unable to buy sugar.

Not a few misapprehensions over use of the ration books have arisen, Driscoll said. Grocers in a few cases have allowed consumers to buy only half a pound of sugar for the first stamp in their ration book. Each of the first four stamps in the book is good for one pound of sugar, Driscoll pointed out, and the pound in each case must last owner of the book for two weeks.

A purchase must be made with the first stamp before May 16, or it will be worthless. The second stamp will allow the purchase of one pound for each bookholder between May 17 and May 30. The third stamp in the same way will cover the next two weeks, and the fourth the succeeding two weeks. Value of the remaining stamps in the books will be determined later.

Lutheran Free Church Mission Group to Meet at Newfolden May 14th

The Women's Missionary Federation of the Thief River Falls district, Lutheran Free church, will hold its annual spring meeting Thursday, May 14, at Newfolden. The sessions will be held in the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Rev. G. P. Ronholm, pastor. The forenoon meeting begins at 10:30 a. m. and the afternoon assembly will be at 1:30 p. m. Miss Alma Shirley, missionary returned from China, will be the guest speaker. Lenorah Erickson will also bring a message. The annual election of officers for the district will take place in the afternoon. Musical numbers for the sessions will be furnished by the various churches of the district. Mrs. Ole K. Ose of Thief River Falls, district chairman, will preside at the business meeting.

High School Graduates Eligible for Entry as Naval Aviation Cadets

Navy-flight officers at Wold-Chamberlain field last week began interviewing the first rush of high school graduates and seniors for entry as naval aviation cadets, after the Navy department announced it no longer required two years of college of applicants.

Lieut-Comdr. Truman C. Penney, senior member of the naval aviation cadet selection board, announced that the age requirement had been adjusted, making all men who have passed their eighteenth birthday eligible. He warned however, that although high school graduates now would be permitted to apply as naval aviation cadets, the path leading to Navy Wings is a rugged one. Older youths up to age 27 must show good occupational experience, with preference given for any college training.

Outlining steps in the 10-month training program for a naval aviation cadet, Lieut-Comdr. Penney said that eligible single men can get information and application blanks either at the NACSB at Wold-Chamberlain Field, or at the Civilian Committee for Naval Aviation, 1045 Northwestern Bank Building, Minneapolis, or from the nearest sub-recruiting station. They may appear in person, or write.

A personal interview is the next step, as well as examinations that include coordination trials in a "flying chair", and aptitude and eyesight tests.

Government Urges Lots of Tomatoes This Year

The government is urging housewives to use a lot of tomatoes in the family diet this year because it is rich in Vitamin C. This is the vitamin that keeps health up, provides strong teeth and strong bones. The tomato, says the consumer division of the Office of Price Administration, clings tenaciously to its Vitamin C and will go through a cooking and canning process without losing any. Fresh or canned or in canned juice form, the tomato is a continuous source of supply of Vitamin C. The division explains that Vitamin C cannot be stored in the body. Some food rich in it must, therefore be eaten every day. Other sources of Vitamin C are oranges, grapefruit, raw cabbage and other fresh vegetables and potatoes if eaten in large quantities.

East Grand Forks Liquor Places are Fined $4,000 in Crookston Last Week

Polk county coffers were enriched by more than $4,000 late last week with the arraignment of 22 East Grand Forks tavern operators in district court at Crookston on charges of possession of intoxicating liquor for sale.

The charges against the East Grand Forks men are based on complaints issued last December 18. The men were arraigned in municipal court in East Grand Forks at that time and were bound over to district court.

District Judge James E. Montague imposed fines of $200 each and costs of $1 each on the 22 who have been arraigned. There are 11 complaints still pending. Jail sentences of 30 days were also imposed, suspended on condition of payment of the fine, with an additional 60-day sentence to be added if the fine was not paid.

PHONOGRAPH RECORD PRODUCTION IS CUT

Production of phonographs will soon be a thing of the past, so the government figures that production of records can be cut, too. In a new order, the War Production Board has reduced the number of phonographs and radio transcriptions to approximately 50 per cent of the 1941 production. It did the job by limiting the amount of shellac available to the industry to that amount. The reason for the action is that India is practically the only source of shellac, which has many more vital war uses than the propagation of lilting tunes.

An Australian merino ram, with fleece averaging 5 inches thick, can supply enough wool at one clipping to make half a dozen suits of clothes.

"Conversion is the only straight, fast road to victory," says Donald Nelson in urging industry to convert its facilities to war production or essential civilian needs.

Nothing like that's going to happen to America. America is going to win its battles : : : win them by seeing that the men who need the tools, machines, guns, and supplies HAVE THEM : : : WHEN THEY NEED THEM. That means you : : : us : : : everyone : : : is going to give up a lot of things we enjoyed and took for granted : : : because the men who fight : : : and the men behind the men who fight : : : need those things! Okay : : : we're willing : : : GLAD : : : to make the sacrifice . . . any sacrifice. But how will we make sure that the right men get the things they need? The priority system takes care of that. Our Government knows what's needed : : : knows who makes it : : : knows who should have it! The priority system is the Government's way of seeing that the right men get what they need : : : when they need it. The priority system says DEFENSE NEEDS COME FIRST : : : and tells in what order those needs come. Up to now we everyday people haven't been touched much by priorities. America's vast storehouses gave us a big supply in reserve : : : on almost everything. The picture's changing rapidly. Right now : : : at Wards : : : and in retail stores all over : : : clerks are telling customers, "Sorry, but you'll have to give us a priority rating on this." Some customers, who understand, take it as a matter of course. Others : : : who don't understand : : : are pretty peeved. We're printing this ad so customers will understand. When Wards : : : or any one : : : asks for a priority : : : that's because the Government wants it that way : : : wants to make sure that a defense worker isn't being deprived of something he needs : : : needs vitally! And we want to make this clear—although many items are restricted by priorities : : : most of the things you need : : : clothes, shoes, furniture : : : practically everything you use : : : you can still buy as before. And you can buy all these things at Wards : : : economically : : : with assured satisfaction. Not being able to sell tools and equipment except on a priority is going to cost us a lot of business. Well, that's part of our sacrifice : : : and we're glad to make it. Not being able to buy those things is part of your sacrifice. We're pretty sure that's okay with you!

Norwegian Sailor Visiting in Newfolden Tells About War

We have an exciting story submitted by a Norwegian Chief Engineer who is visiting at the Rev. Thv. Myhrer home at Newfolden, while the ship he is working on is being repaired after being damaged by German torpedoes and bombs. This man is a nephew of Mrs. Myhrer. He has a wife and seven year old son in Norway who he has not seen since his son was eleven months old. He was given a furlough and was ready to leave for home when the war broke out. Because of regulations, his name cannot be printed. His experiences are as follows.—Correspondent's note.

I take this opportunity of writing a few lines from life after Norway entered the War. We arrived at Capetown, South Africa, in the morning of April 9, 1940. The first we heard as we got along side the berth was that Norway had been invaded. Immediately the crew started a rush on the consulate because everyone wanted to get home to join up to fight the Germans. Our ship, 14700 ton tanker, was taken over by the British immediately and we were ordered to go to Abadan Iran where we loaded and sailed for Alexandria, Egypt. We were kept as a supply ship for the British fleet.

During our stay in Alexandria we had air raids night after night. Due to lack of sleep it was hard for the crew to work at day. A big bomb fell about 16 feet from our ship. The ship was hit by bomb splinters which dented the steel nearly an inch and three inches in diameter. Two men were seriously wounded and were taken to a hospital ship Maine during the air raid.

We left for Malta in April, 1941 together with five other ships. We were followed by four Norwegian ships, two cargo and two tankers. We were escorted by three cruisers and four destroyers. At the same time the whole Alexandria fleet was in the neighborhood. Everything went well until we arrived outside of Malta. The cargo ships were the first to be taken into the harbor, in the meantime one mine exploded and we were ordered to stay where we were until further notice.

Then a large force of German dive bombers came over to bomb Malta and when they saw our ships they bombed us. They dropped all their bombs but were unable to hit our ships. We fired at them with all our guns but they came at us with such great speed that it was very difficult to hit them. Then some British fighter planes came to our aid and shot down three German planes. To our amusement we heard from Rome the next day that they had sunk our ship.

During our eleven weeks stay in Malta we had three hundred and fifty air raids. The harbor in Malta is small and was an easy target for the bombers. Most of the bombs fell in the water, only one of the ships was slightly damaged. More damage was on the civilian homes. It was a hard time for us, as we were never out of our clothes as we expected air raids at all times. We were very tired from lack of sleep.

We left Malta in July and passed within six miles of Pantelina, an Italian stronghold, in the night. We sailed to the French African Coast, and went inside of a mine field about half a mile off shore. During the night we painted the ship's deck with Italian colors and in the morning we hoisted an Italian flag. At 8:00 in the morning we saw a plane but we did not shoot at it as we could not identify its nationality. We were not escorted by any ships or planes, and at 12:30 the first formation of Italian bombers came over us and dropped bombs without hitting us, and at 2:30 the next formation of bombers came and unloaded their cargo of bombs at our ship without success. They they dived at us and machine gunned us. The third and last formation came at 6:30 p. m.

Besides the bombers there were three torpedo carrying planes. Again the bombers dropped all their bombs and did not find the mark. During the three raids many exploded near us. The torpedo carrying plane came from portside about 50 yards from the water. They dropped three torpedoes, two missed and one struck the ship on the port bow and blew up the whole ship side in number one wing tank and badly damaged center tank deep tank, a cofferdam. We stopped to let steam on the fore deck at the same time some of the crew rushed for the life boats, to let them think we were abandoning the ship. They left and did not return.

The next day we heard from Rome we had been sunk for the second time. We had such a big hole in the ship's side that we could easily have paddled in with a row boat. Nothing happened on the rest of our voyage and we managed to reach our destination with reduced speed.

ROCK WITHIN A ROCK FOUND AT IVANHOE

Ivanhoe—A stone-within-a-stone on display in the local newspaper office is being viewed by many individuals. This strange specimen was discovered by eight-year-old Floyd Sik who chanced to pick up a brown colored stone about goose egg size and tossed it against a larger rock on the ground. A portion of the specimen chipped and when the boy picked up the two sections it was disclosed that a smaller and white stone was lodged within the outer shell. The white stone is about large bird-egg size.

Freight trains like this are the beginning of the assembly lines from which roll airplanes, tanks, guns and other war materials. Around the clock, winter and summer, the trains keep rolling—backing up every phase of the Nation's war efforts.

Whoooo-whoooo-woo-woo

Through night, through storm, it shrills for the right of way for Uncle Sam.

Troops, guns, munitions, food, materials,—all going places—in a hurry!

How fast the pace?

This may give you some idea: Last year the Great Northern moved nearly one-third more freight than ever before in its history. Much of it, critical war materials that had to arrive on time—and did!

And, incidentally, it doesn't follow that because the railroad moved nearly one-third more freight than ever before, it received that much more money for its services.

The fact is that the "pay" the Great Northern received for the record-breaking transportation job it did in 1941 was actually less than it received in 1928 or 1929, previous peak years.

Not only did the Great Northern receive less, but it paid the highest wages in its history, the highest taxes ($16,867,023 in 1941 as compared with $9,201,134 in 1929), and higher prices for fuel, materials and supplies.

The main thing is—

To keep on delivering the goods for Uncle Sam!

To keep those freight cars rolling!

To try to come through the present year with the record intact—a record of not a single hour's delay in any part of Uncle Sam's war effort on account of any failure of the Great Northern Railway!

And to that end, the men who man the trains, who maintain the roads of steel, keep the cars and locomotives in repair, and perform the many other necessary services, can be depended upon to "keep 'em rolling."

From where I sit . . .

by Joe Marsh

You ought to meet my friend, Will Dudley. I suppose Will must be seventy-eight or nine . . . but you'd never know it. He's tall and lean and hard as a hickory. And although the only formal education he ever had was a few winters in the old red schoolhouse, I think that he's the wisest man I know in many ways.

For one thing, Will taught me the value of what he calls "Just a-settin!"

Come upon Will in the evening, when his hard day's work is done, and you'll find him "just a-settin," in a rocker on his porch. In one hand he'll have his old briar pipe and in the other, a tall cool glass of beer.

"Wholesome, appetizin' beer," says Will, "is standard equipment for proper settin! Puts a feller in an easy-goin' peaceful mood."

You see, Will holds the theory that in our present mixed-up world, a man needs a quiet hour every day. An hour in which to sit down quietly and restore his strength and courage.

Will thinks, and I agree with him, that a man ought to forget all his own and the world's worries during that hour-of-peace. And Will feels that a glass of fragrant mellow beer helps most to bring you quiet relaxation.

Show me the man who sits down quietly of an evening with his glass of beer and I'll show you a man who is wise in the ways of living. Such men, like Will Dudley, live to a ripe old age, unembittered by the troubles of the world. They seem to remain, all their lives, sweet-natured and kindly.

Time has a way of rendering accurate judgments on the value of the things men use and enjoy in the world. And Time . . . thousands of years of it . . . has handed down the verdict that beer is a pleasant and worthy companion for all men of good will.

Carpet Laying Methods

Lower-priced, lower-grade broadloom carpeting can often be an economy; but it should never be laid wall to wall, or cut to fit around hearth, odd corners or stairways. Less expensive weaves will be bound to buckle and stretch, which is not so noticeable when it is simply a rug with floor borders but very noticeable when it is fitted to the walls or around odd corners.

Patrol Chief Announces Lamp Adjustment School at Dunwoody Institute

Elden Rowe, chief of the Minnesota highway patrol, this week announced a new training course for auto lamp adjusters to be held at Dunwoody Institute in Minneapolis on May 4, 5, 6 and 7. Inasmuch as this may be the last lamp adjusters school for some time, Mr. Rowe urged all persons interested in being certified as official lamp adjusters to attend these classes.

The purpose of the school from the highway patrol standpoint is to ultimately reduce the number of faulty driving lights, and to establish convenient stations for patrolmen when they are obliged to give motorists tags for improper lights. According to law any one given a "ticket" must obtain an official testing tag stating that his lights have been put in perfect order. Completion of the course will qualify men and garages where they are employed to operate "official" adjusting stations under requirements of law.

Applications must be made in advance of the opening date and payment of a $5.00 fee for the course will be required. Any mechanic having two years of automotive experience, and over 21 years of age, will be eligible. Entrance blanks may be obtained by mail, either from the Highway Patrol Office in St. Paul or Dunwoody Institute in Minneapolis.

Federal Agency Lists Price-Limited Goods

Beginning Monday, May 18, all retail establishments in the Northwest will be obliged to conform to the maximum price regulations established by order of the Office of Price Administration.

This means that from that date until the end of the war a maximum price will be placed upon thousands of consumer goods—articles of use and services known as cost-of-living commodities. The maximum prices shall not be higher than the highest price charged for the goods or services during the month of March of this year. A merchant may sell his goods for less, but not for more than the "ceiling" price. He must keep publicly posted the "ceiling" prices of the goods.

There follows a complete list of the commodities covered by the OPA order—the cost-of-living commodities. For commodity classifications marked by asterisks (*) maximum prices may be posted by price-lines at the place in the business establishment where the commodities are offered for sale, provided that, in addition, the selling price of each commodity in such classification shall be marked on the commodity itself.

Bad Breath in Dogs

Bad breath in dogs may be caused by several different things. Usually it is the symptom of a deranged stomach. The dog may be suffering from hyperacidity, in which case anti-acid tablets will help. Excess tartar on the teeth at the gums may be responsible. If this exists, have it removed. Worms may be the cause. A stool analysis will tell you if worms are present. Decaying teeth and ulcerous gums will also cause an odorous breath.

Trout Fishermen Will Swing into Action in Minnesota May First

Trout fishermen awaiting the opening of the season in all sections of Minnesota Friday were reminded today by V. E. Joslin, acting director of the division of game and fish, that sun time, and not war time, applies in determining hours during which the fish may be taken.

The law reads that trout may not be taken between the hours of 9 P. M. and one hour before sunrise. This would mean that, based on sun time, the fisherman could continue angling until 10 P. M., but that he must start an hour later by his clock in the morning.

The daily limit remains at 15, and all trout taken must be retained. The possession limit is 25, or a total of 20 pounds.

Anglers were reminded that trout may not be taken with the aid of an artificial light of any kind, including bonfires, automobile headlights and spotlights.

Lake trout or land-locked salmon may be taken by angling between December 1 and September 15 following, except on Lake Superior, where they may be taken by angling between December 1 and October 1 following. The daily limit is five and the possession limit 10. All fish caught must be retained.

VICTORY A[illegible] OPEN WAR BOND DRIVE MONDAY

Seek to Get Head of Every Family in City Signed up in Campaign

ST. HILAIRE IS FIRST TO COMPLETE DRIVE

Government Asks Citizens to Invest 10 Pct. of Monthly Income

One hundred and seventy five members of the Victory Aide organization under the direction of Mrs. Ed. Karwand, met in the Civic and Commerce rooms in the municipal auditorium last Thursday, for the purpose of organizing the war bond drive which got under way for the city of Thief River Falls on Monday. Paul A. Lundgren, head of the county campaign, addressed the group.

The Victory Aides will visit every house in the city, selling the idea that everyone should save as much as possible of their income for war bonds. The government recommends that the goal be placed at ten per cent of the income.

Supplies have been turned over to the lieutenants and sergeants in charge for the solicitors, and all who sign pledges will receive a blue poster to place in the window bearing the inscription "We Are Buying U. S. Savings Bonds and Stamps".

Since our fighting men will have no vacations this summer, so the school children will be asked to sign a pledge that they will take no vacation in the buying of bonds and stamps. Morris Bye, superintendent of schools, announced that plans are being devised to enable the children to conduct a systematic plan of saving throughout the summer.

Pennington county's quota for May has been set at $18,500.00. Sales to date have averaged a little more than $12,000.00 per month. It is therefore evident that there will have to be considerable increase in volume if the county is to reach its quota.

The village of St. Hilaire is the first municipality in Pennington county to complete its war bond drive. This was conducted under the direction of Paul Roy, a member of the Pennington county war bond committee. The solicitations were made by Paul Roy, Mrs. O. Gunstad, and Mrs. M. Jackson. Forty-six pledges were received, yielding a systematic monthly savings for the purchase of war bonds of $297.80 per month. This is an average of $6.47 per month of those who pledged. This does not include the monthly purchases of stamps by the children in the St. Hilaire school.

Mr. Roy announced that the committee was met everywhere with a willingness to co-operate and to contribute as much as the individual earnings would permit. He stated that there were only two persons called upon who in his opinion were able to contribute who did not sign the pledge.

Rain Hampers Rites on "I Am an American Day"

New Lions Club Head

ARCHIE W. HENSRUD
Active member of the local Lions club, who was elevated to the presidency in the annual election conducted last Wednesday evening. He succeeds Dr. E. S. Amesbury.

The weather man failed to cooperate Sunday in the first formal observance here of "I Am an American" Day, and a drizzling rain necessitated the cancellation of the parade which had been scheduled for the occasion, while the program was transferred from the Elks park to the Auditirium, where a large audience assembled.

With W. G. Claffy in charge, the program opened with the rendition of "America" by the high school band directed by Glendon E. Ahre, followed by the invocation by Rev. E. L. Tungseth and a vocal solo, "I Pledge Allegiance to My Flag," by H. M. Hitterdal with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Hitterdal and cornet obbligato by Vern Keifenheim.

W. L. Peterson, Lancaster attorney, gave the address of the day, addressing his words to the new citizens whom the occasion was designed to honor. He traced the privileges enjoyed by American citizens back to the British Magna Carta of 1215 and to the American bill of rights drawn up by the founding fathers.

Calling attention to the duty of every citizen to support the soldiers who are fighting their battles, Mr. Peterson declared that the men and women who stay in the factories and on the farms must supply all materials needed for the prosecution of the war and must buy war bonds until it hurts.

He closed his address by stating, "Only when we have individually done all possible to win the war will we have earned the right to call ourselves Americans."

The rendition by the band of "The Star-Spangled Banner" brought the program to a close.

COUNTY TO JOIN IN USO CAMPAIGN; TO RAISE $325 QUOTA

Part of National Drive for Funds for Benefit of Service Men

Pennington county next Monday will join in the national campaign to raise $32,000,000 for the war fund of the United Service Organizations, and the quota for this county has been set at $325, it was announced today by Ralph Luhman, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and county chairman of the fund drive.

Chairman Luhman stated that a canvass of the city will be conducted largely by members of the Junior Chamber, and that voluntary contributions are solicited from residents of the rural areas of the county. Contributions, he said, may be mailed to Kenneth Lindbergh, treasurer, or may be left at either of the two local banks.

Governor Harold E. Stassen last week issued a proclamation urging every citizen of the state to contribute generously to the fund for the support of the USO, which is serving the men in the nation's armed forces along social, religious and recreational lines, in a program which supplements the morale-building work of the army and navy.

The state USO drive received religious blessings over the last week end, May 16-17, when many ministers of the Catholic, Jewish and Protestant faiths devoted all or part of their Saturday or Sunday services to stressing the spiritual value of the morale work carried on by USO in the more than 670 service clubs and units serving America's fighting men.

Auxiliary Unit Plans Poppy Day on Saturday

In announcing the annual poppy sale to be conducted in this city Saturday by the American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. M. R. Levorson, chairman in charge of the sale, announced that the proceeds will be used to assist needy families of the men in the present war as well as veterans of World War I.

The local auxiliary unit has ordered 1500 of the paper poppies which were made during the winter months by disabled veterans in the Minnesota workroom in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Levorson stated that the entire amount realized from last year's poppy sale was spent for welfare and rehabilitation work under the direction of a committee including Mrs. Leonard Hanson, chairman; Mrs. A. C. Matheson and Mrs. A. M. Campbell.

Twelve baskets were distributed to as many families last Christmas by the local Legion and auxiliary, bringing cheer to 39 children. The cost of these baskets was $60. In addition, the auxiliary received a fine response to their appeal for clothing, books and toys. Patients at hospitals and at the sanatorium are remembered during the year.

Donations and gifts during the year were given to the Red Cross, the Christmas seal program, The Girl Scouts, (enabling two girls to attend camp), to the Mobile Unit Blood Bank, the Toy Shop at the Veterans' Hospital in Minneapolis, and for a Valentine party at the Fargo hospital.

Materials have been purchased for articles for the supply shelf, including bed coats, layettes, pillow cover for wheel chairs, etc.

Departing Selectees Given Hearty Send-off

Friends and relatives from throut the county assembled at the Auditorium Monday morning to say farewell to a large contingent of selective service registrants who departed via bus at noon for Fort Snelling. At the request of the Civic Service organization, sponsor of the sendoff, local stores remained closed from 11 o'clock until noon.

Dr. A. E. Jacobson, who presided over the brief program, called upon Supt. Morris Bye to deliver the farewell message. Mr. Bye stated that the present crisis creates the issue of whether or not the privileges granted by the American form of government are to continue to exist.

Declaring that the nation is calling for every man, woman and child to serve in some capacity, he said the toughest assignment is for the actual fighting and calls for the cream of the country. He closed by urging those who stay at home to pledge themselves to back up the men on the fighting line.

Following the roll call of the departing contingent, Rev. E. L. Tungseth gave the benediction and the Lincoln high school band, directed by Paul Senstad, played a group of selections.

GOP CONVENTION FOR COUNTY WILL BE HELD JUNE 27

State Executive Committee Sets Date at Meeting Last Week

Taking initial steps to prepare for the 1942 campaign, the Republican state executive committee this past week made arrangements to hold the Republican precinct caucuses and county conventions in June and set up the machinery required for the holding of the district conventions and the state convention.

Under the program adopted, precinct caucuses will be held here and in other communities throughout the state on June 16. County conventions will be held one week later, on June 27.

Following the usual procedure, the district committee will determine the time the district convention is to be held. Unlike the precinct caucuses and the county conventions, which must be held on the date specified by the executive committee, the district conventions need not be held at the same time.

The state convention will be held in St. Paul after the primary early in September, the executive committee decided, on a date to be selected by the party officers. Principal function of the state convention is to adopt a party platform and make other arrangements for the campaign. This may best be done, party leaders suggested, after the primary has been held and the candidates have been determined.

Decision to hold the state convention after the primary set at rest all speculation over possibility of an endorsing convention for state candidates. Views of party leaders generally held to the belief that state candidates should be selected through an open primary, and no proposal for a state endorsing convention was presented.

Dr. R. C. Radabaugh, Republican state chairman, explained that the precinct caucuses and the county conventions were being set for June so that the county party leaders selected may get their organization work started early.
